DIAMOND DIGEST TABLETS
Do Destroy Dyspepsia and restore the bowels and liver to perfectly natural action promptly, or money refunded by any druggist.
Gentlemen—I have been taking your DIAMOND DIGEST TABLETS for two months past and am practically a well man for the first time in 10 years. Everything I ate distressed me, more or less, and I was all run down from lack of proper nourishment. I am eating everything that comes my way now, without the slightest inconvenience. Two tablets after a hearty meal and one after a light meal seem to thoroughly digest everything, and I am daily gaining flesh. My daughter commenced taking them about two weeks ago for constipation, and while they do not act as quickly as some powerful cathartic, they are positive, and much more satisfactory, because they do not gripe or distress her in any way, and the relief seems to be of a permanent nature. All other medicines have left her in worse condition after taking than before.
D. V. BROWN, 27 Boyd Ave., Jersey City.
Dear Sirs—I have taken one box of your DIAMOND DIGEST TABLETS and they are the only remedy I have ever found that stops the HEARTBURN. I enclose 50c. for another box. Mrs. HENRY CUMMINGS, Pelican Rapids, Minn.
Free sample package for two cent stamp.

OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY.
A comedy brim full of mirth, abounding in clever entanglements, without a single line or suggestion that the most fastidious could take exception to, is what the management of the Academy will offer to its patrons soon when Hennessy Leroyale and his talented company come here with "Other People's Money." This comedy, which was one of the most conspicuous successes of last season, was originally produced at Hoyt's Madison Square Theatre, New York, from where, immediately after its metropolitan run, it was put on tour throughout the country, and served to introduce Mr. Leroyale in a stellar capacity in legitimate comedy. He succeeded so well that he is now recognized as one of the leading stars in high class comedy and appears nightly to large and delighted audiences. At the Academy Friday, December 14th.

RALEIGH COMMANDERY OFFICERS
Raleigh Commandery, No. 4, K. T., at a convale held last night, elected the following officers for the ensuing year, 1900: W. E. Faison, E. C.; W. H. Bain, Gen. Mo.; A. B. Andrews, Cap. Gen.; B. R. Lacy, Prelate; T. W. Blake, Treasurer; D. S. Hamilton, Rec.; M. Boyes, Senior Warden; F. W. Hannebutt, Junior Warden.

GEORGE ELIOT, A POPULAR WOMAN WRITER.
With a power of delineation unexcelled in many respects, the writer of "Adam Bede," "The Mill on the Floss," "Middlemarch," "Silas Marner," and other books that will hold their prominence unchallenged in the English novels, stands in a place that she assigned to herself with out intruding upon the rights of others. The wife of George Henry Lewis, a brilliant writer upon scientific and philosophical subjects and an editor of wide experience and judgment, began a career that merited her readers in a generation appreciative of the efforts of writers who love their work and are willing to submit the fruits of it to honest criticism. She portrayed motives and people with rare skill, and the high order of fiction that involves the best instincts of the thinking world is the asserted and acknowledged claim of George Eliot's works. The complete works, 18 volumes, illustrated, delivered on payment of $1.
