MRS. ALLEN JAMES YARBORO

Yarboro-Devenny Wedding Solemnized Sunday Afternoon In Waco Church

In a simple but beautiful wedding held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Waco Baptist Church, Miss Barbara Ann Devenny of Charlotte became the bride of Allen James Yarboro also of Charlotte. Rev. Burley S. Turner read the double ring ritual for the couple.

The church was decorated with a background of greenery, a large tree stood at center back of the altar, flanked by four seven branch candelabra holding burning tapers. Three fern fronds were hung against the wall at back of altar. A seven branch candelabra with tapers was placed in each choir loft and an all white floor basket arrangement of gladiolus, delphinium and gerberas centered the rostrum and completed the decoration.

Mrs. J. A. Clay, pianist, and Miss Beth Putnam and Miss Frances Carroll, vocal soloists, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a Maurer original gown of candlelight illusion lace and nylon tulle over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, which buttoned in back, long sleeves tapered to points over the hands and a yoke of illusion joined to the lace with lace applique sprinkled with tiny pearls. The bouffant ballerina tulle skirt was accented by a narrow flared lace hip yoke with pearl trim. Her finger-tip veil of candlelight illusion was caught to a Chantilly lace cap of pearls and sequins. The bride carried a white enger book, topped with a white hybrid orchid with a purple throat, showered with tuberoses and satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls belonging to her mother.

Mrs. Robert Spurling, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and Miss Leila Jane Borders of Shelby and Mrs. Edna Wright of Shelby and Mrs. Edna Wright of Charlotte, N. C.

The bridegroom, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Yarboro of Waco, N. C., was graduated from Waco High School and is now employed by Dixie Home Stores in Charlotte, N. C.

After a wedding trip through the mountains of Western North Carolina the couple will be at home on Wilkinson Boulevard, Charlotte, N. C.

Devenny-Yarboro Party Entertained

Miss Barbara Ann Devenny and Allen Yarboro, both of Waco, whose wedding took place Sunday afternoon at Waco Baptist Church, were honored at a party Saturday night after their wedding rehearsal when a group of Miss Devenny's uncles and aunts entertained for them at the Waco Community Club house. Mrs. and Mrs. J. B. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. George Moss of Waco, and Mrs. Carol Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Drum and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Boyles, all of Lincolnton, were hosts for the party. The party was also in the nature of a wedding reception, since a reception was held after the wedding Sunday afternoon.

A four-tiered white wedding cake provided a decorative centerpiece on the table, which was covered with a white linen and garlanded with white flowers. A crystal punch bowl, surrounded by ivy and white daisies, stood on a smaller table at one side of the room. Arrangements of white snapdragons, gladioli, and daisies added to the decorative effect in the club lounge.

Two of the hostesses, Mrs. Moss and Mrs. Boyles headed a receiving line which greeted arriving guests. Receiving with them were the bride and bridegroom, their parents, and the girls of the wedding party. Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. Allen poured punch and Mrs. Drum cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. James Ance of Cherryville and Misses Marian Moss and Rachel Sellers of Waco passed refreshment plates.

Green and white cake squares, lime sherbet punch, and salted nuts were served to reception guests. Later the wedding cake was cut and served with other refreshments to members of the wedding party and others helping at the party.

The guest list numbered approximately 100.
