SMITH - WALKER NUPITIALS HELD SUNDAY AT SALISBURY

Salisbury—Miss Dorothy Aderholdt Walker, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. James Ernest Walker, became the bride of Marcus Carroll Smith, son of Mrs. Cleveland Theodore Smith and the late Mr. Smith of Hudson, in a five o'clock ceremony on Sunday afternoon in Grace Lutheran Church. The Rev. Walker, father of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. Music was furnished by Mrs. Allan W. Laxton, organist, and Mrs. John McKnight, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, John W. Her double-tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a seed pearl tiara. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She carried a white purple-throated orchid on a white prayer book.

Miss Martha Walker, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a long gown of pink and blue net over pink taffeta. She carried a nosegay of pink roses. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Everett Foster of Rock Hill, S. C., college roommate of the bride; Miss Gail Colvard of New Bern, niece of the bridegroom; Mrs. Joe Shumate of Salisbury, Miss Kay Bradley of Arlington, Va., Miss Ann Aderholdt of Henry River, and Miss Nanette Aderholdt of Henry River, cousins of the bride. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and carried nosegays of pink daisies. Bruce B. Smith of Lenoir was his brother's best man. Ushers included Charles W. Hickman, Jr., of Charlotte, nephew of the bridegroom; William D. Walker, brother of the bride; Harward D. Efrid of High Point; Everette Dellinger of Hickory; Douglas Gaston of Mt. Pleasant; and Phillip B. Bush II of Washington, D. C.

After the rehearsal Sunday evening for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Aderholdt Walker and Marcus Carol Smith, a lovely cake cutting was given for the bridal party and friends at the home of the parents of the bride-elect, Rev. and Mrs. James E. Walker near Salisbury.

Aderholdt received in the living room and invited the guests into the dining room, where a color scheme of blue and pink prevailed. The table was covered with a handsome lace banquet cloth, which was centered by a four-tiered cake of unusual beauty. A charming nosegay of pink rosebuds and blue forget-me-nots made entirely of frustring adorned the top tier of the cake. The delicate blue frosting of the cake was surmounted by roses in net, covered the large base upon which the cake was placed. Additional decorations of bridal type added to the beauty of this part of the setting. Included were glowing pink tapers in silver candelabra, and silver plates of blue mints in shapes of wedding symbols decorated in tiny rosebuds, of pink frosting. Silver composites held salted nuts, and the bridal napkins were pale blue with wedding designs in silver.

On the side serving table was the punch bowl. After the bridal couple cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. West B. Rhyne, aunt of the bride-elect, served cake for the other guests. Mrs. John W. Aderholdt presided during the serving in the dining room, where several cousins of the bride assisted in serving. Seventy-five guests were present. Gifts were presented to members of the wedding party. Miss Walker and Mr. Smith were married Sunday afternoon, June 13th at Grace Lutheran Church near Salisbury. Mr. Smith is a son of Mrs. C. T.
