Harris-Hastings Nuptials Held

On Sunday, August 18, at 4:30 o'clock Miss Mary Alice Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Hastings of Camden, and Calvin Bruce Harris, son of C. H. Harris and the late Mrs. Harris of Elizabeth City were united in marriage at the Sawyer's Creek Baptist church, Camden. The Rev. Dr. R. E. Wall officiated using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before the altar flanked with palms, cibatium ferns, white gladioli, and seven branched candelabra.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her gown of white satin over marquisette was a Cutrone original model that was worn by the bride's sister at her wedding. The gown was fashioned with a full-gathered long waist and leg-o'-mutton sleeves which tapered to a calla point over the hand. The sweetheart neckline, sleeve points, and voluminous skirt were edged in val lace and the bouffant skirt terminated in a court train. The finger-tip veil of illusion was crowned with a Juliet cap of lilies of the valley and edged round with the same lace trimmings. She carried an arm bouquet of lilies. Her only ornament was a triple strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Lawrence D. Garzieri of New York City, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Esther Morgan of Lillington and Mrs. Linwood Jones of Elizabeth City. They wore identical dresses chosen from the Romantic Period and made of sheer white organdy and taffeta.

Little Miss Lois Pearl Hastings, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was fashioned like those of the bride's attendants.

Master Graham Pollock of Gatesville was ringbearer, carrying both rings on a satin and lace pillow. He wore a little Ford faunterly suit.

Twiddy Harris was his brother's best man and the groomsmen were Robert Morgan of Lillington, Ed. Ferebee of Camden, Everette Harris of Norfolk, brother of the groom and Lawrence D. Garzieri of New York City.

Miss Clarine Gatling of Gatesville was mistress of ceremonies.

After August 25, the couple will be at home at 343 Fearing Street, Elizabeth City.

The bride's mother is a former welfare worker in Gates county.

Overman-Britt

Hobbsville. — The wedding of Mrs. W. G. Britt to Thomas Jarvis Overman was solemnized on Thursday, August 15, by the Reverend T. Sloan Guy, Sr., using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of black crepe and pink lace and had black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of gardenias.

The couple left on their wedding trip immediately after the ceremonies and will visit Washington, D. C., and many other places of interest.
