Haywood Kendrick Wins Video Set On "Place Face"

Haywood (Bud) Kendrick of Cherryville couldn't "place the face" last Thursday night, but he will receive a Capehart television set for his efforts.

Haywood was called by telephone from California, where the "Place the Face" television program originates. The Cherryville native talked to Bill Cullen, who conducts the program.

He was given an opportunity to name one of three persons whose faces appear in a special "face" shown weekly on the TV program. If he had given the correct identity of one of the two unidentified faces represented in the contest, Kendrick would have received $23,000.00. Jimmy Stewart has been identified by a contest contestant as a part of the facial features, and the contest is continuing until the other two persons are named.

"Bud" gave the name of Winn Elliott for his guess of one of the faces. Mr. Cullen informed the contestant that Elliott was not represented in the "face."

However, Mr. Kendrick, the popular Cherryville man, who enters practically every contest on TV, Radio or otherwise, was told that he would receive a TV set for his participation in the contest.

Mrs. Jack Randall Chm. Cancer Drive

Mrs. Jack Randall, member of the Junior Woman's Club has been appointed Chairman for Cherryville Township for the Cancer Drive which is being conducted during this month throughout the nation. The Cancer Drive in Cherryville Township is sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club.

Band Enters State Contest Friday

Friday morning at 6 o'clock, the Cherryville High School Band will load up to travel to Greensboro where they will participate in the State Contest Music Festival. This trip was made possible through band's efforts and superior rating which they received at the district contest Festival held in Salisbury on March 19. This year the band will be in the classification of Grade IV along with schools such as Gastonia, Salisbury, Charlotte Myers Park and Durham. In the district contest at Salisbury the band received three superior ratings from the three judges. The band is scheduled to play at 10:55 a. m., Aycock Auditorium, W.C.U.N.C.

On May 3 the band will present its annual Spring Concert, Starnes Auditorium, at 10:30 and 8:00 p.m. On this program the band will feature as guest soloist Mr. William Walsh, a professional clarinetist. The band will accompany Mr. Walsh in three selections. The second half of the concert will be presented by the band. Admission prices - 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. The 10:30 a.m. concert will be given to the student body and admission will be 10c.

The May 16 concert will be the traditional Sunday afternoon Senior Farewell Concert. This concert has been the tradition for the past seven years and is dedicated to the seniors in the band, who make up the officers: Bob Long, President; Martha Jon Blackwelder, vice-president; Mary Ann Austell, Treasurer; Nancy Harris, Secretary; Librarian, Meta Dauglas.

Revival Services At Bess Chapel Church

Education will be the keynote when optometrists from the Southeast attend the 30th annual Southeastern Congress of Optometry in Charlotte April 25-28.

In addition to the educational values for the optometrists, who will learn the latest optometric developments for vision analysis, a good portion of the meeting will be devoted to the problems of vision in the schools.

North Carolina school teachers will be invited by the optometrists throughout the state to hear Dr. F. M. Root of Cedar Falls, Iowa, an outstanding authority on vision and its relationship to school reading, speak on the visually handicapped in today's classrooms.

Today's child reads some 15 times as much material as was required in the schools of 1900, and Dr. Root will point out a number of systems that a teacher may observe in the classroom to determine when a child's difficulties are stemming from inadequate vision.

Other speakers at the meeting will be Dr. A. M. Skeffington of St. Louis, Mo., educational director for the Optometric Extension Program, and Dr. T. R. Murroughs, associate director of psychology and director of the laboratory of Binocular Seeing at the Northern Illinois College of Optometry.

About 300 optometrists from ten Southeastern states are expected to attend. Attending from Cherryville will be Dr. and Mrs. Charles G. Metcalf.

The spring meeting of the North Carolina State Optometric Society and its women's auxiliary will be held in conjunction with the Congress, and a new slate of officers will be elected. Dr. James A. Palmer of Charlotte is the present president. The meeting will be held at the Hotel Charlotte.

Scottish Rite Re-Union In Charlotte

The Scottish Rite of Freemasonry will hold their Spring Reunion in Charlotte next week for four days and nights, beginning Monday morning, April 26th at 8:30 o'clock.

Candidates from Cherryville during this re-union are the following: Messrs D. Ray Ballard, Fenton L. Larson and Fred K. Houser. Those participating in the conferring of the degrees will be Dr. R. J. Morrison and Hon. David P. Dellinger, both of whom hold the 33rd degree which is the highest degree to be conferred anywhere.

Matthew A. Stroup Returns To Hospital

Rev. George Riddle Is Commissioner

ATLANTA, GA., April 16.—The Rev. George Riddle of Cherryville, N. C., pastor of the Cherryville Presbyterian Church, was certified today as an official commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

Announcement that Rev. Riddle will take part in the May 27-June 1 meeting of the highest court of his denomination was made here by Dr. E. C. Scott, Stated Clerk of the General Assembly. The meeting will be in Montreat, N. C.

