Jack Knell Attends Meeting In Colorado

CHARLOTTE — Jack Knell, News director for WBT Radio and WBT Television, attended the annual meeting of the Radio and Television News Directors Association in Denver, Colorado, November 17-19.

The meeting featured workshop discussions of radio and television news and talks by General Huber Harmon, head of the new Air Force Academy; Val Peterson, Civil Defense Director; and John Daly, vice president in charge of news for the American Broadcasting Company.

Knell is president of the North Carolina Associated Press Broadcasters and is a member of the board of directors of the National Associated Press Broadcasters.

Fellowship Breakfast

Beginning next Monday, December 5, at 7 a. m., in the dining room at Home Folks Cafe and continuing every Monday thereafter, a dutch fellowship breakfast will be held for any and all men who care to attend. There will be no organization, no dues, no projects—just fellowship, closing with a meditation and prayer. The whole idea is spiritual fellowship. You are Welcome!

Bethany Class Meeting Monday

Misses Ruth and Ethel Watterson were hostesses at the November meeting of the Bethany Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church on Monday night at the church.

Mrs. Hilliard Lackey, class president, called the meeting to order and gave a very inspiring message, "What Is There To Be Thankful For" and read the 67th Psalm. Miss Maude Newton led the devotion.

During the business session, plans were collected. Plans were made to send cheer to the sick during the Christmas season. Plans were also made for the annual Christmas party on Saturday, December 17th, at 7 P. M. Mrs. Gus Helms and Miss Maude Newton will be hostesses.

During the social hour games, under the direction of Ruth Helms were enjoyed.

Delicious refreshments consisting of angel food cake, fruit salad, potato chips, pickles and coffee were served to the following: Mesdames Lib Lackey, Thelma Childers, Ethel Black, Marie Dellinger, Mae Correll, Mildred Black, Ruth Helms, Jim Walker, Ruth Watterson and Maude Newton, teacher.

CORRECTION

At the annual community Thanksgiving Service, I made an error about the flower decorations. I should have thanked the Village Garden Club for the lovely flowers and the Junior Woman's Club for telephoning folks about the service. I regret the error.

News From Library

During Book Week the three third grades from East Elementary School visited the Library. These were the grades of Mrs. Crocker, Mrs. Larson, and Mrs. Crocker.

Some of the children had never before been in a Library, and had many questions to ask. A number of them returned later in the week and obtained Borrowers cards.

Darius Carpenter has donated a juvenile book, "A Book of Heroes" to the Library. Mrs. James Putnam also has given several Zane Grey books and two Historical novels.

Funeral Services Mrs. J. T. Houser

Funeral services for Mrs. J. T. Houser were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from David's Chapel Methodist Church in Cleveland county. Mrs. Houser, 79, of Lawndale, Route 2, died in the Shelby Hospital Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock following a three-week illness. Rev. W. H. Yorkley and Rev. J. C. Swain officiated. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

She was first married to Robert Williams and from this union was one son, Sam Williams, Lawndale, Route 2, who survives. Also surviving are the following step-children from her marriage to Mr. Houser who preceded her in death: Mrs. John Leonhardt, Chase City, Va., Mrs. W. F. Childers, Bartow, Fla., Mrs. Clyde Dixon, Mrs. Atlas Tillman of Shelby, Mrs. W. P. Styers, Mrs. Guy Beam, Cherryville, Mrs. Ray Wehnt, Cherryville, Route, D. C. Houser and Ferd Houser of Vale, Route 2.

APRECIATION

I'd like to take this means of expressing my sincerest thanks and deepest appreciation to the people who presented me with a lovely television set last week.

You will never know what it does and will continue to mean to me. The painful hours will pass more quickly, it will help me see what's going on in the outside world, for my world now is largely my room, and I feel that I have the knowledge that there are people who still care, and because they care they share.

I shall ever be grateful to each of you for this generous gift, and shall ask the Heavenly Father to bless you as you have blessed and brightened my life. As the Christmas season approaches, let me say it again in the words of Tiny Tim, "God bless every one!" is my prayer.

Grateful,
INEZ MCENTIRE
