SOCIETY

Miss Langston Nuptials Held

Miss Willie Kathryn Langston, daughter of Mrs. Malcolm Eugene Langston, of Raleigh, and the late Sheriff Langston of Gates county, became the bride of William Henry Goodman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Goodman of Gates, Saturday, August 10, at five o'clock.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. A. J. Hobbs, pastor of the Edenton street Methodist church.

Miss Camille Jernigan of Raleigh presented before the ceremony a musical program, using Claire de Lune during the ceremony. Miss Peggy Trotter of Raleigh, accompanied by Miss Jernigan, sang "Love Everlasting" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, William Eugene Langston, of Craddock, Va., wore a floor-length gown of marquette over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, and net yoke with long embroidered sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was fastened to a bonnet trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book, which was her maternal grandmother's, topped with orchids and stephanosis.

Miss Dorothy Anne Langston, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a blue gown of French lace bodice with full marquette skirt over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers and wore a halo of matching flowers.

Robert Goodman, of Gates, was his brother's best man.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of white crepe with a shoulder corsage of talisman roses. The mother of the groom wore a gown of aqua crepe with a shoulder corsage of talisman roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the mother of the bride entertained with a reception for the bridal party and the immediate families.

After the reception Mr. and MRS. WILLIAM HENRY GOODMAN, JR., who before her marriage Saturday, August 10, was Miss Willie Kathryn Langston, daughter of Mrs. Malcolm Eugene Langston, of Raleigh, and the late Sheriff Langston, of Gates county.

Mrs. Goodman left for a western trip. For traveling the bride wore a white Palm Beach suit with brown snakeskin accessories and a corsage of orchids.

The bride attended Norfolk Business college and is a graduate of Harbinger's Business school. Prior to her marriage she was employed in the First National Exchange Bank of Roanoke, Va.

The groom attended Oak Ridge Military Institute before entering the Army Air Corps. He served overseas 20 months as first lieutenant and is now stationed at Pope Field, N. C.

You will consider it a treat to visit our store, to examine the many different departments, it may be sweaters you're interested in, or lingerie, or millinery, or a 2-, 3-, 4- or 5-skin fur scarf. It might be a suit or a new coat or hosiery, or it might be a skirt, a blouse or a dickey, or a fine piece of costume jewelry, or yes, even a Blue-White diamond ring. This Jewelry Department is our newest addition, and you'll be amazed at the low prices, and quality of our stock. Above all, you'll wonder at the selections and the labels, all nationally known, and nationally recognized. Many famous labels are confined to our store only, simply because it's the "Biggest thing in town". It is truly the economy store for the well dressed woman of this shopping area. Cash,—Charge,—lay-away,—or weekly or monthly payments. If it can't be found at Jaffe's it isn't in town.
