HAS FINE GARDEN

Mr. R. L. Mullinax one of our Cherryville citizens has the jump on many other people in the community. He already has a fine garden in which will be found corn and sugar peas, that are growing nicely. He also raises many other fine vegetables. He brought a bunch of new home grown onions to the Eagle today, and said it would not be long until he would have plenty of other vegetables. Mr. Mullinax really does have as fine a garden as any one around.

CAKE CUTTING

Following the rehearsal of the Morrow-Dellinger wedding on Saturday evening the bridal party and close friends were entertained at the home of Mrs. H. Lee Dellinger at the cake cutting.

The home was arranged throughout with quantities of white iris and lilacs. In the dining room the bridal motif of green and white was most effectively carried out in the table appointments and decorations. The table was laid with an exquisite white Italian cutwork linen cloth edged with lace. In the center was a lovely wedding cake topped with a tiny bride and groom, under a miniature arch. On each end of the table were lighted tapers in crystal candelabra. Misses Kate Whitworth and Julia Renfro greeted the guests and directed them to the dining room. After the ceremony of the bride cutting the first piece of cake, Miss Nettie Dellinger, sister of the bride, cut the cake and the guests were served wedding cake and white-block ice cream by Mesdames Herbert Hickson, Coleman Jenkins, and Lloyd Dellinger.

Mrs. R. B. Porter was in the gift room and directed the guests to the living room where Misses Aitonia Beam and Marjorie Mauney served punch. Goodbyes were said to Miss Julia Renfro. About 35 guests called during the evening.

TO HOLD REVIVAL

REV. HENRY C. ROBERTS

Revival Services To Begin At First Baptist

A series of Revival Services will begin at the First Baptist church Sunday, April 1st, and continue through Thursday night, April 12th.

Rev. Henry C. Rogers, pastor of the First Baptist church, Lincolnton, will be the Evangelist. Mr. Rogers is one of our outstanding preachers and Young Peoples' leaders among Southern Baptists. For a number of years he was

State Leader of Baptist Training Union work in Tennessee. For the past three years, prior to coming to Lincolnton, he was South-wide Intermediate Leader of Intermediate Training Union Work. The people of the First Baptist church here feel very fortunate in being able to have Mr. Rogers for these services. He is an enthusiastic speaker and preaches the Gospel and applies it to our every day needs. He will be here for his first message Monday night. Every one is invited.
