Resolution of Respect

We, the Senior Class of Hayesville High School, wish to express our sympathy to the bereaved family, of our dear class mate, Hattie Evans, and offer this resolution of respect. Our dear class mate passed on to a better world March 17, 1928.

We, the Senior Class of 1928, have come here broken hearted to bid adieu to our beloved class mate. Each and every one of us feel that our chain is broken, which can be only partially welded again, and that only with heartaches and tears. There is one gone from our class that we never can forget; she will not receive her diploma at commencement along with her comrades, for she has already received a more glorious one.

We know not how much she suffered, but we all have suffered with her, and now, bereaved of her dear presence, we commit her into the hands of an all-wise God, who does all things well.

Therefore, be it resolved: that there be three copies of this resolution of respect made, one to be given to our bereaved loved ones, one to be kept with the class records, and one published in the Clay County News, along with the following poem, by Myrtle Sylva, one of her class mates,

We, the Seniors, have been happy,
Happy all these great good years;
But this morning we are grieving
Yes, we all are shedding tears.

We have come to say goodbye,
To a class mate loved by all,
Not alone by her class mates,
But a'l who knew her—yes all.

How we'll miss her loving smiles,
How can we bear the dreary miles
While for her we pine?

We will always remember her,
As the star of the Senior Class,
But we know there's another star in Heaven,
Since she has past.

We would now say to a'l,
Before we bid her goodbye,
To walk in the path that she did,
And meet her again on high.

Nearly every farmer in Bortio County who runs a dairy has planted a pasture of the carpet grass, lespedeza and Da'llis grass mixture. They say it is profitable.

"When I started in business," said the self-made man, "my motto was 'Get thee behind me, Satan.'"

"Were you successful?"

"Well, there's nothing like a good backer."

The saddest of the year,
When it's a little too warm for whiskey

And a little too cold for beer.
