Friday Afternoon Book Club Meets With Mrs. Rudisill

The November meeting of the Friday afternoon Book Club was held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Rudisill on November 10th at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. B. Dellinger presided over a brief business session and appointed a nominating committee for new officers.

Mrs. R. J. Morrison was responsible for one of the most delightful programs of the year. Mrs. Morrison prefaced her presentation with "It is a joy to think along these lines", namely, "Outstanding Religious Leaders in North Carolina". She enumerated clergymen and laymen of the major faiths and brought to the minds of her hearers ideas and ideals inspired by religious leaders both contemporary and desisted.

Mrs. Morrison exhibited an autographer musical copy of the New Wake Forest Alma Mater song, "Gentle Mother" by Dr. Hubert M. Potat. Mrs. F. M. Houser, accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Allen then sang "Gentle Mother" and Mrs. W. F. Starnes narrated and illustrated the life of Daphne du Maurier, author of "Hungry Hill".

The program closed with Mrs. H. H. Allen at the piano and the entire group singing "Carolina". Mrs. Rudisill, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Dellinger, served a delicious salad course to the following members: Mrs. H. H. Allen, J. D. Hobbs, F. M. Houser, J. B. Dellinger, W. F. Starnes, D. R. Mauney, Sr., R. C. Sharpe, R. J. Morrison, and D. A. Rudisill.

Mrs. Beam Honored On Birth Anniversary

Mrs. G. Lee Beam was honored Saturday night on her 71st birthday anniversary when the daughters-in-law gave a surprise birthday party at the home of Mrs. Alfonso Beam. Mrs. Beam was invited to attend a R. A. Meeting and when she arrived was very much surprised to find her neighbors and friends there to do her honor on her birthday.

The Beam home was attractively arranged with lovely red and white autumn roses. The dining table was covered with a handsome lace cloth and a white birthday cake decorated in pink with white candles was used as the central decorations. Low silver holders held tall lighted pink tapers completed the table decorations.

As each guest arrived they were presented miniature corsages of mixed flowers by Misses Lynn and Patricia Beam. Games were enjoyed and during the evening corsages of red roses were presented to the oldest and youngest mothers present, these went to Mrs. N. B. Kendrick and Mrs. Hollis Eaker.

The honoree was presented many lovely gifts. The hostesses assisted by Misses Lynn and Patricia Beam served delicious sandwiches, cookies and coffee.

Present were members of the Sunday School class, neighbors and friends.

Circle No. 1 Met Tuesday

Circle No. 1 of the Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon November 14th, at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Beam with Mrs. Beam and Mrs. Charlie Ford as joint hostesses.

The meeting opened with the hymn "Come Thou Almighty King." The devotions were conducted by Mrs. J. P. Wyant using as her scripture: John 15:12-17. This was followed by prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, the roll called and dues collected.

Mrs. Richard Carpenter had charge of the program. She read a very interesting article on: "Missionaries in the Solomon Islands," and also a letter written by a soldier in the South seas.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. J. W. Payne. The following members were present: Mesdames Walter Beam, James L. Beam, Eli Beam, Lloyd Beam, B. B. Brackett, Richard Carpenter, Calvin Carpenter, Hudson Craft, Lester Dellinger, E. C. Sullivan, Charlie Ford, Plato Jarrell, Sallie Kirkpatrick, R. G. McLurd, J. W. Payne, M. A. Stroup, Minnie Strickland, Albert

Linman, J. P. Wyant, and J. A. Crowder.

Mrs. H. M. Smith and Mrs. Jennie Lineberger were visitors.

Cherryville Readers Club Meets

Mrs. Hillard Harrelson was hostess to the Cherryville Readers Book Club on Tuesday night, November 14th. The rooms were charming with autumn flowers.

The business meeting included the roll call, the reading of the minutes, the exchange of books, and a discussion of the selection of books for next year.

The program entitled "Americanism" was presented by Mrs. Howard Robinson. This discourse was a survey of the seven canons of Americanism since the landing of the Pilgrims in our country.

She reviewed the struggle and significance of the early colonists, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, the National Anthem, the flag, the patriotism and courage of Washington and Lincoln, and the falling efforts of Woodrow Wilson to secure lasting peace after World War I.

