

Rent, For Sale, Boarders and Board Wanted, Employees or Positions Wanted, For Sale or Exchange ads. In The Times for One Cent a Word.

The Raleigh Times.

And EVENING VISITOR. Established 1879.

One Cent a Word is All an Advertisement in the Times will Cost you, and it will reach three times as many people in Raleigh as any other medium.

Whole No. 9,394

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 3, 1900

$3 a Year.

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT

Review of Century's Progress. Affairs in China. Wants Hay Treaty Ratified. War Tax Should be Reduced $30,000,000. Recommends Army of 100,000 and Stronger Navy.

By telegraph to The Times. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The President's message was sent to Congress and read before both houses today. The President begins his message by describing the present prosperity of the country, and contrasting its importance and size with what it was at the time of taking the first census in 1800. It then numbered but five million people, and was composed of but nine hundred square miles.

By telegraph to The Times. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The President's message was sent to Congress and read before both houses today. The President begins his message by describing the present prosperity of the country, and contrasting its importance and size with what it was at the time of taking the first census in 1800. It then numbered but five million people, and was composed of but nine hundred square miles.

SOME HOT FIGHTING

British Loss 1 Officer Killed, 10 Wounded; 13 Men Killed, 59 Wounded

ROBERTS TO BE A DUKE

The New Parliament Met This Afternoon. Russia Aids Macedonian Revolutionists.

By Telegraph to The Times. LONDON, Dec. 3.—Kitchener, wiring the War Office from Bloemfontein, reports further fighting north east of Bloemfontein, November 29th. Both sides lost heavily. The British loss is: Col. Loyd killed, 10 officers wounded; 13 men killed, and 59 wounded. The New Zealanders acquitted themselves with the greatest gallantry. Bronkhorstspuit is forty miles east of Pretoria.

MR. BRYAN'S FUNERAL

Service Sunday Afternoon at Christ Church, Buried in Oakwood Cemetery

MR. A. N. UPCHURCH DEAD

Funeral This Morning. Mr. C. C. Crowell Passed Away Sunday Morning.

The funeral service of the late Mr. A. P. Bryan was held from Christ Church yesterday afternoon and was largely attended by friends of the family. The funeral service of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall, assisted by Rev. Dr. I. McK. Pittenger. The remains were interred in Oakwood cemetery, and the grave was completely covered with floral tributes.

JUST TWENTY CASES

Reduced to Five Crumpacker's Bill Takes Away Four N. C. Congressmen.

THREE WHITE THIEVES

The Police Bring a Rush of Business Into His Worship's Court This Morning.

Raleigh tried herself yesterday, and as a result of the performances of a portion of the population, Mayor Powell held a continuous session of his court until the dinner hour and even then all the cases had not been disposed of, one having asked a postponement until five this afternoon. The crimes committed were of all grades, including house breaking, robbery, selling whiskey on Sunday, fighting and similar drunks. Three of the offenders were boys under seventeen years old.

REDUCED TO FIVE

Crumpacker's Bill Takes Away Four N. C. Congressmen.

CAROLINIANS INDIGNANT

Protest Against Outrage. Based on Idea That All Negroes will be Disfranchised.

By telegraph to The Times. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—The first bill introduced in the House today was the army reorganization bill and the Congressional apportionment bill. The latter is by Crumpacker, of Indiana. It provides for a reapportionment of Congressional representation and reduces the representation of Louisiana, Mississippi, North and South Carolina by 12 votes. According to Crumpacker's bill the House will have 365 members, the apportionment being on a basis of 198,000 population. The army bill is the work of the Military Affairs Committee, and is fathered by Chairman Hall, of Iowa.

THE BAPTIST HOSTS

About Twenty Homes Yesterday Lacking for the 650 Accredited Delegates

B. Y. P. U. MEETS TOMORROW

Dr. E. E. Chivers of Chicago to Speak. Arrangements for Women's Meeting.

The opening session of the Baptist State Convention will be held Wednesday evening in the First Baptist church. The delegates will begin pouring in tomorrow, since the Young People's Union meets in their State convention Tuesday night. Mr. John E. Lay, the chairman of the committee on entertainment, says that not less than 650 representatives will be here for the convention, and about 20 homes were still lacking last afternoon. This number was later reduced to 16. The attendance on the convention will surely reach 750, since there are at least 100 who are coming as guests of friends in Raleigh and have not given the committee their names.

ENORMOUS APPROPRIATIONS

Lavish Plan of Expenditure Laid Out.

By Telegraph to The Times. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The short session of Congress beginning today, promises to be memorable in the history of the United States. Much work is ordinarily undertaken at the short session has been continued, but although this Congress has shown a capacity to dispose of business rapidly, it is doubtful whether the entire program can be carried out.

NEW PARLIAMENT MEETS

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The new Parliament convenes this afternoon, but the only business will be the election of a Speaker of the House of Commons. The competition among the members for choice of seats is very keen. J. C. MacDonna arrived at the House at midnight and shortly after him came Sir Daring Lawrence. By 5:30 a. m. there were many members present.

DEATH OF MR. CROWELL

Mr. C. C. Crowell died at his home on East Hargett street Sunday morning at 8:15, and the funeral service will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon at 9:30.

DEATH OF MR. CROWELL

Mr. C. C. Crowell died at his home on East Hargett street Sunday morning at 8:15, and the funeral service will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon at 9:30.

