Miss Pauline Boyd

Wed Lt. Auchter

BENNETTSVILLE, S. C.—Simplicity and quiet charm marked the wedding of Miss Pauline Boyd to Lt. Donald Frederick Auchter, which was solennized at five of clock Sunday afternoon, June 17, in the Methodist church, the Rev. E. S. Dunbar, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and closs friends.

A background of pines, Southern Smilax over white, baskets of white glailoil and floor candels bra with cathedral tapers formed the setting for the ceremony, preceding which a program of auptial music was rendered by Mrs. Don Rogers, organist, and Mrs. Olin C. Covington, loist.

Mrs. Rogers played Shubert's Serenade, "Evening Star" from "Tannhauser" (Wagner), and during the ceremony "To A wild dose" (McDowell), and Mrs. covington sang "At Dawning" (Cadman). The traditional wedding marches were used. While the couple knelt for the closing prayer, the Rev. Mr. Dunbar repeated the words of "O Peffect Love,"

The bride entered with her father, Jesse David Boyd, of Cherryville, by whom she was given in marriage. Her wedding dress of brocaded organd was made with a ruffle of the material. A wide ruffle at the bottom of the skirt ended in a short train, Her fangerelip veil of illusion fell from a tiny hat of tulle and featured a face veil. She carried a white and featured a face veil.
