Riddicks Hold At Home Party For Daughter

Sunbury.—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Riddick entertained Sunday afternoon with an "at home" in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl White, whose marriage took place Saturday, July 2.

The home was beautifully decorated with white mixed flowers and lighted candles.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Sammy Riddick, Mrs. Brooks Morgan, Jr., introduced the guests to the receiving line. The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Riddick, the bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Earl White, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Rufus White.

Miss Mary Lewis Rountree presided at the guest register.

The guests were invited into the dining room by Mrs. Raymond Parker. The dining table was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake, which was cut by the bride, was banked with lighted candles in silver holders. Mrs. Earl Twiford and Mrs. C. P. Hathaway, Jr., assisted in cutting the cake. Others serving were Mrs. Luther Woodland of Washington, D. C., Misses Bulah Brown Morgan, Joyce Hurdle, Kaye Armstrong, Betty Byrum and Eliza Harrell of Sunbury.

Approximately 100 guests called during the evening.
