

People You Know

Society About People, Parties Clubs and News

In Social Activities

Mrs. M. A. Stroup spent the week-end in Sumter, S. C. with Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jenkins and sons, Cecil Ross and Lester, were dinner guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morrison.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen and Mrs. Neil Shelton spent Sunday in Columbia, S. C. with Miss Shirley Allen, a student at the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton H. Beam of Charlotte spent Monday at the bedside of Mrs. Charles P. Beam. Mrs. Beam is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Beam and children, Zelda and Nathaniel, of Vale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Black.

Dr. Wayne Howell of Sumter, S. C. attended the funeral services of his aunt, Mrs. A. Hoke Huss last Friday.

Mr. H. C. Putnam, of Cherryville, R-1 was a business visitor in town Tuesday and while here renewed his subscription to The Eagle.

Mrs. S. D. Kirkpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Carter spent the past week-end at Easley, South Carolina visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. B. McKelvey.

Mrs. M. A. Stroup returned home Friday from Miami, Florida where she has been spending several weeks.

Miss Jeanette Scholtz and Mr. Walter Cannon of Gastonia, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jones.

Mrs. J. W. Craft of Cherryville, R-1 was in town shopping Tuesday and while here she called in and renewed her subscription to The Eagle.

Dr. and Mrs. Bill Allen and children, Frank and Jeanie, of Stanley, spent Tuesday afternoon with Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen.

Mr. L. Coit Dellinger, a successful farmer of Cherryville, R-1 was a business visitor in town Monday and visited the Eagle Office and renewed his subscription to The Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barger, Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shives of Gastonia were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Yates Beam and Miss Etta Dellinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bean and little daughter, Linda, of Charlotte visited Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jones recently. Mr. Bean is well known here, being a popular announcer at Station WBTB, Charlotte.

The many friends of Mrs. Jennie Lineberger will be sorry to know she was not too well Monday and Tuesday but is improving.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles P. Beam will be sorry to know she has been real sick and confined to her bed for the past several days, but is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Clayton Sisk entered the Davis Hospital in Statesville last Saturday for treatment. Her many friends will be glad to learn she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGinnis of Columbia, S. C. spent last week here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McGinnis and in Shelby with Mrs. Lalyage Hord.

Mrs. Thelma Tucker of Winston-Salem spent the week-end here the guest of Mrs. Neva Seism and attended the Boyles-Schronce wedding.

Mrs. Dicke Carpenter entered the Shelby Hospital Monday for treatment. She is improving nicely and expected to return to her home here on North Pink street, this evening.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Howell and children, Patricia and Webb, of Durham, spent the week-end here with Mrs. W. C. Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Hutto and little son, Nickie.

Mr. and Mrs. Homan Hall spent the week-end in Lumberton with Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. Smith and Mr. Smith, and they were accompanied by Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. Crawford, who will spend some time with her daughter in Lumberton.

A card from John A. Smith, who is a patient at the Hospital in Morgantown, informs us he is expecting to come home in a few more weeks. Mr. Smith is an Easler reader every week and is looking forward to coming home.

Mr. C. B. Homesley, a regular subscriber of The Eagle, for years and years, and probably the entire fifty years, sent his renewal this week for another year. Mr. Homesley has been a little under the weather but is getting along fine we understand.

Mrs. Alfonso Beam returned home last week from Homestead, Fla. where she has been spending the past several weeks with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Ray Baker, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Beam. Mr. Alfonso Beam and Mr. Cline Dellinger spent the week-end in Miami and accompanied her home.

MRS. JOHN EDWARD MYLTON

Miss Joan Lingerfelt And Mr. John Edward Mylton Pledges Troth Sunday

Miss Joan Lingerfelt became the bride of John Edward Mylton of Hickory and Pittsburg, Pa. in a beautiful candlelight wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, The Rev. Russell Remer of Gastonia, life long friend of the bridegroom, read the double ring ritual for the couple. Oregon fern, southern smilax, blue pink gladioli, and pink tapers in seven-branched candelabra were grouped in front of the marital to provide a home like for the pledging of the marriage vows.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barger, Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shives of Gastonia were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Yates Beam and Miss Etta Dellinger.

The many friends of Mrs. Jennie Lineberger will be sorry to know she was not too well Monday and Tuesday but is improving.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles P. Beam will be sorry to know she has been real sick and confined to her bed for the past several days, but is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Clayton Sisk entered the Davis Hospital in Statesville last Saturday for treatment. Her many friends will be glad to learn she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGinnis of Columbia, S. C. spent last week here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McGinnis and in Shelby with Mrs. Lalyage Hord.

