HORACE GRIGG AT BETHLEHEM SUNDAY

Horace Grigg, Superintendent of Schools of Cleveland County, will teach the men's Bible Class of Bethlehem Methodist Church Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Express your gratitude and appreciation for Mr. Grigg by attending Sunday School at Bethlehem Sunday. The pastor and Sunday School Superintendent want every man in the community to be responsible for bringing some man to Sunday School.

The pastor will speak at ten o'clock which is the hour for worship on the 2nd Sunday of each month. We extend to one and all a most cordial welcome.

Miss McDaniel Weds Rev. W. G. Camp

In a ceremony of charming simplicity, Miss Julia McDaniel of Kings Mountain and the Rev. William Gaston Camp, of Mooresboro, were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Bethlehem Baptist church.

Vows were exchanged before a pyramid arrangement of native greenery, interspersed with all baskets of white gladioli.

Mrs. J. C. Camp of Forest City presented a program of music and Mrs. Hudson Hartgrove of Shelby sang O Promise Me. As a duet number, Mrs. Hartgrove and Mrs. Boyce Scruggs of Rutherfordton, sang The Sweetest Story Ever Told.

Miss Juanita McSwain rendered as processional and recessional numbers the wedding music of Wagner and Mendelssohn. During the exchange of pledges, The Rosary was softly played.

The bride was lovely in a tailored costume of navy alpaca crepe accented with heavy Irish lace and worn with a matching hat and shoulder length veil.

There will be a Home Coming at the Hepzabeth Presbyterian Church Sunday, September 12th Sunday School at 10:00 o'clock. Preaching at 11:00 o'clock.

hem and Waco. She is possessed of great personal charm and has been very active in civic and religious work.

The Rev. Mr. Camp is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James W. Camp. He is a graduate of Boiling Springs College, later receiving his degree at Wake Forest College.

After a trip to the mountains the couple will be at home in Mooresboro.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Dixon Bridges of Gainesville, O., Mr. and Mrs. James Gribble of Akron, Ohio, Mesdames F. M. McDaniel and Carl McDaniel of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Jackson and Misses Ruth and Betty Jackson of Cowpens, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Camp of Spartanburg, S. C. A child's laxative your child should LIKE

When your child needs a laxative give him one he will probably enjoy taking—pleasant tasting Syrup of Black-Draught. Given as directed, it is usually mild in action, yet effective.
