Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl in the second grade. I try hard to make good grades. I love my teacher very much. I want you to bring me a tiny tear doll and a surprise toy. Some candy, fruit and nuts. Don't forget the other girls and boys.

Your friend,
Carol Hallman.

Dear Santa Claus: My name is Cindy Sabettie. I am four years old. I live at 412 North Pine Street across from Mrs. Baber's house. I waved at you today at the pretty parade.

I eat my food and drink my milk every day. I go to Sunday School every Sunday. I am quiet in church. I am going to take my offering to Sunbeams for boys and girls for Jesus.

Please bring me a thing to make pies with, a little stove with pots and pans and a little typewriter with money in it so I can play store. Also bring a new red dress for my Red Riding Hood doll.

Remember to come to my house and to Jennie Lynn's house and all the other children's houses.

Bye, Cindy Sabettie.

Dear Santa Claus: My name is Kathie Jane Lackey. I am four years old. I have been a good little girl. Please bring me a doll with clothes and a crib, a pink baton, a nice tea set and a surprise. Please be nice to the other little boys and girls.

Kathleen Ragan Circle Meeting

The Kathleen Ragan Circle of St. John's Lutheran Church met Monday night, December 5th, at the home of Miss Sue Jenks.

Mrs. J. Garland Sherrill was program leader for the night. The group sang, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear". Responsive reading and prayer followed. A Christmas play entitled, "What Do the Christmas Carols Say" by Mrs. Walter J. Knutson was then presented. Characters in the play were:

Narrator, Mrs. Ben Dellinger; Mrs. A. Mrs. J. Garland Sherrill; Karen, the child, Judy Fitzhugh; Angel, Mrs. Bill Black; Mary, Miss Sara Froneberger; Joseph, Miss Sue Jenks; Two Shepherds, Mrs. Dwight Jenks, Mrs. Bill Fitzhugh; Three Wise Men, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Bill George and Mrs. Dave Farris.

The program was closed with the singing of "Joy To The World" by the group.

Mrs. Ben Dellinger, chairman, conducted the business session of the meeting. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. The treasurer gave her report and received the offering for the night. Mrs. J. M. Froneberger, Sr., was welcomed as a new member.

Miss Jenks served delicious refreshments to the following members: Mesdames Bill Black, D. O. Rudisill, Bill George, J. Garland Sherrill, W. P. Fitzhugh, J. Ben Dellinger, W. G. Cobb, Dwight Jenks, Dave Farris, Marshall Agner, John Moore, Misses Sara Froneberger, Ruby Moore and Judy Fitzhugh.

David M. Black Weds Florida Girl

David Morrison Black, Cherryville native who is now working in Fort Meade, Fla., took a Fort Meade girl, Miss Helen Pauline Crawford, for his bride Wednesday afternoon in a 5 o'clock ceremony in Port Meade Presbyterian Church. The double ring ritual was read for the couple by the church's minister, the Rev. I. D. Borders.

Clayton Curtis played the organ and Mrs. Charles Harrison was vocalist. Both are of Fort Meade.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert Bruce Crawford, of Fort Meade, the bride wore a street-length dress of blue lace, highlighted with pearl embroidery and topped with fitted jacket. She wore a pink hat with flirtation veil and carried a white orchid surrounded by pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. David R. Varn, Jr., of Fort Meade, who attended the bride as matron of honor, wore a princess style dress of raw silver slate with matching hat and carried a bouquet of happiness roses.

Forrest N. McCullers was Mr. Black's best man and Thomas A. Cochran and Charles S. Harrison were ushers. All three are of Fort Meade.

Mrs. Black is a daughter of Mrs. Robert Bruce Crawford, Sr., of Fort Meade and the late Mr. Crawford.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Black of Cherryville. He is employed as area physical education director of the Fort Meade Public Schools. He and his bride will continue to reside in Fort Meade.

CLARA SULLIVAN CIRCLE MEETING

Mrs. W. B. Rhyne and Mrs. Judson Black were joint hostesses to the members of the Clara Sullivan Circle of St. John's Lutheran Church Monday night, December 5th, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the former.

