NEED FEED WHEAT?

A car of feed wheat containing 1500 bushels was unloaded at Gates Monday and Tuesday of this week by 30 farmers for feeding of hogs and poultry. The wheat, which comes in bulk from the mid-west now costs $1.37 a bushel at the delivery point for orders of 100 bushels or more; or $1.40 for orders less than 100 bushels.

The Gates County AAA committee, J. C. Vann, chairman; T. B. Parker and T. J. Stallings, authorizes the secretary, Mrs. Mildred Hill, to order the wheat when a car load is requested by our farmers.

Since last September 12 car loads, approximately 20,000 bushels, have been unloaded at Gates and Roduco. Our 13th car is being made up now, for delivery in November. Send yours in immediately if you need a good feed to make your corn last longer.

SEVEN LOCKS OF LINT

In a comparatively recent issue of The Index there was an account in this column stating that W. H. (William) Lassiter of near Sunbury had found a boll of cotton with six locks—a most unusual find we'll admit. Now comes along another cotton grower and close observer, Herbert C. Hudgins, of the Zion neighborhood showing a 7-lock cotton boll, a rare find indeed. Yes, sir, there are seven completed and distinct parts composing the boll. The variety of cotton is not known but it is presumably Coker 100.

PREPARING FOR THANKSGIVING

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. (Haywood) Eunch of Selwyn have a nice lot of turkeys, about 80, all of which were raised with turkey hens. If all goes well they'll be just right at Thanksgiving and Christmas time. The entire lot was vaccinated 10 days ago for sorehead.

Fresh Cranberries Under Price Ceiling

Fresh Cranberries for home consumption have been brought under price control at all levels from the country shipper through the retail seller.

Under the new ceiling prices the highest retail price for cranberries is expected to be about 41 cents per pound. The season average return to growers will be about $24.23 per 100-pound barrel.
