Reversing Restrictions

WARTIME measures and restrictions have brought into prominence and common usage many words and phrases formerly not in general use. For instance, we have read and heard so much about "rationing" and "priorities" that these terms are now a part of the average person's daily vocabulary. The income tax and the enactment of a current payment plan of paying the tax have made "pay-as-you-go," "withholding," "exemption," and other related terms familiar to all of us.

The truly patriotic citizen, law-abiding and co-operative, is meticulous in his desire to obey to the letter the laws of his country. But, while carefully fulfilling his material obligations, he can be mindful of, and grateful for, the fact that although many commodities have been rationed, this applies only to material things, and not to the real and enduring. Good cannot be rationed; nor can kindness, gratitude, love, truth, joy, mercy, courage, or any other spiritual quality. What a travesty it would be if one were to think: "I have used such-and-such an amount of kindness and joy today. Now I must cut down or I shall use too much." But there are no shortages or scarcities in the realm of Spirit, the kingdom of God. The more we express the qualities of God, the more we have, in fulfillment of God's law of abundance and His infinitude.

The need for more alertness in wholeheartedly claiming good as our heritage, and vigorously denying error, should take priority in our thinking. There is no priority on honesty, sincerity, loyalty, or obedience, and the exercise of these qualities will close the door to evil and admit only good.

The enlightened thinker rejoices in the fact that the only real income is the incoming of spiritual ideas to his consciousness. There is no burden, hardship, or tax attached to such a spiritual "in-come," but instead a joyous receptivity to these right ideas. We can lift our business and everything pertaining to it above the commonplace by constantly knowing and showing that we are about our "Father's business." Our real business is expressing God, good.

We can rejoice that God's law of abundance is ever operative, that obedience to this beneficial law sustains and supplies us with all that is needed, and annuls the belief of limitation and restriction. What assurance is conveyed by these comforting words from "Miscellaneous Writings" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 307): "God gives you His spiritual ideas, and in turn, they give you daily supplies. Never ask for tomorrow: It is enough that divine Love is an ever-present help; and if you wait, never doubting, you will have all you need every moment. What a glorious inheritance is given to us through the understanding of omnipresent Love!" —The Christian Science Monitor.

Telephone Lines to the Front

As battles roll on to victory and vast new areas are conquered, the need for tremendous amounts of telephone equipment becomes more and more urgent.

Since the start of the war the huge telephone manufacturing plants of the Bell System have been concentrating on the manufacture of telephone equipment for war use exclusively, to insure that there shall be no shortages of telephone equipment on the war fronts.

Just before war started, the Southern Bell Company completed a large program of expansion of central office and outside plant facilities. This enabled us to continue installing telephones after the manufacture of telephone equipment for civilian use had stopped.

Now, however, the normal reserves of switchboards, wire, cables and instruments have been used up, and we have many people on our waiting lists for service. But war's needs must come first, so for some time we at home shall continue to make the most and the best use of what we now have.
