

In Social Activities

Society

About People Parties, Clubs and News

People You Know

Rev. Paul H. Moore was dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thornburg Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Farris of Eatonton, Ga., is spending the week here and in Valdese with relatives.

Billy Allen, Phm. 3C of Bainbridge, Maryland, spent the week-end here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen.

Miss Jane Huss of Gastonia spent the week-end here, the guests of her grandmother, Mrs. A. H. Huss and Miss Marie Huss.

Miss Vivian Rhyne, student at Lenoir-Rhyne College, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rhyne.

Lennis A. Beam, S 1C, arrived home Tuesday morning from DeLane, Florida, for a nine days leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Beam.

Rev. W. G. Cobb and Mr. Hunter Rudisill attended the Southern Conference of the Lutheran Synod held at the Lutheran Chapel in East Gastonia, Wednesday.

Mrs. Kenneth Mayhue, Mrs. Howard W. Allran and Mesdames Miles Beam and Bill Wilson of Shelby spent Tuesday in Spartanburg, S. C.

Mr. Carl Webb, discharged from army two weeks ago left Wednesday for Ft. Bragg to resume his civilian job in Finance office.

Mrs. James Allran and Mrs. John Beach left Monday for Camp Crowder, Mo. Mrs. Allran will join her husband Captain Allran and Mrs. Beach will return after a short visit.

Miss Mildred Cobb, student at Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory spent the week-end here with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Cobb. She had as her guest, her classmate, Miss Jean Foltz.

Miss Meta Black, student at Lenoir-Rhyne College, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carr Black. Miss Black had as her guest, her roommate.

Mrs. C. L. Huss of Atlanta, Ga., returned home today, after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Melvin Leonhardt. She came especially to attend her grandmother's funeral, Mrs. Jane Coon of Lincoln county.

Howard Beam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Beam of Charlotte and grandson of Mrs. Charles P. Beam has arrived in the states after two years over sea duty. He is expected to arrive at his home in Charlotte this week-end with his discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Leonhardt and family, who have been making their home in Lockeford, California, for the past nine and one-half years has returned to Cherryville to make their home. Mr. Leonhardt is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Leonhardt.

Rev. and Mrs. James Cobb of Columbia, S. C., have returned from a wedding trip in Tennessee, Virginia and the Western Mountains of North Carolina. They spent several days here this week the guests of the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Cobb, leaving Wednesday for their home in Columbia.

Mrs. Lester Dellinger has returned home after several weeks visit in the Eastern part of the state and in Norfolk and Newport News, Va., where she visited relatives. While Mrs. Dellinger was in Virginia, she had the pleasure of going on the USS Missouri, the ship that Japan signed peace terms on. She also saw many historical places of much interest.

Cake-Cutting Thursday Evening

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen entertained Friday evening at their home on North Jacob street at the cake cutting following the wedding rehearsal of Miss Janie Sue Allen and Lt. Ramoth M. Carpenter at the First Baptist church.

The home was arranged through out with colorful autumn flowers. In the dining room a color note of white and green was observed. The dining table was covered with a linen cut work cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the table, from which centered a number of white satin ribbon streamers to which were attached the wedding symbols drawn by the members of the wedding party later in the evening. Low silver holders with tall white tapers completed the table decorations.

Block ice cream, nuts and punch were served by Misses Miriam Allen, Shirley Allen, Joan London, Dorothy Allen and Mrs. John L. Fraley. The guests included the bridal party, out-of-town guests and neighbors.

MISS ALLEN BECOMES BRIDE OF LT. RAMOTH CARPENTER

In a ceremony of exceptional charm and beauty taking place Friday evening at seven o'clock at the First Baptist Church, Miss Janie Sue Allen became the bride of First Lieutenant Ramoth M. Carpenter, Rev. E. S. Elliott, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the impressive double ring ceremony.

The chancel was banked with palms and ferns, seven branched chandelabra holding white cathedral tapers, and crystal vases filled with white gladioli. The pews or the families and special guests were marked with bouquets of white gladioli tied with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. H. H. Allen, aunt of the bride, organist and Miss Dorothy Allen, cousin of the bride, pianist, and Miss Joan London, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Before the ceremony Mrs. Allen and Miss Allen played "Ave Maria," by Schubert; and "Claire de lune" by Debussy; "Liebestraum" by Liszt; "Always" by Berlin and "Calm As the Night" by Bohm. Miss London sang "Till the End of Time" arranged from Chopin's Polonaise on B and "One Alone" by Sigmund Romberg. At the close of the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Music by Wagner and Mendelssohn was used as professional and recessional numbers, and during the ceremony, "I Love you Truly" by Jacobs-Bond was softly played.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, J. T. Allen. She wore a Lutches satin wedding gown made with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice, long sleeves ending in calla points over the hands, and a full skirt extending into a long train. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion was worn with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a cameo, an heirloom of the bride's family. The bridegroom had as his best man, his father, David Carpenter.