Mrs. Hunter Rudisill gave a comprehensive sketch of the life of Betty Smith, author of "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn".

The nomination committee submitted the following club officers next year: President: Mrs. Hunter Carroll, Vice President: Mrs. Emmett Houser, Secretary: Mrs. T. A. Carter, Treasurer: Mrs. M. A. Stroup.

The club voted to accept the report of the committee. Plans were made for a Christmas dinner to be held at the December meeting at the home of Mrs. Dewey Beam with Mrs. Beam and Mrs. M. A. Stroup serving as hostesses.

After the meeting adjourned a tempting salad course was served by the hostess.

MISS GEORGE BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. JOHNSON

In a ceremony of beauty and simplicity Miss Marguerite Elizabeth George and Fred Thomas Johnson, U.S.N., were married on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. George of Lowell, N. C.

The Reverend W. C. Sledge, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The vows were spoken in the living room before an improvised altar of ferns centered with white chrysanthemums and flanked with candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride's dress was an original creation of aquamarine wool with matching hat and brown accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was a purple-throated white orchid and her only ornament was a strand of pearls belonging to her mother.

Mrs. George, mother of the bride, wore navy blue sheer with a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bride's only sister, Mrs. Ben Sumner, wore brown crepe and her flowers were pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. A handsome white linen cloth of hand embroidery and flit covered the dining table in the center of which was a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. White chrysanthemums and crystal candelabra holding white tapers also graced the table.

Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of W.C.U.N.C., Greensboro, and holds the position of Program and Social Secretary at the Young Woman's Christian Association in Durham. Seaman Johnson of New Bern, son of Mr. J.W. Johnson and the late Mrs. Johnson, is stationed in Washington, D. C., where he is connected with the detail office of the A.T.B., Columbia Branch, United States Navy.

After a brief wedding trip north, Mrs. Johnson will return to Durham.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. C. Hendrick, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Cloe Jennings and Miss Betty Jean Jennings, of Shelby; Mrs. Ben Sumner and Mrs. Ray Jenkins, of Cherryville; Mrs. Walter Church, of Gastonia; Miss Winifred Linthoum, of Durham; Miss Della Williams, of Arapahoe, N. C.; and Mr. Troy Stanford, of Durham.

Junior Woman's Club Has Meeting

The Junior Woman's Club held its November meeting Thursday night, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. N. E. Kendrick with Misses Jane and Gwendolyn Hobbs as joint hostesses.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIERS

SOLDIERS

October 23, 1944

Dear Fred, Thought I would drop you a couple of lines this morning and tell you the Eagle is coming thru fine again and I really enjoy them. Nothing can compare with the good old home town paper and when you have a little time to read, and I think all the boys from Cherryville will agree that we have one of the best.

I think the last letter I wrote you was in Italy. Lots of miles have been covered since then though and we're now crouched on the doorsteps of Germany. After Germany (That will make four countries I've seen) the next I hope will be the good old U.S.A. Well guess I had better close for now. Fred, tell all the fellows to drop a line and I'll hope to see you soon.

THANKSGIVING MENU GIVEN FOR SOLDIERS

Traditional Thanksgiving dinner for the American soldier-turkey and all the trimmings-will be served at Army posts and camps in the seven Southeastern states November 23, and there will be no skimpy helpings. The master menu, used as a guide in all mess halls, was released today by the quartermaster, Fourth Service Command and specifies 100 pounds of turkey for every 100 men. It's going to be a busy day for the Army cooks as they are not going to starve the boys for breakfast. Just to whet their appetites for the big feed at noon, the soldiers will be served this breakfast menu: Orange (one orange per man), dry cereal, fresh milk, fried eggs, pork sausage, toast, butter, marmalade, coffee.

And here's what they will get for that Thanksgiving dinner: Grapefruit Juice Roast Turkey with Giblet Gray Sage dressing Mashed Potatoes String Beans Cranberry Sauce Lettuce with Russian Dressing Celery, Olives Pickles Hot Rolls Butter Pumpkin Pie Coffee Apples Tangerines Candy Nuts
