

CARLTON MILLS BEGIN SUMMER PROGRAM

"CRY OF THE ORIENT" TO BE SHOWN SUNDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 5

Youth For Christ Film In Color

On Sunday, June 5th, at 3:00 o'clock in the Starnes Auditorium, Cherryville High School, there will be the showing of the Missionary film, "Cry of the Orient."

"Cry of the Orient" is a feature length Youth for Christ documentary film in color and sound. See Atom-bombed Hiroshima! See the masses of people—Christ's challenge to us—on Formosa. See the Hindu's burning ghat on the banks of the Sacred Gange River of India.

Billy Graham says of this film, "definitely one of the better films of our time." There will not be an admission charge. However an offering will be received and given to the student who is presenting the film. He is Daniel Shude of Tokyo, Japan.

The film is being sponsored by the young people of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Go see it, you will be blessed by so doing. All the churches of Cherryville are invited to see this wonderful film.

Vacation Bible School To Begin At Wesleyan Methodist

Miss Homesley, 91, Laid To Last Rest

Miss Texas Homesley, 91, died Monday morning at 9:30 at her home on South Pink Street. Miss Homesley had been in declining health for several years. She was the last of her immediate family, and a sister of A. B. Homesley who died several months ago.

Miss Homesley was born in Cleveland county July 24, 1863, a daughter of the late Benjamin S. Homesley and Mary Kisdale Homesley. She moved to Cherryville when about three or four years of age and had made her home in the same house since. She joined the Mount Zion Baptist Church in early girlhood and in later years moved her membership to the First Baptist Church in Cherryville where she remained a faithful member until her death.

Funeral services were held at the graveside on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. George L. Riddle, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial was made in the family plot in Mount Zion cemetery. Funeral arrangements were carried out according to Miss Homesley's wishes, as she still believed in the old time way.

Southern Bell Sues CIO For 5 Million

Southern Bell filed a $5,000,000 damage suit today against the Communications Workers of America (CWA), charging the Union with a "Pattern of Violence" during the recent strike designed to destroy telephone facilities and interfere with Communication Service to the public in the nine States served by the company. The four-count suit, filed in the Davidson (Nashville, Tenn.) County Circuit Court said the OWA's "Ultimate Intent" was to force Southern Bell "to agree to the demands which the... Union was making upon" the company. Southern Bell asked that the suit be heard by a jury. The Union, its "members and others" joined and "unlawful combination and conspiracy" to damage Southern Bell property and to shut down its telephone exchanges, the suit alleged. Acts of damage specifically set out in the complaint and intended to interrupt telephone service were "directed, procured, instigated and incited by the defendant union", according to the suit. It said the Union "embarked on a program of wanton, willful and malicious misconduct and property damage" including the use of dynamite. (Continued on Page 4)

Lewis Ray Beam To Graduate At UNC

Lewis Ray Beam, son of Mrs. Buford R. Beam and the late Mr. Beam, will graduate from the University of North Carolina on June 6, 1955, with a B. S. Degree in Medicine. A member of Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Fraternity, he is presently enrolled in the University School of Medicine and will receive his M.D. Degree in three years.

Methodist Missionary To Preach At First Methodist Sunday

The Reverend Lawrence Hsu (pronounced "Shue") from Shanghai, China, will be the preacher at the eleven o'clock service Sunday at the First Methodist Church. Mr. Hsu was professor of English in St. John's University in Shanghai for two years. He came to know first hand the Communist methods in persecution and execution of their enemies and in clamping their rigid dictatorship on China. He escaped from Communist Controlled China and through the United States State Department received a scholarship in America in journalism. Later he came to the decision that the best way to combat Communism was through the Christian ministry. He transferred to Drew Theological Seminary and has now completed his work there and will soon return to Formosa to begin work in the church.

Pool Opened Today Dan Ginn Lifeguard

Things are beginning to get into swing for the summer activity at the Carlton Center. A full program of events have been planned and everyone should have fun.

Tennis at the present holds the spotlight, along with Larry Beal's adult baseball team. A tennis tournament will be held Thursday and Friday while the baseball team which has won over Shelby Mills 4 to 0 will play home games on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 6:00 P. M.

The pool officially opened June 1st and is always a thrill for everyone. A class for non-swimmers will be held beginning on June 8th. Water games, swimming and diving contests are always met with enthusiasm. There will be midget baseball for boys up to 12 years of age. There will be two clubs, the Cardinals and Bluebirds, which will compete against each other twice each week. Arrangements are also being made for intermediate baseball.

A Tot Club will be held under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Sneed. Members of this club learn to draw, color, and make things of interest. Mrs. Dennis Beam will be volunteer assistant in this department.

A tour to New York City, under the direction of Mrs. Victor Stroup, will begin on June 25th. There will be thirty-five girls in this party.

In addition to the summer activities there will be ping pong, croquet, horseshoe, quiet games and games of low organization. Arts and crafts are always met with much interest. Participants should, during the summer months, have fun, keep fit and relax.

As for the last few summers Sherrill Cranford is in charge of boy's activities and all athletes. We are especially proud of Mr. Larry Beam's interest in the adult baseball team.
