Southerland-Stroup Nuptials Celebrated

Miss Allie Sue Stroup of Bessemer City became the bride of L. Truman Southerland of Wilmington in a ceremony of beauty and charm on Saturday morning, November 10, at 11:30 o'clock at Concord Methodist Church.

Rev. Claude Moore officiated using the double ring ceremony. Vows were spoken before a background of palms and greenery. Floor baskets filled with white chrysanthemums and seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

Mrs. Mary Keeter of Bessemer City played Ava Maia by Schubert and To The Evening Star by Wagner, and Miss Joan Kincaid of Kannapolis sang "I Love You Truly" and "Indian Love Call" before the ceremony. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used for the processional, during the service Liebestraum was played, and Mendelssohn's march from a Milsommer Night's Dream was used for the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, D. Russel Stroup, wore a handsome suit of navy with matching accessories, a pink blouse, pink ostrich feather hat and a pink orchid at her shoulder.

Charles K. Williams of Kinston was best man, and ushers were Bill Kiser of Fayetteville and Charles Bailey of Gastonia.

Miss Kathryn Weaver of Bessemer City, cousin of the bride and maid-of-honor, wore a dress of dusty pink with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Fred Stroup of Waco and Mrs. John Tienken of Wilmington were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of blue and chaitreuse with black accessories and shoulder bouquets of white carnations. Mrs. Hallie Stroup, mother of the bride, wore an aqua crepe dress and shoulder bouquet of carnations.

Flower girls were Glenda Sue Ballew and Ann Stroup, nieces of the bride, who wore dresses of pink and wine and carried baskets of baby white chrysanthemums.

Wade Ballew, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Southerland left for a trip to Western North Carolina, after which they will be at home in Wilmington.

Saturday's bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hallie Stroup of Bessemer City, and the late D. A. Stroup. She was graduated from Tryon High School and Gordon Crowell Memorial Hospital, Lincolnton for two years, she was connected with the office of Dr. Ford in Valdese and for the past few years she has been on the staff of Babies' Hospital in Wilmington.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alice Southerland of Wilmington, and the late Eli Southerland. He holds a position with White's Ice Cream Company of Wilmington.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Tienken and Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Tienken of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Williams of Kinston; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hunter, Jr., of Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Swin, Champion of States; Miss Ann Weaver, John and Bill Weaver of Morganton and Mrs. W. Moore, Mrs. John Kincaid, Mrs. Frank Brumley and Miss Joan Kincaid of Kannapolis.

Miss Room Bride T-Sgt. Virgil Schad

Bessemer Chapel Methodist Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Sunday morning, Nov. 18 at 10 o'clock when Miss Floe Mary Beam became the bride of T/Sgt. Virgil Leonard Schad, Jr., U. S. M. C., of Champaign, Illinois. Rev. B. W. Leffer, pastor of the church, officiated. The vows were spoken before a background of palms and ferns, floor baskets of white chrysanthemums and candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Karr Beam, aunt of the bride, played "A Dream of Love" from Liebestraum No. 3, "Melody of Love" and "Nocturne" from Wedding Nights' Dream. The Wedding March from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was used for the processional and during the ceremony "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell was played. Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Nights' Dream" was used for the recessional. Miss Collon Beam, sister of the bride, sang "Because", "Till the End of Time", "I Love You Truly." She wore a gown of yellow taffeta with a shoulder bouquet of red rose buds.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Walter R. Beam. Her gown was of white lace over satin, fashioned with a basque waist buttoned down the back, long sleeves ending in points over the hands and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her only ornament was a string of pearls. The three-quarter length veil was worn with a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white prayer book topped with a pale lavender orchid and showered with ribbon streamers.

Miss Karlteen Beam, cousin of the bride and maid of honor, wore a gown of aqua net over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Beam, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Frankie Jean Beam of Charlotte, Miss Mary Lou Self of Bessemer City, and Miss Aileen Huss of Lincolnton, cousins of the bride. They wore dresses of pink and blue net over taffeta and carried colorful bouquets of mixed fall flowers.

The candles were lighted by Frankie Anne Heavner and Mary Ellen Beam, cousins of the bride. They wore dresses of pink and blue taffeta.

Beth Wray Beam, sister of the bride, and Patricia Ann Beam, cousins of the bride were flower girls. They wore long dresses of pink taffeta.

The rings were carried on a pillow of white satin and lace by Johnny Heavner, cousin of the bride.

The bridegroom had Paul Beam, brother of the bride, as his best man. Ushers were Arthur Beam of Charlotte, Karr Beam and Marvin Beam of Cherryville, uncles of the bride and Woodrow Beam, of Cherryville, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Beam, mother of the bride, wore a black crepe dress with a shoulder bouquet if carnations.

