Miss Maryvonne Hobbs Bride Of Carlton Brinkley

Hobbsville. — The marriage of Miss Maryvonne Hobbs, of Suffolk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ephriam Jackson Hobbs, of Hobbsville, to Carlton Clarence Brinkley, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brinkley, of Nansemond county, was solemnized Saturday evening at the West End Baptist Church in Suffolk.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of embroidered organza over taffeta, made with a sweetheart neckline edged with ruffles of the same material. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, gardenias and baby's breath, made over a handkerchief of net and tatting.

Miss Cora Mae Bagley, of Norfolk, and Miss Mary Ida Brinkley, sister of the groom, were maids of honor.

Mrs. Elbert Womble, of Suffolk, sister of the bride, served as mistress of ceremonies.

The bridegroom had for his best man, Howard Merritt, USNR, and ushers were Elbert Womble and Carl Adams, brothers-in-law, of the bride, and Frank Rountree, of Corapeake, and Ryland Brinkley, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Hobbs, mother of the bride was dressed in a gown of black and white with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias and Mrs. Brinkley, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in black and also wore gardenias.

Reception Held

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Womble and Captain and Mrs. J. C. Harry, Jr., at the home of Captain and Mrs. Harry on North Broad street.

Immediately after the recep-

COTTON LOVELINESS.— Firmly established as a leader in the fashion field, cottons today go everywhere with equal poise. Witness this stunning creation in cotton organdy, designed by Rose Barrack. For a simple dinner dress, it's excellent; for the informal June bride, it's ideal.

tion Mr. and Mrs. Brinkley left on a northern wedding trip and on their return will reside in South Norfolk.
