MISS CATHERINE SYBIL SISK BECOMES BRIDE OF G. W. MacDOW

In a ceremony of exceptional charm and beauty taking place last Thursday evening at seven-thirty o'clock at the First Methodist Church, Miss Catherine Sybil Sisk and Mr. George Wilson MacDow were united in marriage with the Rev. Beattie Avery Sisk, father of the bride, reading the ritual. Rev. L. P. Barnette, pastor, assisting. The chancel was arranged with palms and ferns, seven branched candelabra holding white cathedral tapers, and floor baskets filled with white gladioli.

Mrs. H. H. Allen, organist, and Miss Jennie Lee Bryson of Greensboro, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Allen played Serenade, by Schubert; Salut d'Amour, by Elgar; Ave Maria, by Schubert; and Calm as the Night, by Brahms. Miss Bryson's numbers were: At Dawning; Arrangement of O Perfect Love, and Because, by d'Hardelot. During the ceremony Mrs. Allen softly played Liebestraum, by Liszt and just before the benediction Miss Bryson sang "The Lords Prayer". The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

Mrs. Elsie Bauer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Katherine Stamey was maid of honor. Misses Jackie Black and Clara Self were bridesmaids. All of these wore white net posed over with satin, featuring the fitted bodices and skirts extremely full. They carried bouquets of white flowers caught with large bows of red satin ribbon.

Ushers were William P. Fitzhugh, Colon Carpenter, Troy E. Carpenter and Harry Allen, Jr. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. Beattie Avery Sisk and the bridegroom had as his best man, Robert Sisk, brother of the bride.

The bride was lovely in white satin wedding gown made with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice, long sleeves ending in calla points over the hands, and a full skirt extending into a train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was worn with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book topped with a bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Sisk, mother of the bride wore a wine velvet dinner dress and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the benediction a reception was held at the home of Miss Jackie Black.

Services next Sunday at Second Baptist Church will consist of Sunday School at 9:45; morning worship at 11; Baptist Training Unions at 6, and evening worship at 7. The public is cordially invited to attend each of these services.

Request is made that if any reader of this paper knows of a family in Cherryville who are in destitute circumstances and may not be able to enjoy Christmas because of their need, that you will please notify someone of the following before Tuesday, December 20th. Please give the names of such to one of the following: John McGinnis, Iron Mill; L. F. Jenkins, at L. F. Jenkins Grocery; or H. Lee Heavenier at the Rhyne-Houser Mill.

Services At Second Baptist Church

Lowell is the second Gaston County town to realize and exceed its quota in the sale of "E" bonds in the current Victory Loan drive, according to a report made Monday by Allen H. Smith, county chairman for the conduct of the campaign.

Dallas was the first town to go over the top in the sale of "E" bonds. Lowell has been assigned a quota of $20,000 of these certificates, and the amount has already been achieved. Lowell School children sold a total of $3,337.87 in the "E" certificates. Chairman Smith announced. The drive in Lowell, which will also continue through the month of December, is being directed by C. C. Rouse of the National Weaving Company there.