Later in the day T/Sgt. Schad and his bride left for Philadelphia, Penn., where they will make their home for the present. For traveling the bride wore a suit of navy blue wool with a white blouse and navy accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was the orchid from her prayer book.

Cobb-Wingard Wedding

A lovely and interesting wedding was that of Miss Sara Ellen Wingard and the Rev. James K. Cobb, which took place at 5:30 p. m., October 18 in the Lutheran Church of the Reformation. The Rev. Wymc C. Boliek, D. D., and the Rev. W. G. Cobb, father of the bridegroom, officiated in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

Many beautiful palms, baskets of white gladioli and white lighted candles in candelabra effectively decorated the church.

Mrs. E. Bernard Wingard, organist, and Miss Mildred Cobb, sister of the bridegroom, and the Rev. David F. Conrad, vocalists, furnished the wedding music. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Wingard played "Liebestraum" (Liszt), "Serenade" (Schubert) and "Invocacion" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner). Miss Cobb sang "The Lord's Prayer" (Mozart), and the Rev. Mr. Conrad sang "I Love Thee" (Crieg), "Because God Made You Mine" (d'Hardelot) and "O Perfect Love" (Barnby), "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner) was used for the processional and "Wedding March" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" (Mendelssohn) for the recessional. "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell) and "Evening Star" (Wagner) were softly played during the ceremony.

William A. Wingard, brother of the bride, Dr. Eugene P. Hamner, brother-in-law of the bride, the Rev. C. W. Carpenter of Mt. Pleasant and the Rev. Richard Fritz of Whitmore were the ushers-grooms-men.

Mrs. Eugene P. Hamner (Elizabeth Wingard), sister of the bride was the matron of honor. She wore a floor-length dress of canary net over taffeta, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long bodice and a full skirt. She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses tied with bronze and gold satin ribbon. Her hairdress was a coronet of canary net.

Miss Frances Wessinger, cousin of the bride, and Miss Louise Cobb, sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. They wore dresses of aqua net over taffeta, fashioned like that of the matron of honor. Their flowers were yellow rosebuds tied with yellow satin ribbon, and their hairdresses coronets of canary net.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Eusebius B. Wingard, was lovely in her wedding gown of white net over satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neck outlined with lace, the pattern continuing in the fitted bodice. The very full skirt extended into a lengthy train. Her full-length veil of bridal illusion bordered with lace fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a white Bible topped with purple throated orchids and showered with white satin ribbons and tiny purple flowers. The bride's only ornament was a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

The Rev. John W. Cobb of Blacksburg, Va., brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Mrs. Eusebius B. Wingard, mother of the bride, wore a fuchsia crepe dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Mrs. W. G. Cobb, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in blue crepe, and wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. W. A. Wessinger, grandmother of the bride, wore black crepe trimmed with sequins. Her corsage was also of Talisman roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fennell Miller, entertained at a reception at their home on Broad River road. Mrs. Miller greeted the guests. Assisting the bride couple in receiving were their parents, the matron of honor, the bridesmaids and usher-grooms-men. Miss Frances Boliek kept the bride's register. Mrs. Floyd E. Shealy was in charge of the gift room. At the punch bowl was Mrs. Jesse B. Wessinger. Assisting in serving were Mrs. W. H. Rawlinson, Misses Florine Youngner, Irene Shealy, Betty Boliek, Hilda Harmon and Frances Cobb.

The bride's table featured the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake and a crystal bowl of white chrysanthemums, roses and carnations. White lighted tapers in crystal holders adorned the table. Arrangements of pink dahlias and gladioli were used in the gift room, and white dahlias and gladioli were placed elsewhere throughout the house.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. For traveling the bride wore a cocoa-brown gabardine suit, with dark brown accessories, and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Cobb is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eusebius B. Wingard of Columbia. After finishing Columbia high school she attended the University of South Carolina.

The Rev. Mr. Cobb is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Cobb of Cherryville, N. C. He was graduated from Lenoir-Rhyne college, Hickory, N. C., and the Southern Theological seminary, Columbia. The bridegroom is now pastor of the St. Michael's Lutheran parish, Columbia.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: The Rev. Hugh E. Baumgartner, Atlanta, Ga.; the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Morgan, Gastonia, N. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. G. H. C. Park, and the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Webb, Chapin; the Rev. and Mrs. Edgar T. Chrisemer, Lexington; Miss Virginia Moser, Burlington, N. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. John D. Mauney, Fayetteville, N. C.; and the Rev. and Mrs. Vernon F. Frazier, Sumter.
