WALTER CLARK FIGHTING JUDGE

"What a benefit it would be to our nation if every young lawyer, yes, and every young minister, would read this book."—The Methodist Christian Advocate, Chicago, Ill.
 "It is one of the best and most interesting biographies I have ever read." C. C. Wyche, United States District Judge, Columbia, S. C.
 "The style is splendid and the subject matter is interesting from beginning to end. . . . Every lawyer in North Carolina and every other citizen of the state interested in its history ought to read (this) book." John J. Parker, United States Circuit Judge.

both easy to read and full of much of the history of the state. Mr. Brooks has rendered a real service in giving us this book."—Bernard W. Spilman, in Charity and Children.
 "It is a thoroughly fine piece of work and deserves a place among our great legal biographies."—John W. Davis, former Ambassador to the Court of St. James.
 "This, to me, is one of the most fascinating biographies of recent years. It is a miniature of North Carolina painted by an artist. The clear, non-technical, non-legal style carries the reader from one dramatic scene to another in the life of a man whose influence as a soldier, scholar, chief justice of his state and champion of reform will last for ages.

Ben R. Lacy, Jr., Pres Union Theological Seminary.
 "We are grateful to Mr. Brooks for recalling to our attention one of the half dozen greatest jurists and one of the most interesting figures of the last generation."—Henry Commager New York Herald Tribune.

Seventy-Seven New Scouts Added
 Since the third annual membership drive of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America, started in this and other counties, 77 new Scouts and 13 new Cubs have been added to the rolls.
 Largest gains to date have been scored by Troop 3 of Mooresville, Troop 1 of Saluda, Troop 1 of Tryon, Troop 8 of Gastonia, Pack 10 of Gastonia, Troop 1 of Marion, and Troop 1 of Dallas. Each of these units has exceeded the goal of at least five new members since the campaign started October 1st. The campaign will close December 15th. Troops and packs adding new members during the past week are: Troop 1, Barium Springs, Pack 2 Statesville, Troop 1 Lawndale, Troop 1 Boiling Springs, Troop 2 Shelby, Troop 4 Shelby, Troop 10 (Negro) Shelby, Troop 2 Cramerton, Troop 3 Cramerton, Troop 2 Belmont, Pack 4 Gastonia, Troop 1 High Shoals, Troop 1 Cliffside and Troop 2 Cliffside.
 Scout Executive R. M. Schiele of Gastonia and leaders in the local area are expressing optimism over the prospects for a successful campaign in the Council, which includes Gaston, Cleveland, Iredell, Catawba, Lincoln, Caldwell, McDowell, Burke, Rutherford, Alexander and Polk counties.

Gaston County S. S. Association Will Meet Here Sunday

The Gaston County Baptist Sunday School Association, with representatives from the various Baptist churches of the county, will hold its monthly meeting on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 with the Second Baptist Church here. Rev. E. G. Powell of East Gastonia is superintendent of the organization. The theme is: "Magazine of the Preaching Service through the Sunday School." The program follows:
 Hymn—"I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord."
 Devotional Period—Rev. O. H. Bolch.
 Special Music
 Minutes
 Roll Call
 Business
 Offering
 Departmental Conferences
 The Rev. Mr. Powell urges that since this is the first meeting of the new Associational year, that the Association start right and keep right, and do its best to make this the most progressive year in the history of the organization.

 At the morning service at the Second Baptist Church, the pastor will bring a message on "Be-neath the Cross".
 At the evening service the first part of the hour will be known as "Hymn Time" with the congregation singing request numbers.
 The pastor will bring an evangelistic message and draw a picture on the theme of some well-known hymn.

Dec. 1 Deadline For Gift Sending

XMAS PARCELS Dec 1
 To insure delivery of all gift parcels in time for Christmas be sure and send them by December 1 at the latest.

That important reminder came yesterday from the Charlotte Office of Defense Transportation. Transportation facilities are now so overburdened, Mr. L. F. Manneschildt, O D T District Manager pointed out, that delivery in time for the Yule holiday can be guaranteed only if the December 1 deadline is met. And, the ODT official declared, you get better selection and better service at local stores when you shop early.

Here are some of the reasons listed by ODT which make an early Christmas shopping season essential this year. 1944 gift sending is expected to top 1943 by 25 per cent. Gifts will travel greater distances due to wartime population displacement; nationwide transportation and local delivery of Christmas packages, when added to the heavy holiday furlough travel, with all transportation facilities already overburdened by war conditions create a major problem.

The only solution to that problem, the ODT District Manager emphasized, is complete cooperation of the public in meeting the December 1 deadline for gift sending.

Two Richmond County farmers removed 10 dozen medium sized eggs from a lot of 120 dozen. The remaining 110 dozen graded A Large and sold for an extra $4.40.
