Miss Burger Wed To Cecil G. Hayes

Washington.—The Church of the Pilgrims in Washington, D. C., was the scene of a wedding on February 23 when Miss Hazel Lee Burger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price Burger of Clinton Forge, Va., became the bride of Cecil Garland Hayes of Washington, D. C. (formerly of Gates, N. C.)

The Rev. Andrew R. Bird, pastor of the church, officiated before the altar which was decorated with palms and bouquets of mixed flowers. The traditional wedding march was offered by Mr. William R. Johnson of Washington, who also accompanied Mrs. Christine Shipman of Fairfax, Va., when she sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning," preceding the marriage ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother, Claude E. Burger of Clinton Forge. She wore a gown of ivory satin, with a fitted bodice and a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a bandeau of seed pearls, corresponding with the pearls of her gown. She carried a white satin prayer book with a white orchid and shower.

Miss Eloise Hayes, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant and she was attired in a full length gown of pink tulle and net with matching head-dress, and her bouquet was roses. Mr. Cranley Power, of Norfolk, Va., served as the groom's best man. The ushers were Commander John Aldrich (USN) and Lt. Commander E. L. Prom (USNR), both of Washington.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short honeymoon and are now at home in Washington.
