We, the members of the W. S. C. S., wish to pay tribute to the memory of Mrs. Nannie Sewell Costen, whose life of devotion to her society and church was an inspiration to us all. We shall miss her presence among us, but her influence will continue to live on and on. Therefore, we offer the following resolutions: First: That we be reconciled to God's will in taking away one, whose life was true and loyal to all that is good.

Second: That we are thankful for her contribution to the happiness and welfare of her community and church.

Third: That we extend to the relatives our heartfelt sympathy.

Fourth: That copies of these resolutions be sent to the Gates County Index, the North Carolina Christian Advocate and one copy be recorded in the minutes of our society.

Mitchell, Lewis Speak At Fair

The Gates County Agricultural and Industrial Fair was held at the Gates Training School, Sunbury, on November 29. Although it was not attended largely by farmers, it was considered a good start after a period of three years. Interesting addresses were made by J. W. Mitchell, U. S. field agent and J. W. Lewis, director of Trades and Industries at Hampton Institute, Va. Both speakers urged the farmers and young people to make the best of every opportunity and take a full share in helping to develop the resources which are at hand. The young people were especially urged to prepare themselves for the task which will lie ahead of them in the future.

Hobbsville Club Reports

Among the interesting events at the fair was a report made by the Hobbsville 4-H club. The report follows: "We have an enrollment of 22 members. We selected 'Improvement of Health Conditions in our Community' for 1945. During this year two new pit toilets were built; several repaired. Most of the families bought new screen doors and windows, or repaired their old ones. Three houses were painted." Other accomplishments made were: Our judging team won first place in the county judging contest. We produced three pigs weighing between 185 and 200 pounds; 16 barrels of corn; 155 chickens weighing from 2 1/2 to 4 pounds; 3 bushels of pepper; 180 pounds of cabbage; 70 bushels of potatoes; 3 bushels of onions; 2 bushels of lima beans; one bushel of carrots; one bushel string beans and canned 874 quarts of fruits and vegetables."

Patricia Payne of the Reid's Grove club gave a report of her poultry project which showed that she had done well with her chickens.

The leaders of the Hobbsville club are Mrs. Helen M. Shannon and N. L. Nowell.

Many Prizes Awarded

Quite a number of interesting exhibits were shown for which prizes were awarded. Business organizations, merchants and friends of the county donated the prizes to the fair. Persons winning first prizes are as follows: peanuts, J. Z. Booker; corn, William Powell; second prize, J. A. Jones; sweet potatoes, J. A. Jones; white potatoes, Mrs. James Paye; turnips, Mrs. Annie Jones; kale, Mrs. Lillie Barham and Mrs. James Paye; beets, Mrs. W. T. Piland; peaches, Mrs. William Powell; canned meat, Mrs. W. T. Piland; pickle, Mrs. H. L. Mitchell; butter, Mrs. H. L. Mitchell; chickens, Patricia Payne; butterbeans, Mrs. H. L. Mitchell; cake, rolls and pie, Electra Riddick; second prize cake, Mrs. Lillie Barham; table cover, Mrs. H. L. Mitchell; table cloth, Mrs. E. R. Costen; centerpiece, Mrs. Tommie Lassiter; pot holders, Barbara Payne. The articles at the fair were judged by Miss Ona Patterson, home demonstration agent, and John W. Mitchell.

A cattle show was planned for the fair as a special feature, but due to the lack of transportation facilities and peanut picking it was not carried out. It is hoped that this can be held later.