As a commissioner, the Cherryville minister will represent Kings Mountain Presbytery, and will consider, among other things, the proposed union of the United, U.S. (Southern) and U.S.A. (Northern) Presbyterian Churches.

Garland H. Hallman Enters The Race For Township Constable

Mr. Garland H. Hallman, life long Democrat, has entered the race for Constable from Cherryville township.

This is Mr. Hallman's first time to cast his hat into the political ring.

Mr. Hallman is married to the former Miss Marjorie Ray, and they have three children. He attends the First Baptist Church. Mr. Hallman and his family live just below the Carlton Mill on the Cherryville-Dallas Highway.

Mr. Ralph Gaffey has served as Constable from Cherryville township for many years and is seeking re-election in the Democratic primary election to be held Saturday, May 29th, 1954.

Swafford or Pearson To Hurl For Baptist

Cherryville's one and only chance to see college baseball this season comes Saturday night at the local high school park when Gardner-Webb's Bulldogs play the Scotties of Presbyterian Junior College in an 8:00 encounter. A large crowd is expected for the return of G-W boss Norman Harris, who guided the legion team here last summer.

Harris lost most of the championship club last season but has once again turned up with a top notch club. Three wins have been recorded by the Bulldogs: nine to date against one setback. As of Sunday, they were deadlocked for third place with Louisburg. PJC hasn't won a loop tilt thus far but several non-loop foes have bowed to the ever-dangerous men from Maxton.

Either Gaddes Swafford, a lefty, or Righthander Hal Pearson will toe the rubber for Coach Harris' outfit Saturday with Luther Keels the probable starter for the visitors who will be the first of a two-game set with the Bulldogs Friday afternoon at Bolling Springs.

Swafford, a big southpaw hailing from Cowpens, S. C., has won two games to date against one reverse. He hurled three frames vs. Spartanburg in the season opener, won by G-W 13-8. Then trimmed EMI 3-2 on four hits and Spartanburg again 5-2 on five safeties. His setback came at the hands of a powerful Campbell club 14-2. Gardner-Webb's other win came at the expense of Weafer 3-2. Pearson gained credit for that win. Other Bulldog hurlers are Dale Hart, Jim Gamble, and Richard Bass, the latter coming from Belmont.

Three other Gaston County lews will be in the Gardner-Webb lineup Saturday, also. Lincolnton product may start. Bessemer City's Gene Huss has developed into a top flight shortstop while Gastonia's Joe Long, a former Gaston County legion star, shares duty in rightfield with Nancey Proctor of Lincolnton. Stanley's Joe Saunders is the No. 1 receiver.

Expected to open at the initial sack for the Gardner-Webbers Saturday is Grady Thomas, a converted catcher. Thomas, who saw little action in the season's championship outfit, starred on the diamond at North Mecklenburg High, Charlotte. Bill Kiser, a Dover Mill, Shelby product, will go the second base for the Bulldogs while another Cowpens lad, Dennis McCreary, occupies the hot corner. Danman, one of the state's finest third sackers, is the No. 2 batter among Bulldog batsmen with a .298 mark. Dorman has handled 14 chances to date without an error charged against the clever Cowpens first-year man. Dennis batted .317 for the state legion runners-up in 1950.

Procter, outstanding football and baseball star at Lincolnton High, or Long, a power-laden youth, will open in rightfield with Ernie Beverly in left, Jim Smith or Dee Nancey in center. Beverly batted .299 for last season's state champions, rated among the finest ever produced in the Junior college league. Ernie, a Thomasville lad, has been put in the lead-off position by Harris, is hitting .212 to date. Smith, who has batted .299 from Rutherfordton and Forest City respectively, has been alternating in centerfield thus far with Smith, a powerful left-hand swinger, getting the best of his Forest City mate.

Campbell, Chowan, Wingate, Louisburg, Onk Ridge, and EMI have taken the measure of the Scotties to date with Coach Don Harding's club clipping the Red Springs semi-pro nine twice, also the Norwood semi-pro. Coach Harding's prize possession this season is Centerfielder Tom Bracey. Bracey, a powerfully

Procter, outstanding football and baseball star at Lincolnton High, or Long, a power-laden youth, will open in rightfield with Ernie Beverly in left, Jim Smith or Dee Nancey in center. Beverly batted .299 for last season's state champions, rated among the finest ever produced in the Junior college league. Ernie, a Thomasville lad, has been put in the lead-off position by Harris, is hitting .212 to date. Smith, who has batted .299 from Rutherfordton and Forest City respectively, has been alternating in centerfield thus far with Smith, a powerful left-hand swinger, getting the best of his Forest City mate.

Campbell, Chowan, Wingate, Louisburg, Onk Ridge, and EMI have taken the measure of the Scotties to date with Coach Don Harding's club clipping the Red Springs semi-pro nine twice, also the Norwood semi-pro. Coach Harding's prize possession this season is Centerfielder Tom Bracey. Bracey, a powerfully