Serving as ushers were: Harry Allen, Jr., chief usher; Bill Starnes, Hoke Blackwelder, Hector Stroupe, Keith Lehr and W. P. Fitzhugh.

Mrs. James Allran, sister of the bride, was dame of honor, she wore a dress of romance blue satin with fitted bodice and full net skirt and carried a colonial bouquet of Pompons mixed chrysanthemums tied with matching ribbon. Miss Carolyn Allen, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, she wore a dress of bud pink satin, styled in the bustle effect and she carried a colonial bouquet same as that of the dame of honor.

Bridesmaids were: Miss Deleans Hall of Burlington and Miss Winona Summer of Cherryville. They wore dresses of shell pink style similar to that of the dame of honor and carried colonial bouquets of Pompons mixed chrysanthemums tied with matching ribbons. Their headresses were a halo of matching ostrich tips.

The junior bridesmaids were Miriam Allen, sister of the bride, and Shirley Allen, cousin of the bride. They wore dresses of sky blue and shell pink over satin and carried colonial nosegays of mixed flowers tied with matching ribbons.

Mrs. Carpenter, mother of the groom, wore a fuchsia dinner dress with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of orchids. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, on North Jacob Street. The rooms were lovely with white chrysanthemums, gladioli and ferns. In the dining room the bridal colors of green and white was carried out. The dining table was overlain with a handsome Italian cut-work cloth, graced with a mound of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and ferns. Tall white tapers in low crystal holders completed the table decorations. White burning tapers in silver holders were arranged on the buffet and serving table.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen greeted the guests at the door as they arrived and presented them to the receiving line which included the bride and bridegroom. Miss Mary Frances Hord invited the guests into the dining room where Miss Catherine Stamey was in charge. Molded bridal ices and individual wedding cakes with nuts were served by Miss Hazel Johnson, student at Meredith, Miss Pat McLawhorn of Chapel Hill, Miss Susanne Elliott of Forest City, and Misses Jerry Hobbs, Joan London, Dorothy Allen and Altonia Beam, Mrs. J. D. Hobbs and Mrs. Bedie V. Stroup were in charge of the serving. Mrs. John L. Fraley directed the guest from the dining room to the gift room where Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McLowell presided, and Mrs. Howard W. Allran showed the way to the register, presided over by Misses Julia Renfro and Kate Whitworth. Mrs. John Whitworth directed the guests from the register to the sun porch where Mrs. George S. Falls and Mrs. L. I. Summer presided. Misses Matilda Eaker and Wanda Beam served punch, and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Butler.

Later in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore an annular suit, white coat with black accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. T. Allen and the late Mrs. Allen. She attended the Cherryville High Schools and is a graduate of Meredith College.

The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. David Carpenter, and is also a graduate of the Cherryville High School. He attended Lenoir-Rhyne College, and has just returned from the Pacific Theatre of War, after having spent ten months over seas.

This wedding ceremony was performed on the twenty-fourth anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.

Two Years Old

ALVIN DELLINGER, Jr. Alvin Howell Gene Dellinger, Jr., Little son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dellinger celebrated his second birthday anniversary on October 4th.

LUTHERAN SUNDAY SCHOOL HAS HALLOWEEN SOCIAL

Members of the St. John's Lutheran Sunday School gathered in the Sunday School auditorium on Tuesday evening for an evening of fun and social fellowship. Games under the direction of Miss Irene Sox were enjoyed by the grown-ups and Mrs. Julia Hall had charge of the little folks.

Celebrated Birthday Anniversary Sunday

Mr. Kelly Ford celebrated his 59th birthday anniversary at his home last Sunday by having a Birthday dinner. However, his birthday was not until Tuesday, November 30th, he celebrated the 28th., on Sunday.

Mr. Ford has spent his entire life in Cherryville with the exception of about two years and nine months when he made his home in Kings Mountain.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Ford of Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Shuford, of Lincoln; and Mr. and Mrs. William Paysour and children of Dallas.

