

GROW GRAPES LIKE THESE AT OUR EXPENSE

WE WANT TO GIVE YOU
EIGHT GRAPE VINES FREE

These Vines are of Eight Varieties as Follows, all from the World-Famous Nurseries of T. S. Hubbard & Co., Chautauque Co., N. Y.

Moore's Early—Black. Bunch not quite as large as Concord; berry larger and very much like it in flavor and quality. Ripens early.
Catawba—Dark red when ripe; flesh of rich, vinous flavor. Vine hardy, very productive. Ripens late.
Diamond—White. Bunch large, compact. Vine a good grower; of fine quality. Ripens a little before Concord.
Concord—Decidedly the most popular grape in America. Bunch large, berries large, flesh juicy, sweet. For general cultivation the most reliable variety.

Agawam—Red or maroon. Berries large; juicy, of a rich, aromatic flavor; vine hardy and productive.
Niagara—White. Bunch handsome, berries, melting, sweet, with a flavor and aroma peculiarly its own; ripens with Concord. Vine productive.
Delaware—Red. Bunch small, compact, berries small; flesh very sweet, ripens with Concord. Vine requires rich soil and good culture.
Worden—Black. Bunch large, compact. Superior to the Concord in the following points: it is better in quality, has a larger berry and ripens earlier.