Mrs. Thelma Tucker of Winston-Salem spent the week-end here the guest of Mrs. Neva Seism and attended the Boyles-Schronce wedding.

Mrs. Dicke Carpenter entered the Shelby Hospital Monday for treatment. She is improving nicely and expected to return to her home here on North Pink street, this evening.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Howell and children, Patricia and Webb, of Durham, spent the week-end here with Mrs. W. C. Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Hutto and little son, Nickie.

Mr. and Mrs. Homan Hall spent the week-end in Lumberton with Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. Smith and Mr. Smith, and they were accompanied by Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. Crawford, who will spend some time with her daughter in Lumberton.

A card from John A. Smith, who is a patient at the Hospital in Morgantown, informs us he is expecting to come home in a few more weeks. Mr. Smith is an Easler reader every week and is looking forward to coming home.

Mr. C. B. Homesley, a regular subscriber of The Eagle, for years and years, and probably the entire fifty years, sent his renewal this week for another year. Mr. Homesley has been a little under the weather but is getting along fine we understand.

Mrs. Alfonso Beam returned home last week from Homestead, Fla. where she has been spending the past several weeks with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Ray Baker, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Beam. Mr. Alfonso Beam and Mr. Cline Dellinger spent the week-end in Miami and accompanied her home.

Mrs. Alfonso Beam returned home last week from Homestead, Fla. where she has been spending the past several weeks with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Ray Baker, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Beam. Mr. Alfonso Beam and Mr. Cline Dellinger spent the week-end in Miami and accompanied her home.

Celebrates Golden Anniversary

Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary Saturday Afternoon

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jones spent last week on vacation in Florida.

Miss Betty Ann Robinson of Hickory spent Sunday afternoon here visiting friends.

Miss Larson Member Of Chemistry Club At W. C. U. N. C.

Miss Mary Fenton Larson has become a member of the Chemistry Club at Womans College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. The requirements for membership in this club are a B-average and one semester's work.

Shuford-Towery Announcement

Mrs. C. W. Coggins announce the marriage of her sister, Miss Lucie Shuford to Mr. Ray Towery.

The ceremony was performed on Saturday, February 26th, in Gaffney, S. C. Mrs. Sarah Douglas, wife of the Probate Judge, officiated.

Bethany Class Holds Meeting

The Bethany Class meeting was held Monday night, February 28 at the home of Misses Ruth and Ethel Watterson.

High School Music Club Met Monday

The Cherryville High School Music Club held its monthly meeting on Monday, February 28th, at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium.

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND METHODIST RALLY

Those from the First Methodist Church, here attending the Evangelistic Rally in Charlotte yesterday were: Mrs. Troy C. Homesley, Mrs. J. W. Payne, Mrs. Everett Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard George, Mrs. David Eaker, Mrs. Martell Beam, Mrs. Lester Houser, Mrs. W. T. Robinson, Mrs. Florence Love, Mrs. B. W. Laffer, Mrs. Julia Renfro, Mrs. W. T. Robinson, Mrs. D. A. Rudisill, and Miss Kate Whitworth.

Rev. George Riddle will conduct the devotions. The program will be presented by the six Cherryville High School students who were winners in the high school World Peace Essay Contest. At this time the winner of the "World Peace" Gold Key will be selected.

All parents of the contestants and members of the Club are urged to be present. Note change in time of meeting.

FOR SALE—House and good lot close in. FRED K. HOUSSER, Cherryville, N. C. Phone 6752 or 6866.

EASTERN STAR MEMBERS TO WORSHIP AT THE FIRST METHODIST SUNDAY

Eastern Star members are reminded to meet at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning, March 6th, at the 11:00 o'clock hour and attend the morning worship service in a body.

Mt. Zion R. A.'s Met Monday

On Feb. 28, the Mt. Zion Chapter of R. A. held their second meeting.

The meeting came to order by everyone repeating the Lord's Prayer. Then we sang our anthem, "The King of Kings."

At 7:30, the Chapter of the First Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Dayne Beam Monday night, February 28th, with Mrs. John Neill as co-host.

Mrs. Ralph Wease, circle chairman, gave the devotion on the topic, "We Are A Chosen Generation."

Mrs. E. S. Elliott led in prayer. The business session was conducted by Mrs. Wease.

Inabelle Coleman Circle Meets

The Inabelle Coleman Circle of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Dayne Beam Monday night, February 28th, with Mrs. John Neill as co-host.