Young Woman's Class Has Meeting

The Young Woman's Sunday School Class of St. John's Lutheran Church held its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, October 29th, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Howard W. Allran with Mrs. Allran and Mrs. Fred K. Houser as joint hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. W. B. Rhyne. Mrs. J. Ben Dellinger conducted the devotionals, using as her subject: "The Word of God". During the business session, which followed, the secretary called the roll, collected the dues and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. D. R. Mauney, financial secretary, put in her resignation and it was accepted by the class. Mrs. Dewey F. Beam was appointed financial secretary to succeed Mrs. Mauney.

Mrs. Roy Houser and Mrs. Dewey Beam had charge of the program. Mrs. Beam conducted a Bible Quiz in which Mrs. J. Ben Dellinger won the prize for giving the most answers.

Mrs. Houser had charge of two very interesting and enjoyable games, "The Pumpkin Race" and the "Towel Race". Contestants were chosen by attractive Halloween symbols. All day suckers dressed as Halloween witches were given to the winners.

At the conclusion the hostesses served delightful refreshments to the following: Mesdames W. B. Rhyne, Joe Hutto, W. G. Cobb, Judson Black, Grover B. Beam, Cecil Eaker, Dwight Jenks, D. R. Mauney, Sr., J. D. Hultender, William Black, Perry London, Louise Carpenter, Rex Eaker, Dewey F. Beam, Roy Houser, Ben Dellinger, Howard W. Allran and Fred K. Houser.

ple left on a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore an annular suit, white coat with black accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. T. Allen and the late Mrs. Allen. She attended the Cherryville High Schools and is a graduate of Meredith College.

The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. David Carpenter, and is also a graduate of the Cherryville High School. He attended Lenoir-Rhyne College, and has just returned from the Pacific Theatre of War, after having spent ten months over seas.

STRAND DIAL 4601 CHERRYVILLE, N. C.

FRI.-SAT. — 2 DAYS From the adventurous folds of stirring fiction—a new and thrilling hero is brought to the screen!

NEWS-CART.—COMEDY PURPLE MONSTER (3) THE PHANTOM (2)

MON.-TUES.—2 DAYS 2-BIG SERIALS-2 NO. 1

"YOU CAN'T DO WITHOUT LOVE" PLUS NO. II

COMING NOV. 28 NO. I

COMING NOV. 28 NO. I

COMING NOV. 28 NO. II FOREVER YOURS

Camp-Wise Vows Announced

The marriage of Mrs. Ruth Stroupe Camp and Hillard B. Wise, both of Cherryville has just been announced. Mr. and Mrs. Wise were married Wednesday, October 24th in Gaffney, S. C.

The Y. W. A. Has Two Meetings

The first meeting of the Young Women's Auxiliary was at the home of Mrs. I. P. Long, on Tuesday night, October 16th, at 7:15 P. M. There were eleven members present. During the business meeting it was decided that the Y. W. A. would furnish refreshments for the Sunbeams at their study course. The program was given by the chairman of the program committee, Miss Carolyn Allen. She used BAPTIST COLLEGES as her topic and led in a general discussion concerning the value of Christian Education and the things that we can do to promote Christian Education. Mrs. Long, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Connelly Kiser, served delicious refreshments to the members of the auxiliary.

The young women met Sunday afternoon, October 28th, at 3:00 P. M., at the church for a study course. A study was made of "The Apostle of the Indian Frontier" written by Elizabeth Goddell Pacheco. It is a short biography of the great missionary, William D. T. McDonald. The book was taught by Mrs. Herbert Hickson, Misses Kate Whitworth, Orlie Sue Hendricks, Christine Carpenter, Sadie Carpenter and Julia Renfro.

DORA WOMAN'S CLUB HAS PARTY

The Dora Woman's Club held a regular meeting Saturday night at the club room which was gaily decorated carrying out the Halloween motif.

Members and guests were dressed as witches and ghost for the occasion. Mrs. George Moore won the prize dressed as a "Black Mammy".

A short business session was presided over by Mrs. George Moore. The Club voted to serve the Lions Club the First Tuesday night in November at the Rhyne Houser Club House. Miss Nancy Devine presented a list of magazines sponsored by the school and the members decided to take a subscription for the club and dues collected.