The meeting was called to order by the Circle Chairman, Miss Marie Huss. Mrs. George Lohr had charge of the program. The topic was, "What Do the Christmas Carols Say" Mrs. Lohr read the scripture and the group sang, "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear." The devotion period was closed with prayer by the leader.

The program was given as a play in which the Christmas Story was retold. The Manger Scene was arranged on a table and the miniature figures were used in depicting the story. Those assisting Mrs. Lohr in presenting the program were: Mesdames Clyde Brown, Mark Dixon, Roy Houser, Stewart Shumate and Miss Marie Huss. In the conclusion of the hymn, "Joy To The World" was sung.

The chairman conducted the business session. A report on the Thank Offering was made. Mrs. Roy Houser, was appointed as chairman on the bereavement committee from the Circle during the months of January and February. Mrs. Houser conducted a short planning session at which time she secured the names of those who could be called upon for services in time of need. Mrs. Bill Houser reported on the Reading Course. Coupons were discussed and plans for the General Clean-up Day were made. Miss Marie Huss and Mrs. Stewart Shumate, committee on the T. B. patient, brought a pretty Christmas wrapped package for the patient. The chairman passed out attractive book markers from the General President, Mrs. D. R. Mauney, Jr.

The meeting was closed with the Missionary Benediction.

During the social hour the hostesses served delightful refreshments carrying out the Christmas motif. Those present were: Mesdames George Lohr, W. B. Rhyne, Stewart Shumate, Mark Dixon, Fred K. Houser, Bill Houser, Roy Houser, Clyde Brown, Carlyle Summer and Miss Marie Huss.

Baptist Missionary Society Meets

Mrs. W. N. Williams presided over the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church on Monday evening, December 5th, from seven till eight o'clock. Seventy-two women of the church gathered for an hour of inspiration and fellowship. The Woman's Hymn followed by the watchword: "All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord." After the opening prayer, led by Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Ralph Hoyle read the minutes of the previous meeting and Mrs. Johnny Mosteller gave the treasurer's report and announced that $65.00 had been contributed to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering to date and other contributions were still coming in.

High School PTA Met Thursday

The Cherryville High School Parent-Teacher Association met on Thursday, December 1, at 7:30 in the evening. Mrs. R. J. Allran and Mrs. Roy Carpenter, members of the Hospitality Committee, welcomed the members as they entered the high school building, and directed them to the Home Economics Department where the meeting was held.

The officers for this year were installed by Superintendent F. L. Larson who used the standard and impressive installation service. These officers are as follows: Mr. Stewart Shumate, president; Mr. N. S. Cranford, first vice president; Mrs. J. A. Blackwelder, second vice president; Mrs. Keith Long, secretary; and Mr. Paul Crocker, treasurer. Mr. Larson spoke briefly on the importance and significance of parent-teacher cooperation.

Mr. Shumate introduced Barbara Tweed, a sophomore, to lead in devotions. During the business meeting a number of items of business were discussed and approved. Hospitality, Program, Publicity and Publications Committees were appointed by the president. A report of proceeds from the Halloween Carnival was given. The group discussed worthwhile projects for which this money might be used and it was agreed that the group would purchase a new duplicator for the high school office and a banquet setting consisting of a table cloth, punch bowl, and candlesticks for the Home Economics Department. The groups voted to award a prize of $5 to the Home Room having the largest percentage of parents present at each meeting. Mrs. Sappenfield's section of the Junior Class won the award this month.

Mr. Cranford, Program Chairman, opened the program by leading in group singing. He then presented Miss Betty Shealy who introduced several students from her classes. Varion White, Catherine Duncan and Beatrice Jenkins told of the work being done by the first, second and third year Home Economics Classes. Mary Frances Carpenter, Shirley Towery and Patricia Sigmon modeled outfits which they had made in their class work.

The group prayed together the Lord's Prayer and adjourned to enjoy a period of fellowship with refreshments.
