

Democrats Sweep Clay County

FOLK SCHOOL BEGINS 4TH WINTER TERM

The fourth winter term of the John Campbell Folk School at Brass-town opened Monday. The three preceding days were given over to the Berea Opportunity School, which was largely attended. During these days, there were most interesting talks by Dr. Wesley Hatcher on World Conditions, the Crime wave in this country, as a result of the world war, the need for prison reform, and an Inspirational sermon Sunday morning. Brother C. F. Connelly of Blairsville, Ga., also took part in the Sunday morning service at the school. In the course of the sessions, Miss May B Smith told several stories including "The Ugly Duckling," "King Midas and the Golden Touch" and "Pegasus, the Winged Horse." All agreed that she made them very interesting and vivid. Miss Dingman gave an excellent talk on the dangers of being a baby, and the need of giving a baby the best possible care, and the importance of parents protecting their children by having them vaccinated against smallpox and inoculated for typhoid fever and diptheria. In another talk, she emphasized the influence young people can and should have for the right things. Mr. Charles Morgan, Berea's song leader, led the groups in many songs, some of the favorites being "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "The Old Time Religion," "Rock of Ages," and "The Church in the Wildwood." He also sang several other negro spirituals during a delightful talk on negro music and folk lore. Another of his lectures was on Empire building, which gave his audience some interesting thoughts on the past and present history. The citizens of Brass town and many from nearby communities hope that the Berea teachers, and also Mr. Allen Eaton, of New York, who gave an informal talk at one of the sessions, will come back for another Opportunity school.

Mr. W. P. Breneman, Treasurer of the Asheville Normal School, and Mrs. Breneman attended some of the sessions of the Opportunity School, and spent Friday night at the Folk School.

Dr. Henry C. Newell, President of Piedmont College in Demorest, Ga., and Mrs. Newell, Mr. Philip D. Landrum, treasurer of the college, and Manager of the Farm, and Mrs. Landrum, and Dwight Cason, a senior at the college, drove to the Folk School last Wednesday and spent the night.

The Woman's Club of Brass-town met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Logan. Mrs. Leon Deschamps, who has recently returned after several months in Belgium, told of some of her experiences. Her talk was followed by a short one on handicrafts by Mr. Allen Eaton. Delicious refreshments were served, and all the members present declared it a most successful meeting.

Andrews Romps On Hayesville High Boys

The Hayesville High School Blue Tornado Football team bowed to the fast and plucky Andrews High last Friday afternoon to the tune of Andrews 14-Hayesville 0.

The Hayesville team used through last season without winning a game and had played a winless game thus far this season until the Andrews eleven won over them.

After seeing the Andrews team in action here some weeks ago when Hayesville beat them 19 to 0 it could not be helped but noticed that these boys were out for victory sooner or later. They played a good clean game of football. After losing to Hayesville they beat Bryson City and Franklin, this would have been evidence to the local boys that they would have to play ball to beat Andrews which they did not do. A general let up in training, practicing and too confident of victory is our opinion for this Andrews victory over the Hayesville boys.

Unless the boys go back into the game with real spirit and sport, and get down to real work, they are bound to lose to Ducktown, Copperhill and most likely Cullowhee.

Boys we are with you as long as you try to win fair and square. Let's get down to business and continue to have a real sporty football team for Old Hayesville High. What say?

AGED CULBERSON WOMAN PASSES NOVEMBER 2ND

Services for Mrs. J. S. Shields Held At Mt. Pleasant Church Monday

On November the second the mute hand of the death angel came into our home and took from us our mother, Rachael Matilda Heifner Shields. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heifner, a pioneer family of this country, who came here from Transylvania county about 1850. She was born on April 11, 1858, a few miles west of Culberson, and within a short distance of where she spent the larger part of her life.

She became the wife of John Silas Shields on Nov. 16, 1876, and this union were born eleven children, two daughters of which died in their infancy; six sons, I. A. Shields, L. M. Shields, L. W. and J. S. Shields, Jr., of Culberson, E. L. Shields of Oaks, Pennsylvania, and J. B. Shields of Marble, N. C. Three daughters, Mrs. W. B. Hall of Cairo, Okla., Mrs. M. R. Gladson of Culberson, N. C., and Mrs. R. W. Brown of Copperhill, Tenn. She is also survived by 38 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

In early womanhood she became a member of Hopewell Baptist church where her membership remained until the organization of Mt. Pleasant Church of which she was a charter member. She was a faithful member, rarely ever leaving her seat vacant on church days, even to the last meeting before her death.

She was, at the time of her death, 72 years, 6 months, and 21 days old. She was laid to rest at Mt. Pleasant cemetery, on Nov. 3rd. Rev. Robert Bell, her pastor, conducting the funeral services, assisted by Rev. E. D. Cole, Rev. Thomas Truett, and Rev. F. C. West. C. B. Hill, funeral director, of Murphy in charge.

