BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR BEN TILLMAN
Mrs. J. E. Tillman honored her son, Ben Tillman at a birthday dinner at her home Friday evening, December 10th. The home was attractively decorated with Christmas decorations. The dining table was covered with a hand-ome lace cloth and the birthday cake bearing 16 lighted candles made a very attractive centerpiece.
Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Tillman, Ben Tillman, Mark Black, Jr., Wonnies Webb, Jr., Sloan Sellers and Mrs. L. H. Black.
A three course dinner was served.

BLEAK DECEMBER!
'Tis passing strange that this month which furnishes the least light out of doors, should furnish the most light within. It's the Spirit of Christmas, and the Merriest of Christmases to you!

Pvt. James E. Black, stationed at Camp Swift, Texas, arrived home Friday to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Beam returned Friday night from Georgia where they went to accompany the latter's sister, Mrs. A. B. Claytor and children to Ft. Henning to make their home with Lieut. Alton B. Claytor who is stationed there.

Miss Mary V. Ettore returned to her home in Beverly, N. J., Monday afternoon after an eight day visit here in the home of Mrs. Willie Peeler. Miss Ettore is the niece of PFC Lonnie E. Peeler who is stationed overseas. This was Miss Ettore's first visit here and she saw her first cotton and first textile mills. She was very much impressed with her visit and made many friends while here.

* White Christmas or Green Christmas is a matter of both geography and meteorology. But Merry Christmas is an affair of the heart. And that's the kind of a Christmas we are now celebrating for you and yours as 1943 draws to a close.

PEOPLE'S DRY CLEANERS

There'll always be a Christmas

Partisans from across the seas would, if they could, bring Christmas to you from the north. But there'll always be a Christmas! May the Christmas season of 1943 find you in the midst of a good old-fashioned Yuletide celebration.
Merry Christmas from all of us to all of you.
