Pvt. Ralph London's Co., Is Commended

Pvt. Ralph London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry London, who is with the 512th Engineer Light Ponton Company in the European Campaign has been commended along with the entire Company for the successful completion of the European Campaign. This company has been in combat operations for the past eleven months. The good record was made only by the Company, in the part of the Company, in the commendation the Major stated they had bridged the major river of France, Belgium, Holland and Germany, many under fire and under all conceivable conditions. You have taken your losses and gone ahead. Due to the nature of your mission you have had to work with many different battalions and groups but nevertheless you have been able to fit quickly into the team-work of these units. You have a remarkable record for promptness in that no bridge construction was ever delayed by non arrival of bridging material. He congratulated them for their excellent record of accomplishment.

Much Fire Damage At Buffalo Mills

SHELBY — Several thousand dollars in damage largely from water and smoke, was done by a fire which broke out Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the spinning room of the Buffalo Mills north east of Shelby. Some of the frames, other equipment, yarn and ropes were damaged. About 50 per cent of the mill's operation were resumed this morning and it was stated that the plant would be in full production again by Wednesday. The fire started when a belt on a slipping pulley threw off a series of sparks which ignited the cotton in the spinning room. The mill laid two lines of hose from its own hydrants and the Shelby fire department laid a line from the reservoir. In addition the sprinkler system went off.

Legion Fish-Fry Enjoyed By Vets

Last Friday evening at the country home of Legionnaire Mayor E. V. Moss, Tryon Post 100 of the American Legion held a well attended fish-fry, inviting all service men either discharged or home on furloughs, also the Legion Junior baseball club and all members both old and new of the post. Among the War II Veterans a number of them the writer didn't know, was Capt. Vernon O. Moore, Ernest (Shug) McGinnis, Henry Thomas, J. W. Fisher and Black and Aderholdt, also others. Much credit for an enjoyable feed is due Messrs. Schronce and Clinton of the Dora village for preparing the fish. Next get-together will be Commander W. Blaine Beam's big watermelon feed. Watch for the date. Private motoring has been prohibited on week-ends in Spain

The Carpenters And Franklins Received Letters From Navy

The Carpenter and Franklin Families received letters from the chaplain of the Navy Department Sunday and enclosed was a copy of the Memorial services which were held aboard the ship on Sunday May 13th the day following the deaths of their sons, Max David Carpenter and Robert Theron Franklin. The program was very appropriate and was printed on a four-sheet folder with the program on the inside and on the front sheet was only "Memorial Services, May 13, 1945, and the roll of those who made the supreme sacrifice was listed on a scroll on the back. Among the fifty-six names were those of Max Carpenter and Bobby Franklin. The letter explained in detail the burial and the memorial service. The memorial service which was held on deck was witnessed by a large group of officers and crew shipmates. The Chaplain stated he accompanied the bodies as they were taken ashore on Okinawa Island, and stated the Cherryville boys who gave their lives were buried in the 97th Division (Army) cemetery. This cemetery is on a western slope in the southern part of the island. Each body was placed in an individual grave, a cross placed at the head, and a metal marker with the name of the man was placed on the cross. The cemetery will have a permanent office and chapel, and records of each man will be kept. He further stated a priest blessed the departed of the Catholic faith at the Memorial service, and held Mass aboard ship in the afternoon, and he held a service at the cemetery for the men of the Protestant faith. The letter was signed by Harold E. Buckley, Chaplain, USNR.

"A Gas Coupons Now Get You Six

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The 50 per cent increase in basic "A" gasoline rations is now in effect throughout the country. Motorists using newly valid A-16 coupons could buy six gallons with a stamp instead of four as heretofore. That figures out to an average ration of three gallons per week, or about six miles of driving a day. Previously it was two gallons and four miles. The six new A-16 coupons must last three months through September 21, and they are good for a total of 36 gallons, 12 more than the A-15 stamps which expired recently.