She was a devoted wife always giving her best to her husband and children. The day was never too long, the road too rough, or the night too dark, for her to administer her sympathetic service to her friends.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, children, one sister, two brothers, and a host of other relatives and friends.

The grandchildren acted as pallbearers.

The over-filled church, beautiful floral offering, and the many teardimmed eyes showed the high esteem in which she was held by all who knew her.

The distant relatives attending the funeral of Mrs. Shields were a daughter, Mrs. W. B. Hall, two sons and one daughter of Cairo, Okla., one son, E. L. Shields and family of Oaks, Penn., and one brother, Nelson Heifner, of Talking Rock, Ga.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR DEAR MOTHER

"Oh, in her meek, forgiving eye
There was a brightness not of mirth,
A light whose clear intensity
Was borrowed not of earth.
Along her cheek a deepening red
Told where the feverish hectic fed;
And yet, each fatal token gave
To the mild beauty of her face
A newer and dearer grace,
Unwarning of the grave.
'Twas like the hue which Autumn gives
To yonder changed and dying
leaves,
Breathed over by his frosty breath;
Scarce can the gazer feel this is but the spoiler's treacherous kiss,
The mocking smile of death!"

GRANDVIEW

The young men of Grandview met Wednesday night October 29, 1930, for the purpose of organizing a debating club. The following officers were elected. Kermit Lovinggood, president, Austin Ramsey, vice-president, Arden Davis, secretary, Conley and Lester Lovinggood Captains. We wish to welcome all the people of Grandview who will come out and take a part in this work. We will meet on Friday nights at 8:00 o'clock beginning Friday, November 7, 1930. The following question will be discussed on that night. Resolved that cattle are more beneficial to man than horse stock.

SHOOTING CREEK

Epworth Leaguers and their friends of Marshall Chapel enjoyed a Halloween party at the Neal Rogers home last Friday night. The arrangements had been cleverly planned by Misses Blanche Ledford and Irene Davenport. Each guest was masked for the occasion and much merriment resulted. There were numerous diversions such as bobbing for apples, etc. An old witch came into the room riding on a broomstick, and afterward told fortunes by the fireplace. The fortunes were obtained from a "magic mixture" which was stirred in the kettles at the fire. There was a great deal of fun as a result of each guest reading his or her fortune aloud. Refreshments of doughnuts and cocoa were served. Before leaving for home the gay company gave three cheers for the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers.

Last Friday afternoon the 4H Club leaders of Clay county met at the office of Mr. Bowditch in Hayesville and made plans for the Achievement day which is to be held on Saturday, November 22nd at the Hayesville Hi School.

Owing to the absence of the superintendent, the M E Sunday School was in charge of Mr. Aud Woody, the assistant superintendent, last Sunday.

Sunday night the Epworth league service was in charge of Miss Blanche Ledford.

Next Sunday night the program is to be of a patriotic nature, owing to the approach of Armistice Day. Mr. Bob Penland, an ex-soldier, will be the leader of the meeting. The Davenport Quartet is to sing for the occasion.

On Friday night of this week the November Meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association is to be held. A report will be given of the Fall Festival recently held at the school.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Ledford on October 29th. As yet, no name has been selected for him.

Pupils of Shooting Creek School are having a holiday on Tuesday of this week owing to the schoolhouse being used as a polling place.

Bailey and Weaver are Elected Tuesday

Unofficial returns Wednesday from over the District and State had given J. W. Bailey, democratic candidate for n. S. Senator, and Zebulon V. Weaver, democratic candidate for Congress from the 10th District large majorities over their opponents, Geo. Pritchard and Brownlow Jackson.

PREDICTS NATIONAL VICTORY IN 1932

RALEIGH—Josiah W. Bailey, North Carolina's new senator-elect, thinks the Democratic party in this state is "united and triumphant." He predicts a "national victory in 1932."

Dr. S. F. O'Neal on Both Tickets Received Over 2000 Votes.

The Democrats of Clay county were swept into office Tuesday by one of the largest and most conclusive majorities recorded in local politics in several years, according to unofficial returns from all precincts over the county.

Only one race was anything like close, that of Register of Deeds, between B. A. McGlamery, Democrat, and Glover P. Ledford, Republican incumbent. Unofficial returns give McGlamery a majority of 1.

Clay county is normally Republican. This year witnessed one of the hottest elections in the county in years with the Democrats carrying every office by majorities of 1 to 194.

The citizens of Clay County awoke Tuesday morning, election day, to find the skies overcast with threatening clouds and a high cold wind blowing. The mountain ranges in the distance were blanketed with mantles of snow. With some sections reporting heavy falls of snow.

What is considered the heaviest vote ever cast in the county was in this election there being over 2400 votes cast to a little over 2000 two years ago.

At the time of going to press on Thursday we had not received the official vote for the county as the Canvassing Board was not through with its work. If there are any changes in the figures here given it will be published next week.
