

Home Agent's Column

By ONA PATTERSON

Mrs. C. H. Carter, war service chairman for the county, turned in 13 pounds of waste grease and two pounds of tin cans during the past week. This is the highest record for any one person to turn in this month in the waste grease salvage.

Mrs. I. B. Speight of Corapeake, has turned in more tin cans to date than anyone in the county.

Mrs. Oscar Riddick, war service chairman, for the Hobbsville club has recorded all the waste grease, tin cans, and paper collected by the club; all the red Cross garments made and an open her note book and show you one of the finest records made thus far. Mrs. D. A. Willey, chairman for Gates club, is another who has a splendid record and like Mrs. Riddick she takes the lead by contributing these items necessary for the war effort herself.

Mrs. J. B. Whitehurst, Drum Hill, is another chairman who is doing a good piece of work.

Miss Mildred Turner, of Roduco, has been very efficient along this line. In case you don't know who the war service chairman is in your community—note the list below. These women deserve a lot of credit for taking the responsibility of this important work so vital to the war effort:

Ariel, Mrs. Robert Felton; Carter, Mrs. C. H. Carter; Corapeake, Mrs. Elton Taylor; Eure, Mrs. Ernest Smith; Gates, Mrs. D. A. Willey; Gatesville, Mrs. John Glenn; Hazelton, Mrs. J. B. Whitehurst; Hobbsville, Mrs. Oscar Riddick; Middle Swamp, Mrs. M. L. Piland; Roduco, Miss Mildred Turner; Sandy Cross, Mrs. Frank Nixon; Sunbury, Mrs. A. V. Hofler; Trotville, Mrs. Fletcher Riddick; Zion, Mrs. Darlie Bunch.

The Older Youth Club will have their annual picnic at Nags Head on Saturday, August 12. Each Older Youth member has the privilege of inviting a friend to go. Transportation will be furnished by M. B. Johnson's bus for $1.25 per person. Plans have been made by the picnic committee to leave the agricultural building, Gatesville, promptly at 7 o'clock on Saturday morning, August 12.

Here's a recipe for delicious "Bread and Butter Pickle". Clip it for your file.

30 cucumbers (1 inch in diameter).

10 onions (medium).
4 tablespoons salt.

Slice cucumbers and onions, sprinkle with salt. Let stand one hour. Drain in a cheese cloth bag. Make a spiced vinegar using the following ingredients.

5 cups vinegar.
2 teaspoons celery seed.
2 teaspoons ground ginger.
4 cups sugar.
1 teaspoon tumeric.
2 teaspoons white mustard seed.

Let spiced vinegar come to a boil; add cucumbers and onions and bring to boiling point. Simmer for ten minutes. Seal in sterilized jars.

Raleigh B. Smith In Ordnance Group

AFHQ, Mediterranean Theater.—In the thousands of acres comprising the domain of a North African Ordnance battalion, are shells of every caliber from a 22 practice-firing to a 240-millimeter howitzer shell—a big, mean-looking piece of ammunition with a snub nose and no features of beauty for the enemy. All this ammunition is carefully stored in bays protected from the elements to keep them in tip-top shape.

Commanded by Major Thomas B. Lynch of San Francisco, Calif., there is a large concentration of explosives in the dumps of this battalion. Major

Lynch states that "there's very small chance of even one small shell exploding the way the men handle that ammo. They treat it lovingly and carefully so that it will reach the front in A-1 condition to give Jerry nightmares."

The roster of this battalion includes Sgt. Raleigh B. Smith of Ahoskie, colored, son of Dempsey P. Smith of C. C. Road.

Employers Neglect To Prepare Forms

A number of employers in the Northeastern area have failed to prepare Form WMC-NC-106 and mail them to the U. S. Employment Service Offices, stated P. B. Pollock, area director of the War Manpower Commission. These forms indicate employment as of March 1, April 1, and May 1, 1944, and the hires and separations during April, 1944.

The responsibility of forwarding this information to the Employment Service Offices definitely belongs to the employer, and failure to do so will prevent the establishment of a ceiling for his business, thus restricting him from hiring any additional workers, Mr. Pollock said. The area director urged employers to mail these forms so that their ceilings may be recommended to the Manpower Priorities Committee which meets in the area office in Washington next week.
