

Colerain Drops Sunbury in Two Saturday Tilts

In a doubleheader at Colerain, Saturday, the home team won both games over Sunbury to drop the latter nine into last place in the league standing. The first game was an 8 to 2 victory for Colerain and the final tilt ended 7 to 4 in their favor.

White took the mound for Colerain in the opening game and held Sunbury to four singles while Colerain batters pounded out 14 hits off Powell of Sunbury. The game was a close contest with the score tied at two apiece until the eighth when Colerain went on a hitting spree and wound up six runs to the good. Powell with two safeties for three trips led for Sunbury while Williford with a single and two doubles for four times up took the hitting honors for Colerain.

In the second game, Colerain took the lead from the beginning with four runs in the first frame and an additional one coming in the second. Sunbury scored twice in the fourth as did Colerain to maintain a five run lead. In the sixth, Sunbury again pushed across two runs but failed to score again during the game. Corbett with two singles for three attempts led for Sunbury with Sharpe's triples in three trips leading for Colerain.

Reports on the games played between Sunbury and Colerain Sunday, have not yet been received and have not been considered in figuring the league standings.

Ahoskie Gains Even Split With Harrellsville

Harrellsville, playing on their home grounds, Saturday, nosed out Ahoskie 4 to 3 only to be defeated Sunday, at Ahoskie, 5 to 2. Fairless was credited with the win Saturday to earn his fourth victory in five starts.

In the first game, both teams were scoreless until the third when Harrellsville capitalized on three Ahoskie errors and hits by Fairless, H. Holloman, Newborn and Cornett to score four runs. In the fourth frame, Ahoskie scored once on hits by Callis, Umphlett and Grimes. Neither team scored again until the ninth when Ahoskie gained two through having a man on when Grimes pounded out the only homer of the game. While Ahoskie scored only three runs, they took 10 hits from Fairless while Barnes limited Harrellsville batters to eight safeties.

On Sunday, Ahoskie atoned for their defeat and handed L. Holloman his first loss.

Harrellsville took an early lead by virtue of hits by Holloman and Newborn. Ahoskie came up from behind in the third to score two runs and gain a one-run lead. In the fifth, Ahoskie increased this margin by three singles and a triple by Callis to bring three runners across the plate.

In the ninth frame, Harrellsville pushed one run across on a triple and a fielder's choice.

Barnes, hurling for Ahoskie, allowed but seven hits while L. Holloman and C. Holloman gave up 13 hits. Callis with a single, a double and a triple and Barnes with two singles and a double led the attack.

Gates Takes Two From Gatesville To Gain Lead

Gates jumped to first place in the league this weekend by virtue of two wins over Gatesville. On Saturday, Gates took the tilt 4 to 3 pounding on Mullen, the Gatesville pitcher, for 15 hits. Gatesville managed to stretch five hits into three runs. L. Hayes with four safeties for six trips to the plate led the attack for Gates.

Gatesville took the lead in the first frame when Hobbs and Greene scored on an error on Baines' roller to third base. Gates evened the score in the third with a series of singles by Hayes, Butler, Lawrence and Taylor. Both teams added a run in the eighth and the game went into the tenth inning tied up at three apiece. Gatesville was held scoreless in the top half of the tenth while Gates went on to win on singles from Pierce, D. Horton and L. Hayes.

On Sunday, Gatesville again got off to an early lead with three runs scored in the first and one added in the second frame. Gates evened things up in the third inning only to drop back again as Gatesville brought in two more runs in the fourth.

The league leaders stayed one run behind during the next three innings but rallied in the eighth to add three runs in that frame and three more in the ninth. Gatesville scored twice in the eighth but were held scoreless in the ninth and the game went to Gates by a score of 11 to 8.
