It is understood that many oth-

re units are slated to enter Japan in subsequent days and that the entiry occupation probably will be lengthy just for the physical accomplishment of transferring thousands of troops ashore.

Indicative of future landings, MacArthur's instruc-tions mentioned Saganu bay, which was not included in his announcement of operations scheduled for Aug. 28.

It was understood that the landing forces will be accompanied by medical and Red Cross units rear to seek out and administer assistance to war prisoners and civilian in-
