

Hollingsworth - Large Vows Spoken In Home Ceremony

Rocky Mount, Dec. 25—

At five-thirty Christmas afternoon the marriage of Miss Norma Doris Large and Harry DeWitt Hollingsworth of Ahoskie, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hollingsworth of Goldsboro, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. Lee Large, on Sycamore street in the presence of members of the families and a few friends.

The ceremony, marked with dignity and simplicity, was performed before an improvised altar in the living room with John Bonner, priest in charge of St. Thomas' Episcopal church in Ahoskie, officiating at the double ring ritual.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums were arranged in front of a mass of ferns and floor candelabra bearing white candles at the improvised altar.

Before the vows were spoken a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Thomas B. Suiter, pianist. Included in the selections were "Meditation" from Thais, Chopin's Prelude, opus 28, "Humoresque" and "O Perfect Love" which was played during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride entered the living room with her father by whom she was given in marriage. Her dress was of white taffeta fashioned with long sleeves and a full skirt. A ruffle of pleating of the same material outlined the sleeves at the hand and the heart shaped neck, and a row of small covered buttons extended from the neckline to the waist. She wore a halo of orange blossoms from which fell a fingertip length veil of illusion and she carried an orchid on a prayer book. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Janet Large, maid of honor, was her sister's only attendant. She wore a dress of pale blue marquisette embroidered with white flowers styled on princess lines with a gathered skirt and short full sleeves. Her halo was of matching blue net and she carried a nosegay of pink roses showered with ribbons.

Dr. J. B. Brown of Ahoskie attended the bridegroom as best man.

Immediately following the wedding a buffet supper was given by Dr. and Mrs. Large honoring the bridal party, relatives and out-of-town guests.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. W. L. Guthrie, Mrs. John B. Exum and Mrs. I. E. Ready, and Mrs. J. T. Tyree received guests at the front door.

For the occasion Mrs. Large was wearing a black crepe dress with a small black hat and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Hollingsworth chose for her son's wedding a blue crepe dress and a cerise hat trimmed in a veil and her corsage was also of gardenias.

Mrs. Hollingsworth was attired in an ivory colored wool dress with which she wore a black Chesterfield coat and small hat when she and Mr. Hollingsworth left after the buffet supper for a wedding trip in North Carolina.

After her graduation from the Rocky Mount high school the bride graduated from Saint Mary's school in Raleigh and from the Woman's college at the University of North Carolina. For the past year and a half she has been a member of the high school faculty in Ahoskie.

Mr. Hollingsworth is a graduate of the Goldsboro high school and also the University of North Carolina. He is editor of The Hertford County Herald in Ahoskie where the couple will make their residence.

Winton Club Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Winton Womans Club was held on December 17, at the Community Building, with Mrs. John A. Shaw, president, presiding.

The building was decorated with a lighted Christmas tree, holly and pine. The business meeting was dispensed with, and the program was turned over to Mrs. John Richard Jordan, who played and led the club in singing Christmas Carols. A Christmas reading was presented by Miss Gwendolyn P. Hawks. Mrs. Shaw closed the meeting with a wish that next Christmas be a brighter, happier Christmas for all, and that the families of those present might again be united at Christmas tide.

Mrs. Shaw played Santa Claus at the club tree.

The hostesses for the evening, Mrs. T. D. Northcott, Mrs. Kate Griffin, Mrs. Willie Hill, and Mrs. Helene Jordan served refreshments to the club members and visitors present. The meeting adjourned to meet again January 7, 1944.

Increase

Oilseed Order Number 4 has been amended by the War Food Administrator to permit an increase in the original 700,000 tons of farmers' stock peanuts for cleaning and shelling to take care of the tonnage of No. 2 shelled peanuts which may be authorized by the Commodity Credit Corporation for crushing for oil.

CCC has offered contracts to crushers to purchase for the account of CCC No. 2 shelled peanuts from shellers; the purpose of such contracts being to permit the crushing of an inferior grade of peanuts in order that better grades may be channeled to the edible trade, E. M. Johnson, manager of the GPC said.