Bingo and games were enjoyed by those participating. The hostesses committee were Mrs. E. M. Devine, Mrs. Guy Hardin, Mrs. C. Huss and Misses Ruth, Jackie and Irene Huss, who served delicious refreshments carrying out the Halloween motif to the 25 members and guests present.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this opportunity to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy at the death of our loved one. We are also grateful for the lovely floral tributes.

D. G. FER DELLINGER AND FAMILY. MRS. D. A. RULISILL

LESTER

One DAY Only WEDNESDAY

YIPPEE-YAY! HOORAY! OH, BOY! YEAH, MAN!

PLUS LAND OF LAKES JUNGLE RAIDERS (2)

The Cherryville Woman's Club Met

The Cherryville Woman's Club met Tuesday afternoon, October 30th at 3 o'clock in the Cherryville High School auditorium.

Before the meeting, Mesdames S. M. Butler and H. H. Allen and their committee served a delicious dessert course with Russian tea in the school Cafeteria.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Fannie Farris. Mrs. J. W. Payne, club chaplain, led a most inspiring devotion on "Living a wise life." She related the qualities of the heart as honesty, self-control, and sincerity. In service and love we find real wisdom," said Mrs. Payne.

During the business meeting Mesdames J. M. Beam and Lester Houser joined the club. The program for the afternoon was on "Education" under the direction of Mrs. Hunter Carroll and Mrs. R. B. Porter. The club sang the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers." Mrs. Porter introduced the topic and gave the new slogan for the year: "Education to Promote the General Welfare." The speaker for the occasion was Supt. W. F. Starnes, who discussed "Needs of the Cherryville City Schools."

The November meeting will be held at the Nu-Way Club house. The committees are as follows: Program: "Health"—Mrs. J. Ralph Beam and Miss Carolyn Allen. Hostesses: Mrs. J. Ben Dellinger, chairman; Mesdames W. G. Cobb, Milton Crocker, E. S. Elliott, Heman Hall, Rupert Camp, Misses Minnie Coleman, Sara Wockman and Cora White.

A new cabbage is being tested in Eastern Carolina to see if it will show less bolting than varieties now grown. It has proven successful in the Charleston, S. C., area.

Pfc. Ray B. Jenkins Home With Discharge

Pfc. Ray B. Jenkins arrived home Saturday evening, after nineteen months overseas in the European Theatre of War with his discharge. Pfc. Jenkins has been in service three years and arrived in the New York harbor last Monday.

Sinclair Service Station Changes

Mr. David Carpenter, owner and manager of the Sinclair Service Station for the past six years has sold the complete business to Mr. J. W. Blackwelder. Mr. Fred VanLyke, well-known Service station operator is manager of the business.

American Legion Members Wanted

All members of the Tryon Post 100, American Legion, and all service men and women at home, either with discharges or without, are requested to be at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, November 4th, at 2:30 o'clock to attend the Memorial Services of Bobby Franklin in a body. Please be on time.

W. BLAINE BEAM, Com. Tryon Post No. 100

N-O-T-I-C-E

In last weeks issue of the Eagle we carried an advertisement for J. C. Jenkins, Tax Collector for the county in which we stated a 2% discount would be given if 1945 taxes were paid in the month of October. This should have read 1-2% discount. We are sorry this error crept in, but we are always glad to make a correction.

NOW PLAYING AT THE LESTER CHERRYVILLE, N. C. DIAL 4601

THURS.-FRIDAY—2 DAYS STARTS L. S. SUN. NITE 12:02 & MON.-TUES.—2 DAYS

Happy Horrors—What a Story! JACK H. SKIRBALL PRESENTS FRED ALLEN 'It's In The Bag' JACK BENNY DON AMECHE WILLIAM BENDIX VICTOR MOORE RUDY VALLEE BINNIE BARNES ROBERT BENCHLEY JERRY COLONNA

They're Up To Their Old Tricks! ABBOTT AND COSTELLO THE NAUGHTY NINETIES Alan CURTIS Lois COLLIER

SAT.—ONE DAY, NOV. 3 THE VERY PRIVATE AFFAIR OF A MERRY PRIVATE ON FURLOUGH!

COLUMBIA PICTURES' 'AGUY' one-guy task force!

'A GAL' ... a gal in a million!

AND A PAL ... the pal who brought them together!

PLUS NEWS-CART.—COMEDY FED. OPERATOR No. 99

—PLUS— MOVIE TONE NEWS

BIG HITS COMING Watch For Dates

Pillow To Post

Valley Decision

Pride Marines

Back To Bataan

"WILD FIRE" In Technicolor

ANCHORS AWEIGH