POSTMASTER LYBROOK DEAD.

Remains Will Be Laid to Rest at Stewart, Va., His Old Home.

Telegrams received here this afternoon announce the death of Mr. Philip Lybrook, at Kirkbride's Hospital in Philadelphia where he had been for the past three months for treatment. Col. Lybrook's age was 52 years. He leaves the following brothers and sister, his parents having preceded him to rest: D. R., D. J., and Mrs. Nancy, of Winston, S. M. and W. A. Lybrook, of Newport News, Va., and Misses Mary and Lucy Lybrook who are now attending school at Randolph Macon Women's College, Lynchburg, Va.

The funeral and interment will take place at Stewart, Va., the former home of Col. Lybrook. Relatives will meet the remains at Danville, Va., tomorrow.

We have intimately known Col. Lybrook for ten years or more and have always regarded him as an honest, conscientious gentleman. He was with his uncle, R. J. Reynolds, in the tobacco business until 1898. He was generous to a fault and faithful as a friend, true to every obligation. During his stay in our city which covered a period of 12 or more years, he won many warm friends who will be deeply pained by the loss of his untimely demise. A few years past he took a lively interest in politics and upon the first election of Mr. McKinley was appointed postmaster of Winston, he was a member of Governor Russell's staff and was held in high favor by the present administration at Washington. We differed with him in politics but that fact did not prevent us from holding him in the highest esteem. Good-bye, Phil, peace to your ashes, we shall always hold your memory in tenderest remembrance.

SOME PETTY MALICE

A Despicable Attempt to Create Prejudice Against a Merchant of Winston. A correspondent in this week's issue against A. Days, the well known merchant, because the latter is the defendant in a suit and to an indictment growing out of the recent campaign. "Well Wisher" is in some way interested in the result of the suit, or is one of the unfortunate and altogether harmless people, who, having no business of their own demanding their attention desire to look after that of their neighbors, or it may be that he is actuated solely by petty malice. Mr. Days has succeeded by minding his own business—an example "well wiser," ought to emulate.

THE CHANGE PLACES OF BUSINESS

Call Bros. have moved their furniture business to a store room in the Huxton & Lemly building next to the Hub candy manufactory. G. L. Dull & Company have moved their feed business to the building on Fifth Street, formerly occupied by Call Bros. The building vacated by Dull & Company, was purchased some eight months ago by N. L. Crawford & Company and will be utilized by them as a clothing store in the near future. A number of improvements will be made to the building including glass front, etc.

Taking Some Advanced Steps.

The pastor, Rev. T. F. Marr, gave a timely and practical discourse at the prayer service of Centenary, M. E. church last night. His subject was "Salt." The treatment of the subject was in unimpeachable terms, and set forth the value of this characteristic in the Christian life. Christianity consists of more than doing; it means "being," as well. This is true of the church as of individuals, and it is a duty of a church to be drawing and a converting power to a community. Rev. Mr. Marr is taking some advanced steps in his mid-week meetings and announced "Light" as his subject for next Wednesday night.

Caution is used safely only between enemies.

Unless you let people know you are overboard you can't expect to be rescued.

The strenuous life consists in attempting to live up to our own advice to others.

It is folly to cherish old animosities in a world where new ones are always turning up.

Brown, Rogers & Company change their ad in today's issue. They advertise the Baucost Ventilator. A preventative of smoky chimneys.

FOUR IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

To Be Considered by the Chamber of Commerce Next Thursday Night

Last night Secretary Webb and President Hattie of the Chamber of Commerce held a consultation and decided to call a meeting of the Chamber for next Thursday night January the 10th.

At this meeting four questions of great importance to the city will be discussed and positive action taken. They are: The erection of a union depot, an auditorium for the Twin City, uniform freight rates and an increase in our public building appropriation.

There is good assurance for a union depot, Col. Webb tells us; the auditorium matter is in a better shape now and the architect has already asked an increased appropriation of $62,000 for the public building, making with the present appropriation $125,000. A uniform freight rate will also be given serious attention.

The business men of the Twin City are invited to the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday night. The Chamber can be a great factor in the development of the town but of course they can not be the whole thing.

FOUND DEAD.

