Miss Rountree Is Married To Jack G. Snipes

Portsmouth. — Miss Virginia Leigh Rountree, of Portsmouth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sornie Ralph Rountree, of Gatesville, was married Friday afternoon to Jack Grier Snipes, of Portsmouth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bingham Snipes, of Carthage. The wedding took place at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon W. Piland, in Westhaven, Portsmouth, with the Rev. R. Carter Ransome, pastor of the Westhaven Baptist Church, officiating at the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with ivy, pine, white gladioli, snapdragons and lighted candles and Professor A. J. Lancaster played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John M. Rountree, of Gatesville. She wore a semi-formal wedding gown of white brocade damask, made with sweetheart neckline, bracelet, length sleeves, midriff bodice, and a very full skirt. Her finger tip veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a shower nosegay of white carnations and sweet peas.

Mrs. Carmen R. Hilton, of Norfolk, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a gown of heaven blue faille silk and net, made with a yoke of net edged with ruffling forming a V-neckline, bodice, and bouffant skirt of net with a flounce of net ruffling. She carried a nosegay of mixed Spring flowers, with an arrangement of matching flowers in her hair.

Charles Bingham Snipes, of Cathage, was his brother's best man.

Miss Helen M. Rountree, of Gatesville, sister of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies.

A reception for relatives and friends followed the ceremony and later the couple left for a southern wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside at 4222 County Street, Portsmouth. The bride wore for traveling a dressmaker suit of soldier blue gabardine with black accessories, and a corsage of gardenias.

Rev. and Mrs. T. Sloane Guy, Jr., and children of Richmond are visiting Rev. and Mrs. T. Sloane Guy, Sr.

Stallings-Smith Wedding Held

Gatesville.—A marriage of interest was solemnized February 28 at the Baptist pastorage in Gatesville, when Miss Mildred L. Stallings, daughter of the late Mr. Athlen and Sallie Stallings of Hobbsville, became the bride of Carlton E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Smith of Belvidere.

Rev. I. Sloane Guy, Sr., pastor of the bride officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in a blue ensemble with black accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will make their home at Hobbsville.
