Pvt. Franklin D. Knight At Fort Knox

Fort Knox, Ky.—Among the thousands of selectees now entering the armed forces, Pvt. Franklin D. Knight, son of Mrs. Anna Jamon, of Cherryville has entered the Armed Force Replacement Training Center for his basic training in the newest and hardest hitting branch of the Army.

The men will be put on a twelve week training program which has been systematically laid out into two six week periods. The first six-week period will be devoted to the organization of the Army and Armored Force; insignia of rank; military courtesy and discipline; care of clothing and equipment; and many other fundamentals which will enable them to become good soldiers. During this period the men will be classified according to their knowledge and ability, so that they can start their second six-week period in specialized training. These special courses include: light tank, medium tank, scouting and patrolling, mortar, anti-tank machine gun, assault gun, and reconnaissance.

The training center has expanded rapidly, and now boasts eighteen training battalions under the direct supervision of Maj. Gen. Charles L. Scott. From this training center are formed the many armored divisions which make up this fastest moving land force of the Army.

Important Notice To All Eagle Subscribers

Because of conditions brought on by the war the WPB has found it necessary to restrict the use of newsprint paper, and further reductions of that supply are anticipated.

If you want to continue getting your Eagle for the duration, it is important that you not allow your present subscription to expire. In order to live within its allotment of newsprint, The Eagle has found it necessary, beginning April 1st, 1943, to freeze the number of copies printed, and new subscriptions will be taken only in replacement of any who may be dropped out, due to expiration of their subscription.

Son Of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Sneed Writes

Somewhere In North Africa Feb. 15, 1943

Dearest Mother Dad and All:

Just a few lines today as I have time to write, and I pray this will find you all in the best of health. As for me, I'm getting along just fine, and getting fat as a pig.

Mother I can say for myself we are getting plenty of good eats so far.

I guess you are wondering where I am, somewhere in North Africa, and it is such a beautiful country. I have traveled over about seven hundred miles, and the further I go the more beautiful the country. Wheat and all kinds of grain can be seen for miles and miles. People out here has plenty of bread to eat but that's all, and they are having a hard time getting cloths to wear. People in the states are living in heaven compared to the way natives of North Africa live.

The people have money to buy cloths and food but cloths and food just isn't here to be bought.

Mother I am sure looking forward for mail from home but I haven't received any yet. If I could only hear from home, I think I would be the happiest soldier in Africa. They say we will get mail next week. I hope I will get one for my birthday, but I don't want you to worry about it. Cause you know how the conditions are. I want you and Dad to let me do the worrying and please take care of yourselves, and I am sure that me and the rest of the boys will do the best we can. I can say for the truth I am getting along just as good as I did back in the States.

Mother I will say this again, in the last letter I sent you $200.00 dollars. I want you to be sure and write me about it, so if any thing happened I can check on it, and too, I am sending you $150.00 in this letter. So be sure and let me know about it. Mother I guess you wonder where all this money is coming from. Well Dad I made $50.00 in one day trading with these people here. If I had time I could make plenty of it. I am getting along with these people very good. We can't spend any money here, there is nothing to buy, and I got a twenty percent raise when I came across the sea. I guess Dad and Grover are riding around and having a big time. But I am sure they can't take care of things like I could. Mother if I had dreamed about you and Dad once, I have dreamed 50 times. I woke my buddy, and he said I was just talking and laughing it surely did me lots of good. I met up with John Will Stroop's boy, James. We are right together. He is a fine boy. I saw Tom Dellinger, but only got to say hello to him. I haven't seen him since. My mother my birthday will soon be here, but I pray to God the best one will be in the good old U.S.A. Don't worry we will have it over soon.

Strike New Low Traffic Deaths

CHICAGO, March 31—The nation's traffic deaths in February were the lowest in 16 years, the National Safety Council said today, but cited figures which it said indicated a stabilizing of the toll at levels from 40 to 50 per cent below those of 1941 the last pre-war year. Although the 1,600 toll last month was 32 per cent below the February, 1942, total and 38 per cent lower than the all-time February high of 2,579 in 1941, the council said the figures provided additional evidence that the sharp declines in traffic deaths that started last year with wartime restrictions, apparently had "touched bottom."

The council said travel trends had not been determined but it believes that the death trends themselves "promptly re-conclusion in effect probably has made its full cut in travel, and that wartime traffic will continue at present levels." For the first two months this year, the South Atlantic states showed the largest drop in traffic fatalities—50 per cent—the council reported.

The decrease in traffic deaths in the South Atlantic states in February was 48 per cent.

In all states and regions the biggest reductions continued to be in rural rather than city areas. Similarly reductions were greater in smaller cities than in larger.