Bert Lewis a white woman was found dead in bed at her home on Chestnut Street near Fifth at an early hour this morning. Her death was probably caused by pneumonia and a post mortem examination was deemed unnecessary. She had $150 in the bank and her life was insured. The police to take an inventory of her belongings.

Black Sam Jones To Wed.

Rev. A. L. McLees, the Black Sam Jones of Latta Park fame is in Charlotte says the Observer. He wants his white friends to know that he is to be married soon to a colored lady of South Carolina.

Gave $1,000 Bond.

J. Jacobs gave a bond of $1,000 today for his appearance at Federal court in Greensboro in April, under the indictment drawn at the court in Charlotte a few days past. The other parties to the indictment will give bonds Saturday.

Boys School Opens.

The Salem Boys School re-opened yesterday for the spring term with a very large attendance. There were over one hundred scholars present a number of whom were new. The school gives promise of accomplishing some very effective work during this term.

Case To Be Searched.

Cape Town, January 2.—The battleship Mowich will land guns tomorrow as a precautionary measure. The situation is undoubtedly serious. It is true that the Dutch have not joined the revolution in any considerable numbers, but a lack of arms is believed to be the true reason for abstention. In many places horses are freely offered and information readily supplied to the Boers.

The name of Mr. E. T. Kapp J. D. in the list of A. F. and A. M. officers yesterday was inadvertently left out.

Miss Caddie and Mary Whittington who have been visiting friends in the city for several days will leave tomorrow morning for their home in Greensboro.

James Schouler returned last night from Greensboro, where he has been spending a few days.

You can buy shoes from Jenkins Bros. just as low as the closest buyer in Winston.

HAS BEEN SET GOING

The New Machinery at Niagara Falls Is In Motion.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Jan. 3.—The machinery of the new installation of electric power in the huge plant of the Niagara Falls Power Company has been set in motion. The wheel-pit is an enormous cutting in the solid rock, nearly two hundred feet deep and wide and can accommodate ten turbine wheels, each of over 5,000 horse power. This is the largest hydraulic plant in the world until the completion of the installation at Massena Springs, where the St. Lawrence river is harnessed to the extent of 110,000 horse-power.

Sousa's Season Begins.

New York, Jan. 3.—John Philip Sousa and his band began the season today and will visit 100 cities in the United States. The band will play at the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo and then play four weeks at the International exhibition to be held in October in Glasgow, Scotland.

To Investigate Hazing.

Philadelphia Jan. 3.—The special House of Representatives committee to investigate the reported hazing of the late Cadet Booz, of West Point Military Academy, will meet here tonight and proceed tomorrow to Bristol, the late residence of the cadet, to begin the inquiry Saturday or Sunday. They will go to West Point and continue the inquiry on Jan. 7th.

To Make a Call.

Washington, Jan. 3.—President Zelaya of Nicaragua, and part of his cabinet are expected to visit Washington some time this winter while Congress is in session. Their visit is supposed to be in connection with the proposed Nicaraguan canal route.

Boyle to Be Hanged.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 3.—William O. Boyle will be hanged tomorrow in the first degree for killing Alma Hamilton on June 2, 1899, in a drunken fit of jealousy.

Congressional Mill Grinding.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Congress resumed business today, the members of both Senate and House returning in good spirits. It is understood that business will be pushed vigorously.

New Jersey Fire.

Jersey City, January 3.—Four tenement buildings were burned this morning. Twenty-eight families are homeless as a result of the fire. One woman was burned to death, and a fireman fatally burned. An infant was born as his mother was being carried down from the burning building.

Fire in New York.

New York, Jan. 3.—A large flat was burned on East Third Street. The body of one child was found and five other children are missing.

Silver in Gullford.

It is reported at Greensboro that a vein of silver has been discovered within a few miles of that city. The matter is being investigated, and if the report should be true, the property will be developed.

Lord Roberts is an Earl.

Queen Victoria yesterday bestowed on Lord Roberts earldom, with a special remainder for his daughter. He was also made a Knight of the Garter.

Alumni in New York Organized.