HOUSE ROBBERY

Ernest Jones, Tom Sater and Frank Moore were arrested for breaking into the former residence of Mr. J. D. Boushall and stealing three window curtains which they sold for 25 cents each at Mr. Dan Harris' store. Jones and Sater are both under 15 years old and Moore is not over 19 or 20. However, Jones and Moore have been in court on similar charges repeatedly before. They will go to jail in default of a $25 bond.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

The tenth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Societies will be held in the First Presbyterian church beginning Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

QUESTIONS OF INDEMNITY

The President looks upon matter of indemnity for our citizens who have suffered by the Boxer outrages, as a matter of grave concern. The compensation, in part, will come, he thinks, in benefits derived from the opening of China to the equal commerce of the world. He expresses the hope that the powers will not attempt to force demands from China that the Imperial government will be unable to meet.

GERMANS IN DANGER

TIENTSIN, Dec. 3.—Word reached here yesterday that four companies of German troops are menaced by a strong force of Chinese, 35 miles west of Peking-Fu. Eight companies French troops have gone to the Germans' relief.

RUSSIA ENCOURAGES REVOLUTIONISTS

VIENNA, Dec. 3.—A dispatch from Sofia says Russia, desiring that there be peace at present in the Balkans, has struck a bargain with the Macedonian revolutionary committee, by which the latter shall keep quiet now, Russia promising to help the organization in its independence movement at a more favorable time.

MR. ALVIS UPCHURCH DEAD

Sunday morning at nine o'clock Mr. Alvis N. Upchurch passed away at Rex Hospital at nine o'clock after a lingering illness in the sixty-ninth year of his age.

MR. POE APPOINTED

Agent of the Southern Express Co. Succeeding Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Hastings Poe has been appointed agent of the Southern Express Company here to succeed the late Mr. C. C. Bryan. Mr. Bryan was for nearly forty years agent of the company in Raleigh, and Mr. Poe has been connected with the Southern for many years.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

The tenth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Societies will be held in the First Presbyterian church beginning Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY

The President hopes that the Alaskan boundary dispute will be soon settled by definitely determining the 141st Meridian by means of telegraphic observation.

CLLOUDY WEATHER

A Cold Wave is Now Traversing the Far West.

MOVES TO CHARLOTTE

Mr. Carroll to Sell the Carrollton Hotel.

OFF FOR CONFERENCE

Work of the Edenton Street Methodist Church for the Year.

PERSONAL POINTS

Miss Mamie Bays, of Charlotte, is visiting in the city.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

The tenth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Societies will be held in the First Presbyterian church beginning Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

WANTS HAY TREATY RATIFIED

Regarding the Nicaragua canal he commends the "early attention of the Senate to the convention with Great Britain to facilitate the construction of such a canal, and to remove any objection which might arise out of the convention commonly called the Clayton-Bulwer treaty."

THE TURKISH DEBT

He believes the Sultan of Turkey will pay the money he owes us. "His Majesty's good disposition toward us in this regard," the President, "has been evinced by his acceptance of an loan for rebuilding the American college at Harpoot."

CRUGER IN TEARS

Old Man Wept at Kaiser's Refusal to See Him.

THREE NEW CORPORATIONS

Corporations from Halifax, New Hanover and Guilford Counties

BEATEN BY THE BOYS

Harris and Purnell's football team defeated Johnston and Carroll's football team Saturday by a score of 10 to 5.

IN THE CHILDREN'S WARD

There are three patients in the children's ward at Rex hospital, and they are all suffering from influenza.

FEDERAL COURT

Judge Purnell arrived yesterday and Federal Court meets tomorrow morning.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The President declares for a Pacific cable, for anti-trust laws that will suppress those combinations that are hurtful to trade, asks for an army of 100,000 men and advocates Secretary Taft's recommendations regarding the navy. He pays a high compliment to the efficiency of both the land and

RECOMMENDATIONS

The President declares for a Pacific cable, for anti-trust laws that will suppress those combinations that are hurtful to trade, asks for an army of 100,000 men and advocates Secretary Taft's recommendations regarding the navy. He pays a high compliment to the efficiency of both the land and

RECOMMENDATIONS

The President declares for a Pacific cable, for anti-trust laws that will suppress those combinations that are hurtful to trade, asks for an army of 100,000 men and advocates Secretary Taft's recommendations regarding the navy. He pays a high compliment to the efficiency of both the land and

RECOMMENDATIONS

The President declares for a Pacific cable, for anti-trust laws that will suppress those combinations that are hurtful to trade, asks for an army of 100,000 men and advocates Secretary Taft's recommendations regarding the navy. He pays a high compliment to the efficiency of both the land and

RECOMMENDATIONS

The President declares for a Pacific cable, for anti-trust laws that will suppress those combinations that are hurtful to trade, asks for an army of 100,000 men and advocates Secretary Taft's recommendations regarding the navy. He pays a high compliment to the efficiency of both the land and

RECOMMENDATIONS

The President declares for a Pacific cable, for anti-trust laws that will suppress those combinations that are hurtful to trade, asks for an army of 100,000 men and advocates Secretary Taft's recommendations regarding the navy. He pays a high compliment to the efficiency of both the land and

RECOMMENDATIONS

The President declares for a Pacific cable, for anti-trust laws that will suppress those combinations that are hurtful to trade, asks for an army of 100,000 men and advocates Secretary Taft's recommendations regarding the navy. He pays a high compliment to the efficiency of both the land and