

T. C. Summer Dies Suddenly Today

Died With Heart Attack At His Home On S. Elm Street; Funeral Arrangements Are Incomplete As We Go To Press.

Thomas Carl Summer, 56, prominent lumber and business man of Cherryville died suddenly with a heart attack at his home on South Elm Street this morning at 10:45 o'clock. His sudden passing came as a great shock to members of his family and his many friends, although he had been in declining health for several years, but still took an active part in carrying on his business. Yesterday he was in his usual health and only after arising this morning complained of not feeling so well. A doctor was summoned and arrived just before he expired.

Mr. Summer spent most of his life in Cherryville and was a textile executive until several years ago when he went into the lumber business and since that time has been owner and manager of the Dixie Lumber Company which he still operated at the time of his death.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete due to two sons being in the armed forces of the U. S. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran church and funeral services will probably be held there.

Surviving are his widow, who before marriage was Miss Bessie Kendrick, daughter of Mrs. N. Ben Kendrick and the late Mr. Kendrick, together with the following children: Mrs. J. A. Wilkinson, Wadesboro; Carlyle Summer, Cherryville; Mrs. Norman Payne, Bessemer City; Pvt. Ben Summer, stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla.; George K. Summer, A/S stationed at Camp Peary, Virginia; and Miss Betty Jane Summer, at home. His father, Mr. T. E. Summer and the following brothers and sisters also survive: Messrs. L. L. Summer and Dewey Summer of Cherryville and Mrs. Otto Dellinger, Shelby; Mrs. L. L. Bowling, Durham and Mrs. Carlyle Browning, Summerville, S. C.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIERS

Somewhere in France July 24, 1944.

Dear Mr. Houser: Just a few lines to let you know I am receiving the Eagle here in France. Received my first copy about three weeks ago and two more copies today. Really nice to have the news from home in a place like this.

France is not so bad, really a beautiful country, where war has passed. The only thing wrong with me, I don't know enough French. Things are not so bad now, we are getting pretty good food. We even have some white bread, first I had seen in a long time. Have seen quite a lot since I left the U. S. in 1943.

Give my regards to all and hope to be home soon.

A Friend, Sgt. Herman H. Eaker Sgt. Herman H. Eaker 463rd Ser. Sqd. 309th Group APO 149 c/o Postmaster New York, N. Y.

Somewhere in England August 3, 1944

Hello Fred:

Just a few lines to let you know that I have been receiving the Eagle regular and that I have enjoyed it even if it is a week or two old. I notice that my old friend (Fat) Clyde Carpenter is still on the job washing Goldiners Department Store windows. Tell him I said, "to keep up the good work for the war will be over soon." Well Fred it looks like from where I am at, the war with Germany will be over in a very short time and a lot of us boys will be back in town before long. I noticed in the copy of the Eagle the address of Red Eaker, I have been trying to locate him but so far I haven't had any luck but I am still hoping to run into him over here real soon.

I also noticed that you had received from my kid brother, Earl, I had a letter from him this week he is OK and getting along fine and he says that they are giving the Japs hell where he is and that it will not take long to clean them out after we get Hitler cleaned up and I don't think that will take much longer for we are really giving them hell and there is more where this is coming from if we need it that is what makes a man put up a good fight is to know that the people back home are backing him up with good food and plenty of ammunition and supplies so tell the folks to keep up the good work and that it will not be long till their brothers, fathers, husbands and sweethearts will be coming home.

Well Fred this is just about all for this time, so may I say again I enjoy the Eagle very much. Keep it coming. From your old friend, WILLARD E. GOINS

Crouse Man Sees Cutter Down German Plane

Aboard a Coast Guard Rescue Cutter in the English Channel (Special)—Wade Wise, motor machinist's mate, first class, Crouse, North Carolina, is a member of the crew of the Coast Guard Rescue Cutter which has shot down at least one German aircraft while performing the job of saving allied fighting men from the English channel.

The German plane, believed to be a JU-88 flying low, passed over the rescue vessel and a British vessel. A burst of 20 rounds was sent into the German by the Coast Guard Gunner, Alfred Szadkowski, 4768 Stiles St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The plane was observed crashing into the sea by the masters of two neighboring vessels who declared "they were certain of the accuracy of the Coast Guardsman's report."

The Coast Guard Cutter was one of the first rescue vessels to reach the assault area invasion day. She remained in the combat area for many days performing rescue operations in heavy running seas. During this period a low flying JU-88 put two large calibre shells through the decks of the Cutter and near bomb missed and blew out her radio. The Coast Guard vessel is believed to have shot down the mauler but the "kill" was not officially confirmed.

Several of the crew of the Cutter were cited for their part in

Food and Epileptic Attacks

While most cases of epilepsy can be kept under reasonable control by use of phenobarbital nevertheless what is called the diet treatment controls epilepsy so that no phenobarbital or other drug is necessary. The diet treatment is: 1. Cut down on all starch foods—potatoes, bread, sugar. 2. Cut down on all liquids—water, tea, coffee, milk, soft and hard drinks. 3. Increase fat foods—butter, cream, fat meats.