The New York Alumni Association of the University of North Carolina, the second oldest institution of its kind in the South, was formed last night at a meeting held at the Delta Kappa Epsilon Club, in West Thirty-first St. The chairman of which was ex-Judge Augustus Van Wyck. The meeting was followed by a dinner. These officers were elected President, Augustus Van Wyck; Vice President, J. L. Halgh, and secretary and Treasurer, Ralph H. Graves. The association starts off with 100 members.—New York Sun, Sunday.

Miss Janette Smith went to Charlotte last evening to re-enter the Presbyterian college after spending the holidays at home.

Miss Edna Swink left this morning for Mt. Emeona Seminary to resume her studies after spending the holidays at home.

A setback is a discouragement or a stimulus, according to the mettle of the man who gets it.

RUSSELL THE FAVORITE

A Lively Scramble For The Chief Justiceship.

According to Col. Olds the successor of Judge Faircloth will not be appointed until Saturday and likely not until Monday. Russell stock seems to be booming. Democrats are said to favor him because he was a supporter of the Constitutional Amendment. Russell's friends claim that he is the choice of Prichard and that "Reynolds is all right." Olds of his party, suppose that Russell will resign if he were not pretty certain of winning. Others affirm that Reynolds favors Lantry.

LIKES WINSTON-SALEM.

Mr. Wilder Writes Entertainingly of the Twin City. Likes the Climate.

Mr. Salem Wilder, of Winchester, Massachusetts, who is spending the winter at the Hotel Phoenix, has written an interesting letter, dated December 8th, to the Winchester Star, part of which we clip. In speaking of a sermon at the Home Moravian church by Bishop Rondthaler, he says:

"He preached an excellent sermon, and the music was grand. A musical organization which has been in existence 45 years furnished the music, a choir of perhaps 50 sang, and an orchestra consisting of two cornets, a violin and bass viol with other instruments and the organ, finely played, furnished the instrumental part. Many of the choir were grey headed. But from our customary services there was one omission, namely, no contribution box was passed. The financial affairs of the Moravian church are managed by a Diaconate."

Mr. Wilder is justly enthusiastic over our climate. He writes:

"Roses and chrysanthemums with other flowers are still in bloom, the roses being in bud and blossom, and many of them very beautiful. The atmosphere is just what I need."

There is considerable historical data in his letter which we may reproduce later.

Cooler-mill Deal.

A big deal involving a change in the management of the Coolermill Mills, the largest in the State, is reported. Mr. H. Frank Melane, president, and Dr. George A. Mebane, secretary and treasurer, have resigned their offices. The directors will hold a meeting when, it is understood, Mr. W. A. Erwin, of the Erwin Cotton Mills, Durham, will be elected president. The Coolermill Mills operate 30,000 spindles and 1,500 looms and employ 2,000 operatives, making it the largest concern under a single roof in North Carolina.

Large Shipment of Coal.

Mr. D. H. King received 15 car loads of coal last week, aggregating 771,832 pounds. The freight amounted to $1,039.95. This is the largest quantity ever received by any firm in this city and the largest amount of freight paid in one week on coal. Ten of the thirteen cars were for domestic purposes. Mr. King says he has plenty of coal for everybody to burn.

A Railroad Rumor.

The Greensboro correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes that there is a rumor current there that the Norfolk & Western has purchased the division of the Southern Railway running from Sanford to Mt. Airy. The report cannot be verified. It has been known for some time that the Norfolk & Western is anxious to come to Greensboro.

Chalmers Glenn Wins Out.

State Treasurer-elect B. R. Lacy tells us he has made the following appointments, effective inauguration day January 15: Chief clerk, W. F. Moody of Charlotte; clerk in charge of books of public institutions, John P. Arrington, of Nash county; teller, Chalmers Glenn, of Forsyth; stenographer, Miss May Jones, of Asheville.

Miss Anne Harp died in West Salem this morning aged 18 years. She will be taken to Mocksville day after tomorrow for interment.

Misses Emma De Armon and Nannie Northey who have been visiting at the home of Rev. W. H. Willis, returned to Charlotte last night.

Tobacco Sales at the warehouse are comparatively light. An experienced tobacco man tells us prices are higher than they have been in three years.

E. T. Holbrook left last evening for Wilmington on a hunting trip.