Mrs. Ralph Wease, circle chairman, gave the devotion on the topic, "We Are A Chosen Generation."

Mrs. E. S. Elliott led in prayer. The business session was conducted by Mrs. Wease.

The program was given in connection with the Week of Prayer for Home Missions being held throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments to the following members present: Mesdames John Mottler, Jr., T. C. Rogers, Tom Henry, Parker George, Clyde Morrison, Bobby Beam, James Parker, Ray Jenkins, Kent Jenkins, Max G. Beam, Tony Sabatie, Sam Sigmon, Ralph Wease, Robert Seism, John F. Heavner and E. S. Elliott.

Lenoir Rhyne College Kick-Off Dinner

A kick-off dinner will be held Friday night at 6:45 at St. John's Lutheran church for those who will solicit for the Lenoir Rhyne College Appeal.

Individual cakes decorated with white and topped with yellow rose buds, and ice cream shubert was served by Miss Mary Edith Duffy, Miss Sadie Morrison, Mrs. Murray Beam, Mrs. Howard Ballard, Mrs. Connie Wallace, and Mrs. Ruth Watterson.

About 75 called during the afternoon and others called on Sunday and Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Self received many lovely gifts.

They are the parents of three children: Lawrence Self of Forest City; Charles Carpenter, Fanny Carpenter and Glenda Carpenter of Baltimore and Judy Ann Humphries and Gary Humphries of the home, and two great-grand children: Little Bobby and Christy Carpenter of Baltimore, Md.

Eastern Star Gives Washington Program

Cherryville Chapter No. 150, Order of the Eastern Star held a regular meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in the Masonic Hall.

The meeting was opened in regular form with Mrs. Maude Carter, Worthy Matron and Helen Eaker, Worthy Patron presiding.

A George Washington Program was given in charge of Miss Cora White, assisted by Mrs. Hunter Carroll and Miss Pearl Harrison.

Funeral Services Are Held For Mrs. Houser

Funeral services were held in St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Lincolnton, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Mrs. Silas Houser.

Mrs. Houser had been hospitalized for the past two years, and had been hospitalized for two days, prior to her death at the age of 70 years.

Services were in charge of the Rev. Richard J. Lee of Lincolnton, assisted by Rev. Carson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Raleigh. Interment was made in the cemetery of the Church of Our Saviors, Woodside.

Active pallbearers were: Bud Houser, Cherryville; Russell Carpenter, Danville, Va.; Russell W. Houser, Lincolnton; Frank Poovey, Hickory; James Young, Hickory; and Frank Houser, Lincolnton.

Her husband, Dr. Silas P. Houser of Lincolnton, preceded her to the grave several years ago.

Mrs. Houser is survived by five daughters, Mrs. L. C. Ross of Lincolnton, R-1; Mrs. H. C. Mullen, Hickory; Mrs. Graham Braswell, Greensboro; Mrs. John Mauney, J. Raleigh; Mrs. W. R. Ham, Richmond, Va.; one brother, J. T. Mallard of West Palm Beach, Fla.; one sister, Mrs. R. C. Brooks, Dallas; eleven grand-children and 2 great-grandchildren.

MRS. ALFRED BILL SCRONCE

MISS MARY CHRISTINE BOYLES BRIDE OF ALFRED SCRONCE

Miss Mary Christine Boyles became the bride of Alfred Bill Scronce, Saturday evening, February 26, at 6:00 P. M. in a lovely and impressive church ceremony at the Bethlehem Methodist Church.

The former Miss Boyles is the daughter of J. Russell Boyles of Cherryville and the late Vera Howell Boyles, Mr. Scronce is the son of Mrs. Frank Scronce of Lincolnton and the late Mr. Scronce.

The Reverend Jesse L. Johnson, pastor of the Bethlehem church, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ruth McGinn of Charlotte, pianist, and Miss Patsy Price also of Charlotte, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace over satin, attractively embroidered in pearls. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift from the bridegroom. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with baby breath and bridal fern.

Miss Betty Jo Boyles was Maid of Honor and her sister's only attendant. She wore a ballerina length dress of pastel blue with matching slippers and head dress.

Jack Scronce of Lincolnton, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Donald Boyles of Kings Mountain, Kenneth Howell of Cherryville, Bob Scronce and Ben Scronce both of Lincolnton.

Following the ceremony the couple received in the vestibule of the church. After a short wedding trip they will be at home at 229 Ridgewood Avenue in Charlotte.

