ALLEN DRUG CO. How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help: 1 Taken like a tonic, it stimulates appetite, aids digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did. LOOK INTO this 2-way help!

301 WIDOWS WITH YOUNG CHILDREN IN THE GASTONIA AREA RECEIVE MONTHLY PAYMENTS OF OLD-AGE AND SURVIVORS INSURANCE.

"You can start at the Gastonia office of the Social Security Board on Main street, walk two miles in any direction, and find at least 1 name where a widow with young children is receiving regular monthly payments of old-age and survivors insurance. As a matter of fact, there are 301 young or middle aged widows and 675 children living in the Gastonia Service Area who receive such benefits every month. Each one of the survivors is entitled to payment because the husband and father had worked for sometime before he died in a job covered by insurance provisions of the Social Security Act."

This statement was made today by Mrs. Janet Hall Green, manager of the Gastonia office of the Social Security Board. She said also that it might mean money in the pocketbooks of many families if the public realized that some YOUNG people are entitled to benefits under the Federal Insurance system. Insured wage earners who reach 65 and retire, and certain of their dependents, are of course eligible for old-age and survivors insurance payments; but the idea that a person must be 65 years old before he or she can get benefits is wrong. This confusion is probably due to the fact that the original Social Security Act applied only to men and women 65 years old or more. But in 1939 the law was changed so that certain dependents of insured wage earners might also receive payments of social security insurance.

"The pity of it is," she added, "that many persons who really need the benefits for which they are eligible are not getting them because they have not applied for payments. The law requires that a claim must be filed before benefits can be paid."

Mrs. Green explained that survivors of insured wage earners entitled to monthly benefits include children under 16 (18 if still in school and unmarried); widows of any age who have minor children in their care; and widows who have reached age 65. If there is no surviving widow or child under 18, parents who are 65 or over and who were dependent upon the insured wage earner at the time of his death, are eligible for monthly benefits.

Residents of Cleveland, Gaston and Lincoln counties who have reason to believe that they are entitled to benefits under old-age and survivors insurance provisions should write or call at the office of the Social Security Board located in Room 204, National Bank of Commerce Building, at Gastonia, North Carolina. STOP JAPANESE BEETLES You can kill them before they hatch into beetles by mixing 1 part of Resin Fish-Oil Soap with 3 parts of water. Shake well, and add 10 parts of Carbon Disulphide. Then, says "The Chemical Forumary", Vol. VII—a collection of 2500 formulas for home use, stir 4 teaspoons of this mixture to a gallon of water and spray evenly the soil around the plants that are usually infested with the beetles.

In Memory of Willie

By VANCE SELLERS

At nine o'clock on Friday night, The Eleventh Day of May, A speeding Car came along, And took Willie's life away.

When I heard that car coming One thing that I knew, If that speeding car hits him, It will mean his "Waterloo".

After that car had passed on, I saw him lying on the street, I knew that would be the last time He would ever cross his feet.

When I heard him groaning, I looked at his wounded head, And within about three minutes Poor Willie was lying there dead.

He enjoyed running cars and barking, But that was dangerous fun, And when I saw that car hit him, I knew his earthly work was done.

When his breath all had gone, I laid him on the grass, Near the Dormitory so his friends Could see him as they pass.

Before I left the Casa Marina, I looked into his face, This is what came in my mind: 'No One Here to take Your Place'

Like the color of his body, His brown eyes were full of fun, And he has never been guilty Of ever harming any one.

Some of the Waitresses called him 'Brownie'. Every time they saw him around, And he never refused the invitation To go with them to town.

Brownie had a lot of friends, And they were really swell, Lucky and Pancho were his best, And all lived around Casa Marina Hotel.

While on duty late at night, If Brownie hadn't come around In the recreation hall, on the settee, I would find him sleeping sound

Most animals that are killed, Usually bleed a lot, But in the street or on the grass, I didn't even see one spot.

All that night I thought of Willie, Lying there, not making a sound, Just like a man, without friends or money, To bury him in the ground. No one there to pray or sing, Or tell where he had been. Even he is a forgotten animal, Although a dog is a man's best friend.

McCown was good to him, As any one could be, His body was wrapped in a bag, And was buried out at sea. Written by: Vance Sellers 323 Elizabeth St., Key West Fla. May 14, 1945.

SOMETHING THAT SCORCH Pour a little hydrogen peroxide on your husband's scorched shirt, then soak in water for an hour, suggests "The Chemical Forumary", Vol. VII.

NAVY MEN LIKE GIFTS ALL YEAR ROUND. NOT JUST AT CHRISTMAS TIME!

The Navy Department encourages the mailing of overseas gifts packages to Naval personnel throughout the year. There is no restricted mailing period for the personnel of the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard. Navy Christmas packages should be mailed prior to October 15, if they are to reach their destination by Christmas, however. Due to the distances—more than 5,000,000 square miles have been won from the enemy since 1941—and the size and frequency of combat operations in the far Pacific, no guarantee of delivery can be made.
