Merchants Not Taking Discount

It is apparent from the sales tax returns filed for the month of July, August and September of this year that a number of merchants are not availing themselves of the discount allowed by the Legislature of 1943.

The Department is extremely anxious that all merchants claim the discount at the time provided by law for the making of such claim. Under the law, if the discount is not claimed at the time of making return, it is lost and the Department does not then have the right to allow it.

Below we quote from the 1943 Act allowing the 3% discount: "Every taxpayer who pays the tax imposed by this article and Article IX, Schedule I, shall be entitled to deduct from the amount of the tax for which he is liable and which he actually pays a discount of three per cent 3%."

Provided, however, the Commissioner may deny a taxpayer the benefits of this subsection for a failure to pay the full tax when due, as well as in cases of fraud, evasion, and failure to keep accurate and clear records as provided in Section 408 of the Revenue Act of 1939, as amended through 1941. Provided, further, that in order to secure the benefits of this subsection, the taxpayer must deduct the 3% discount at the time of making his monthly remittance of tax to the Department of Revenue."

It is hoped that in this and ensuing months all merchants will avail themselves of the three per cent deduction by claiming the same at the time of making their monthly return.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Barrett moved to their new home on Cherry street.

HE WAS THE SUNSHINE OF OUR HOME

(In Memory of J. C. Carpenter 9 Years Old) The Lord was out gathering flowers one morn, And he came to a bud so red, He said, "I must pick it and take it away; For the wind will bruise it if I leave it there."

A precious one from us is gone A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home That never can be filled, God in His wisdom has recalled The bloom his love has given And though his body moulders here His soul is safe in Heaven. Our home is lonely now without him. We miss him at our family prayer We kneel and almost feel his presence, But rise and find a vacant chair O how sweet it will be in that beautiful home, So free from all sorrow and pain With song on our lips and harp in our hands; Where we will meet to part never again. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Carpenter

HOME COMING AT ASTC UNIQUE PLAN THIS YEAR

Homecoming at Appalachian State Teachers College takes on a unique plan this year—the unveiling of a Service Roll, made up of former students and faculty of Appalachian. The Service Roll will consist of more than seven hundred names, lettered on a board eight by twenty feet in size, erected on the campus near the entrance of the boys gymnasium. All former students and friends as usual are invited to be present. The usual round of contests by the various campus organizations will be carried out. The object will be to determine which organization can show the most originality and initiative in preventing some phase of student life or activity.

No More Rationing Books Nos. 1 And 2

All Local War Price and Rationing Boards have been notified by the Office of Price Administration that no more copies of War Ration Books One or Two are to be issued by the Boards for any purpose whatsoever. But that doesn't mean that they should be thrown away.

Book One still contains the No. 18 shoe stamp, good indefinitely. In Book 2, blue stamps X, Y and Z will be valid until November 20th, for canned foods. Local Boards are no longer authorized to replace either of these books if lost, stolen or destroyed. Meanwhile, Books 3 and 4 are now in full-sail use. Brown stamps G, H, and J are now valid for meats and fats and additional stamps will be validated from week to week. Green stamps A, B, and C in Book 4 are valid until December 29 for canned goods. Holders need not continue to keep War Books One and Two in their possession. These covers will not be used again for rationing purposes and, when the stamps contained in them expire, they will cease to have any rationing value for the owner.
