Peggy Ryan with your hit parade of young entertainers in Universal's latest film musical, "Babes On Swing Street."

Another election day has come and gone. In some personalities who were voted on today, it is to be a memory, to others, they have history to make—as a public servant to the town of Cherryville. Two sides are always the most interesting. But one side has to be defeated.

In today's election, names appearing on the ballot were hard to decide upon. To vote for one and against the other was like taking a coat off a small child on a cold day and putting it on another.

SAID TO US BY OTHERS AND SEEN BY OURSELVES

Uncle Nathan Anthony, who will soon be 96 years of age, casting his ballot Tues. evening, a short white after lunch—Uncle Nathan is the oldest voter registered in Cherryville and in any other city or town we expect—He has been a good citizen and democrat all of his life—Webb McGinnis talking while he cast his vote this afternoon—All candidates standing around the voting place today—Hobson Hendrick, candidate for City Clerk was the first person to vote this morning when the polls opened at 7:00 o'clock—Haulers for their candidates hauling voters to the polls all during the day—Jack Beam, using his hands to help him talk—Preacher Hawkins helping the Editor interview candidates for tonights "Extra"—Says the newspaper bug bit him years ago and he hasn't quite gotten over it—just has to get his finger in a newspaper business once in a while—a five-ounce egg, produced by a New Hampshire Red, owned by Mrs. Lee Hallman—The egg is in the window at the Eagle Office—Alfonso Beam hanging about the office and out in front, complaining about being tired—and who wasn't!—Uncle Jim Houser and son, Broadus, casting their votes at 5:00 o'clock this afternoon—Hundreds of people sitting on both sides of the street near the voting precinct at the City Hall—Another fight will be on next Tuesday, when the School Board election will be held at the City Hall—The city election is over now and we can all get back to work again and quit talking about candidates—Didn't see much of David P. Dellinger around the polling place, guess it is because he don't know who will win out and he wants the Solicitor's job of the Recorders court back again—Recorder Robert R. Carpenter was not seen on the streets at all today—What's the matter with the Judge, indisposed we suppose—Nothing preventing we will be back to see you again with another town "Extra" in two years from this date.

WHAT CAN YOU SURE THAT THEY CAN WEAR . . . Used clothing is wanted for overseas war relief. . . Take it to churches, schools, collection depots.

A temporary grazing crop of small grains and winter legumes planted by September 1 and well fertilized, will generally pay for itself with full grazing. Spring grazing is clear profit.

This week has played an important part in the lives of the people of Cherryville. The town election. We hope that every one is have made their choice of the men who are to be the leaders of the satisfied with the outcome and will do his part in helping these men in improving our town. The Eagle office was the hang out for the men voters until about 9:30 when the votes were counted and the EAGLE EXTRA was put out on the streets. It was just like another Saturday night.

The other night in the Ritz Cafe the Hegar brothers Marvin and Heman made a list of everyone who was in the cafe until 10 o'clock. Each name had a number and the number that Rev. Luther Hawkins wrote on a slip of paper received a carton of "Luckies," the lucky girl was Miss Joyce Quinn. Heber Eaker's name was also called but he was at home. Too bad for you, Heber.

The senior class really have a set of good actors. Their play was given Monday afternoon and so Monday night. You should have seen Sebil Allran who was the colored girl, she was really good. She was seen on the streets Monday night after the play with a few of the CHS boys and the people would turn and look twice to make sure that they were seeing right. I think everyone got a thrill out of seeing Tommy Summers kiss Mildred Cobb (Say Tommy you should belong to the "Smooching Club,"—Or do you already?) Fungo says they have a swell time.

The service men are still coming home. This week we have with us L. C. Ford. He will be with us 15 days. Johnnie Anthony will be here for 15 days also. June Lail and Paul Levine seem very lucky. Paul is here for 30 days again. Billy Frank Allen and Joe Billy Putnam left Monday of last week. Adam Dellinger is here from the Navy. He will be with us 15 days. George Homesley is here until Friday. Bain Wise who was wounded in action has been granted 30 more days at home. David Pferier and Robert are among those who will leave Saturday. Do you think there will be any men left if they keep this going?

You boys will be surprised when you see the things that are being changed around Cherryville. The new Presbyterian church is now being rebuilt and you should see the new neon sign at the

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
