GATES COUNTY INDEX

The Only Newspaper Published in and for Gates County

The Weather Outside . . .

School Funds Are

County

is mighty cold on these long winter evenings. so why not stay inside and read the many heartwarming stories carried every week in

The Index. Only $2.50.

Volume 22, No. 18

One of the Nation's

Gatesville, N. C., Thursday, January 5, 1956

10c per copy

Dedicated to Service to Gates County and Its People

But

from heave gospel unto yo

we have preache aim be accursed. Galacians 1:8.

and deaths for the county

Home Ec at

Gives a Tea

Sunbury

10 Pages-Two Sections

It Happened Last Year

Top News of 1955 is 3 Hurricanes uneasy peace in which world poli-tics held the spotlight as nations an increase of peanut acreage. jockeyed for top positions of

In Gates County the year open-Court in Gatesville. This was necessary as the fall term was not held due to the sudden illness of Rawls of St. Louis gave $3,000 to the presiding judge, Q. K. Buckland High School Library. Nimocks, who suffered a heart attack just before court was to ad four auto wrecks in one week-

a-d family made headlines in a fic fatality in Gates County when number of papers when they took his truck, loaded with lumber,

Early in February, one Negro school boy was killed and another died later from an auto accident.

In June, little Danny Hurdle was fatally injured when he was a d Paul Edmond was guest speaker at a HDC meeting.

Sheriff L. F. Overman, his deputy Woodrow White and Patrolman J. J. Carter captured the largest still ever seen in this section on the last Saturday in February. Attorneys Huber Eason and W. D. Brown stumbled on the operation while looking over the operation while looking over started on the Gatesville sym-some property and reported it to dressing room. Ladies of the Eure irand Lodge of Masons with in Kaleigh. The temperature from Master, Robert L. Pugh in reached 101 degrees on July 28.

arge of proceedings.

At the March term of Superior

Court, Willie Phelps and Sydney
Parker went on trial for the death of young Jimmie Monds, who was run down by an auto took a leave of absence from the while walking on the highway job of prosecuting attorney, and rear his home. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. D. Brown of Sunbury was A Benton celebrated their sudden ammed to handle the job. The

Also in March the new book-mobile was dedicated is appropri-ate ceremon es at Gatesville and More than 11 inches of rain fell the Red Cross reported $500 short during August and Hurrican of its quota.

Gatesville.—The year 1955 will land High School was the Negro go down in history as the year of winner of the same award. It was

In May, Gates County received an additional allotment of 558 In Gates County the year open-acres for peanuts, and Mrs. Con-ed with a special term of Superior rad N. Plyler became the first onvene. and William T. Jones of Scot-land Neck became the third trafnumber of papers when they took has cluck, loaded with the following a Florida vacation at the insistence of friends, Frank E. Kaufman pickup driven by Nat Felton. The accident occurred at the intersection of the old Barfield road

Officers captured a big liquor still crushed beneath a pickup truck near Carters and later ran down the operators with bloodhounds dist Churchyard.

from the Gatesville prison camp.
On February 13, Mr. and Mrs.
R. O. Hobbs of Hobbsville celebrated their silver wedding anni-yersary. During the latter part of February, Marvin Wiggins of Trotville made headlines with his materity and for some parts. maternity pen for newborn pigs, a d Paul Edmond was guest speaker at a HDC meeting.

Town Council held its first meeting. C. M. Lawrence passed away in June, and Glenn Owens rethe Sheriff's office. Two white Christian Church Missionary Somen were captured.

In mid-March, the big news that received wide publicity was the laying of the cornerstone for the Eure Christian Church. The ceremony was conducted by the Gates attended 4-H Club Week Cand Lodge of Macon, with

A. Benton celebrated their golden named to handle the job. The wedding anniversary on March 20 with a reception in the basement of Sandy Cross Baptist quitoes. County schools opened in quitoes. County schools opened in August, and Hurricane Connec Renovation of the Gatesville ever seen in this section.

Methodist Church was completed early in April and Home Demonthe Carolina Coach Company bus stration Clubs held a district schedule in September and the meeting on April 14. Austin Hurl-county Ruritan clubs held a hog bert was ramed executive vice show in Sunbury. Dr. E. V. Wills president of the Farmers Bank of Sunbury and public health nurse, schools closed for the third hur-

THE ORGINAL SUSAN-In the center of this old drawing is the original Susan Constant which brought some of the first colonists to Jamestown. An exact replica of the ship is being built this left is the Discovery and at far right is the Godspeed which were the other two ships in the convoy of 1607.

A KEEL FOR HISTORY-This tree, which is 63 feet in length.

the first colonists to Jamestown in 1607, J. K. Wvait of Gate

J. K. Wyatt to Aid In Building Ship for Jamestown Festival Gatesville. - When the James Susan Constant is being furnish Visitors will be allowed to visit inches thick and log-through Sunbury On Wednesday, De Gatesville

Sunbury and public health nurse, schools closed for the third hurseness. Business and the second state of the season, Ione. Anital Rac Riddick the very first policy shot from the new Salk vaccine. Gatesville exhol bank which was the first ever organized in that school got off to a good start and gave a concert under the direction of Co-rad Plyler.

