Mrs. Frances London Smith and Mr. Daniel Edward Winfrey Wed. The wedding of Mrs. Frances London Smith and Mr. Daniel Edward Winfrey was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Hamlet, with Rev. Herman P. Wyrick, pastor of the bride, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Cassie M. London of Hamlet and Mr. D. M. London of Cherryville. The groom is the son of Mrs. C. M. Winfrey of Washington, D. C. Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Jake Carter of Albemarle, organist, and Mr. William R. Henry of Charlotte, vocalist, who sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Glenn L. London, who gave her in marriage. She wore a dress of frosted dawn pink crystal, a full-length gown in princess lines with a full Whirling skirt, and featuring a short jacket of the same material. She wore a small matching hat, embroidered with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequents. She carried a white lace covered Bible, topped with a purple throated orchid. Mrs. Glenn L. London, her only attendant, was matron of honor. Her dress of sky blue silk and cotton, featured a high empire bustline, and full skirt. She wore a matching hat sprinkled with rhinestones and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white mums. Mr. J. D. Nash of Hamlet, was the groom's best man. Larry London, nephew of the bride, carried the candles. Ushers were Mr. Bill London of Charlotte, brother of the bride and Mr. James Walton of Hamlet. The mother of the bride chose a mauve lace dress with white accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations. The mother of the groom wore a black dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations. Following the ceremony the bride and groom received in the vestibule of the church. The couple left for a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina and Tennessee. After September 12th they will be at home in Sanford where Mr. Winfrey is employed by the Seaboard Railway.
