Holding Revival Meeting
 The Old Fashion Revival Meeting that began Saturday night, May 27th at the Rudisill Spinning Company, located between Crouse and Lincolnton is still going on.
 Services each evening at eight o'clock. God sure has visited this Revival with his power. There have been nine Confessions already in this Revival, many other hearts convicted of sin. The Saints have been rejoicing and shouting the praises of God.
 Services will continue through Sunday night, June 11th or longer if the Lord leads. Services are in charge of Rev. Ezra Weatherly of Cherryville assisted by Rev. Ray R. Nanney of Cherryville. If you are a Christian come and help us in this Soul saving Campaign. A Welcome to all—Come—Pray.

Industrial Agent
MORE ABOUT Sharpe Elected
 (Continued from page 1) of the last war and stated that our present leaders should certainly be able to profit by these former errors, in drawing up the terms for a "permanent peace". His talk was greatly enjoyed by those present. The meeting was adjourned with the members singing "God Bless America."

O. W. HALL
 Norfolk, Va., June 5th—Appointmen of O. W. Hall as Assistant General Industrial Agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, with headquarters at Norfolk, was announced today by Dallas T. Daily, General Industrial Agent.
 A native of Portsmouth, Mr. Hall began his railway service in 1928 in the Commerce Department and has occupied positions of increasing importance in the office of the Chief Freight Traffic Officer, office of the Receivers and Industrial Department. In 1942 he became Assistant to General Industrial Agent, from which position he is now being promoted.
 Mr. Hall's past experience well qualifies him for his new duties which will involve promotion of industrial development throughout the territory served by the Seaboard.