The bride is a graduate of North Brook High School and Evans College of Commerce and is now employed with the Home Finance Group, Inc. of Charlotte.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Union High School and Kings Business College and has served four years in the U. S. Air Force. He is presently employed with the Interstate Milling Company of Charlotte.

CAKE CUTTING

On Friday night, preceding the wedding, the wedding party along with close relatives and friends, were entertained at a cake cutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Howell.

The house was attractively decorated throughout in green and white.

Assisting Mrs. Howell as hostesses were Mrs. Neva Seism, Mrs. James Howell, Mrs. Hillard Howell, Mrs. C. E. Royster.

FOR SALE — Pansies, Sweet Williams, Pinks, Carnations, Double Hollyhaws, Candy Tuft, Painted Daisy, English Daisy, White Bermuda Onions and Lettuce Plants. Also a few Pent Oak sprouts. JIM L. WRIGHT, R-2 Cherryville, N. C. 1tp

$400 MONTHLY SPARE TIME Refilling and collecting money for you by the hour. No machines in this area. No selling! To qualify for work you must have car, references, $640 cash, secured by inventory. Devoting 6 hours a week to business, you get on percentage collections will net up to $400 monthly with very good possibilities of taking over full time. Income increasing accordingly. For interview, include phone in application. Write Box 705, Cherryville.

NOTICE—If the person who found a black suede Pocketbook at the Missionary Methodist Church in Cherryville, Sunday, Feb. 20th at the singing convention will please return to Miss Judy Byars at 350 Houser street or Telephone 5592, will receive reward. JUDY BYARS. 1tp

HOUSE FOR SALE—Two bedroom house close to town with all modern conveniences. See T. C. ROGERS or Phone 6363. 1tpd

FOR SALE OR RENT—A 10 room house in Waco. See JOHN W. HOMESLEY at Sanitary Barber Shop or Telephone 4143 in Cherryville, N. C. 1tpd

FOR SALE—Good used Myers shallow well Pump, less tank, $50.00. D. P. CABANISS, Crouse, N. C. Phone Regent 5-7909. 2M9nd

FOR SCREEN WORK of all kinds, see A. SIDNEY BEAM, Cherryville, N. C. TFE

FOR RENT—Rooms furnished or unfurnished on 412 N. Mulberry Street. Mrs. W. L. HENDRICKS, Cherryville, N. C. Phone 6483. TFE

WANTED—Good used Royal or Smith Corona Typewriter. MRS. JIM STROUP, Route 2, Cherryville, Phone 4838. 1t

FOR SALE—1951 Fruehauf Tandem Trailer, like new. And 1948 L. F. T. Mack Tractor, new engine, unit top shape $5,500.00. 1951 Harley Davidson 74 Motor-cycle, $675.00. TOM HENRY, Box 336, Cherryville, N. C. 4t-M23

JUICY STEAKS

ROUND SIRLOIN T-BONE 50c lb.

BUSH'S BLACKKEYED PEAS CHOPPED KRAUT PINTO BEANS 10c can

Houser Fine Foods

213 EAST MAIN STREET Cherryville, N. C.

FOR SALE—Maple China Cabinet with glass doors in good condition. MRS. HOKE QUICKLE, Phone 4211. 1t

CARD OF APPRECIATION

We wish to express our deep appreciation to our friends and neighbors for the many things they have done to help us since our house was damaged by fire last Thursday morning. We especially want to thank the firemen for their quick action and for saving our house from a complete loss. Words are inadequate to express our gratitude, but every deed of kindness, every gift and every word of sympathy is greatly appreciated. May God bless you all.

See The New PONTIAC

On Display At MAIN STREET ESSO SERVICE LET US DEMONSTRATE THIS NEW PONTIAC FOR YOU

I am salesman for the Kincaid Pontiac dealers in Bessemer City for the new Pontiac car and have one on display at my service station. Come in today and let me give you a demonstration of this fine new Pontiac. Main St. Esso Service 319 E. Main St. Phone 9192 JIM SHERRILL

FOR SALE—McColough 7 h.b. Chain Saw, A-1 condition, with new chain. Also one 1-2 ton Chevrolet pick-up truck. Phone 2731 Waco, or see W. L. Browne, 2tM9cg

Judy's Beauty Shop Near J. W. Mauney's Store 3 1-2 Miles Down Bessemer Road Invites You To Attend OPEN HOUSE Tuesday Afternoon 2 to 5 Door Prizes Will Be Given PHONE 4831 Specializing In Permanents Judy Absher - Owner