322nd Thanksgiving Day Being Celebrated Quietly; Union Services Held At The Methodist Church; Turkey Dinners.

Cherryville is celebrating the 322nd Thanksgiving Day today with stores all closed, Bank, Post Office, all local offices and schools joined in closing. The schools will take the usual two days, today and Friday, opening again Monday morning as usual. Union service were held at the Methodist church this morning at 10:00 o'clock to give thanks to God for the mercies and blessings bestowed upon His people during the previous twelve months. Rev. L. P. Barnett, pastor of the church, delivered the sermon. All up-town churches joined in this service.

NEW PASTOR

REV. L. P. BARNETT

Some will have turkey and chicken, while others will have good fresh hog meat on their tables today.

The chances are that a turkey gobble will be yours in time for Thanksgiving dinner and when you are eating him you can celebrate with a clear conscience because everyone in the armed services will be having Thanksgiving turkey too.

Nevertheless turkey is a subject for speculation because rumors of turkey shortages are flying thick and fast. Here are the facts as relayed by the Office of Price Administration from a report by the War Food Administration.

There will be a turkey shortage in some areas, due to a late hatch, heavy purchases for the Armed Forces and lack of labor to dress the birds.

Anyhow, from now on, if you do see a turkey in the store, he's legitimate food for civilians, as the embargo on turkeys for civilians has been lifted. Furthermore OPA has already established dollar-and-cents top legal prices on turkeys, whether sold live or dressed.

Nutrition experts in OPA have worked out a practically "point free" menu for Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner with King Turkey as the center of it all. With certain minor changes it can be less point-expensive. You can do it with chicken, too.

Point shopping list: One 3-ounce package of cream cheese, one brown point; one can pumpkin; 13 to 15 green points; and brown points for cooking and table fats.

If you're squeezed on most points, drop the cheese from the appetizer sticks. Instead, chop peanuts, mix with lemon juice enough mayonnaise to make a paste, spread on bread sticks and pop under the broiler. And if you make apple pie, sprinkling the juick filling generously with chopped pecans, you won't need that can of pumpkin either.

Here's the menu:
Citrus fruit cup
Toasted Cheese and P-nut Sticks
Roast Turkey—Sage-onion dressing
Baked Cinnamon Sweet Potato
Pudding
Frenched Green Beans
Olive—Celery—Pickles
Cranberry Jelly in Orange Cups
Hot Pumpkin or Apple-Pecan Pie
Coffee

Christmas Seal Drive Begins Here After Thanksgiving

The annual Christmas Seal Sale will open here after Thanksgiving. The funds from the sale will finance the year-round Tuberculosis Association.

Miss Mary Mosteller is chairman for the local drive and has her plans arranged to begin immediately after the Thanksgiving holidays.

The Christmas Seal Sale, held by the association in conjunction with the nation-wide campaign, is the only appeal made throughout the year for funds to support the work of tuberculosis control. Ninety-five percent of the money raised through the sale remains in the state. Five percent goes to the National Tuberculosis Association which, in addition to many activities in tuberculosis work on a national level supports extensive medical research in the field of tuberculosis. Miss Mosteller is urging all citizens to buy Christmas Seals when they go on sale here. They will be sold by members of the Woman's Club and through the schools. This is the only means of financing this work.

Funeral services were conducted in Hickory yesterday afternoon at two o'clock for Laban P. Reese, 75, father of Miss Nora Reese of Cherryville, who died at his home there Monday after a long illness.

Several from here attended the funeral. Inmates of San Quentin, California's state prison, have reclaimed hundreds of tons of cable, copper wire and rubber salvaged from warships.

Gaston County's second and Cherryville's first horse show will get under way today at 2 P. M., with a large field of entries in the thirteen classes of the Tri-County Horse Show which is being sponsored by the Cherryville Lions Club. Mr. Beck Mochman of Pine Brook Farms of Conover, N. Horses from Gastonia, Shelby, Lincoln, Stanley, Mt. Holly, Kings Mountain, and Cherryville will be entered in the Tri-County Show. Happy Dan, winner of the Mt. Holly show held recently, will be entered here as will many of the other horses which participated in the Mt. Holly show.

Chairman Kenneth Putnam and his committee have been hard at work for the past two weeks getting things ship-shape for the big event; and, the weather permitting, a record crowd is expected today. First, Second, Third, and Fourth place ribbons will be awarded the horses in the various classes with a cash prize going to the first place winner. Station WGNB of Gastonia has been gracious enough to provide a public address system for the show and a person who speaks "horse language" will do the announcing, thereby adding much to the show.

Admission charges are fifty cents to all over twelve years of age and twenty-five cents to children under that age. The show will get started promptly at 2 P. M., and will provide entertainment for three or more hours. Call your friends and bring them out for the display.