Also in April, Glenn Owens of Gatesville Ruritan Club Also in April, Glenn Owens of Gatesville Ruritan Club award. Patricia Rascoe of Buck

Sunbury and public health nurse, schools closed for the third hurseness shools dead to subtury shools and which was the International Cup Regatu, by Milt be done by Janu those with the done by Janu the said would square 12 x 12 at the floor the Susan Constant, in length last week which he said would square 12 x 12 at the hirrer than the good ship, which will be on display bearing the hurse shool and with the hull being day the constant and will include Wyatt's said and week coast.

In October the Board of Combant and will include Wyatt's said last week.

Although the ship will be done by Janu the s an offering for a basket for Christmas.

Constant,

After the business part of the meeting, we had our Christmas party for 1955, which was followed by Christmas songs and exchanging gifts.

It was announced by Mr. Artz duced.

Constant, The pine that Wyatt delivered IOOF Officers

Felton.

ence and loyal support.

Problem for Board number of times that the schools in North Carolina will be as good as the people of the state want them. According to the Gates County board of Education this holds true for Gates County schools. And the board spent all you, let they have on hand from the state No Board of Education can The Gatesville Volunteer Fire make changes or improve the Department announced this week schools without the backing, apthat Mr. and Mrs. Conrad N. proval and full support of the Plyler were the winners of the people they said.

The board now has on hand

angel day last Monday debating the needs of county schools and how they could best use the $257,000

Plyler were the winners of the people they said.

first place prize for the best The board now has on hand Christmas display. This award is $257,000 to spend for school building construction. These Mrs. Frank Pierce of Sunbury won a similar prize presented by the Sunbury Woman's Club. For the benefit of the Sunbury Woman's Club, it is our information that VEPCO will furnish eash for prizes are sunday.

for prizes for that sort of thing.

It was pointed out that the So maybe they will look into it.

State Board seldom if ever apand be able to furnish cash as proves or permits the expendi-well as ribbons next Christmas, and without any cost to their fine schools for building contruction if consolidation is posible. This creates a great problem for the Gates County Board of Educanine deaths in Gatesville during tion as all schools in Gates 1955. Almost that many occurred County are considered small. A in Sunbury. We have no way of look at statistics shows that engage of the control of the county are considered small. In Sunbury. We have no way of look at statistics shows that enknowing the exact statistics in rollment in the white high births and deaths for the county schools of the county have continued to decrease for the past The New Year weekend passed without ircident as far as traffic accidents were concerned. Or at least our friends, Patrolmen God-least our friends. Patrolmen Godwin and Carter didn't call us in the middle of the night to photograph any fatalities which is good the number teachers and schools along with the number of students and teachers and schools along with the number teachers and school property at the number of students and teachers and school property at the number of students and teachers and school property at the number of students and teachers and school property at the number of students and the number of teachers and school population. All these facts have to be taken into consideration when planning What one mother kangroo said a long range school building pro-gram, according to the board, the board is giving the proposed. The Board is giving the proposed construction a lot of study and consideration.

Two Englishmen out for a teacher at Sunbury effective digit on the town picked up two digits and took them into a dimly that Suddenly one has been found at the present time.

It pub for a drink. Suddenly, one of the men turned to his friend and whispered: "I say, old boy, would you mind terribly changing dates". The oter replied, "No, but what's the matter with yours."

The friend answered, "Between the grog and the smog, I seem to Distribution Of Students And have noted to the smog, I seem to Distribution Of Students and

Distribution Of Students And

hool Property In	Gates C	ounty
	Membership 1954-1955
	Elem.	HS
itesville:	305	102
bbsville	114	50
nbury	209	102
ickland	643	155
S. Cooper	599	148

1955-56 HS 105 144

Value of School Property Number of Teachers $ 94,800 $256,700 Diane Hurdle, Mary Ellen Hollowell, and Joyce Byrum. Kathleen Hobbs, one of the home economics students, presided over the Movement Ended

Installed

Wednesday

Wednesday

Hobowsprit, The oak timber he will deliver is known in the lumber trade as "flinch" and is oak four By Carolyn Overman

The Hobbsville Junior 4-H Club News By Carolyn Overman

The Hobbsville Junior 4-H Club held their last meeting of the season in December when the meeting was called to order by Charles Riddick.

After the pledges to flags and motto were given, we sang "flark the Herald Angels Sing." Devotions were given by Jackie and Clara Mae Bunch.

The minutes were read and the roll was called by our secretary, Ann Hollowell. We then took up an offering for a basket for Christmas.

After the business.

After the bledges to flags and motto were given, we sang "flark the Herald Angels Sing." Devotions were given by Jackie and Clara Mae Bunch.

The minutes were read and the roll was called by our secretary, Ann Hollowell. We then took up an offering for a basket for Christmas.

After the business.

changing gifts.

It was announced by Mr. Artz that at our first meeting of 1956 the new assistant county agent.

A. C. Newsome, would be intro
the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B.

Stallings Move

Eure.—Mr. and Mrs. Cam Stallings Move

Eure.—Mr. and Mrs. Cam Stallings moved to Eure Saturday in the missionary year by their pressured to the missionary year by their pres Kittrells Church.

WINTER-A lot of North Carolina people were singing and dreaming of a white Christmas and may have been disappointed. but if they stuck around until last Friday they had plenty of snow as more than two inches fell in a short time. Who can tell us where this photo was made?