THE LEAKSVILLE PRACTICAL HIGH SCHOOL, Male and Female, Leaksville, N. C.

Elocution, Oratory, Calisthenics, Penmanship and Literary Societies Free

Fall Term will Open on Monday August 25th, 1890.

This School has been organized four years and a half, and has enrolled 518 students from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. It has become so popular and has grown to such proportions that another teacher has been added to the number formerly employed; and, notwithstanding the building is now a large and commodious one, another large, new room will be added to it by the opening of the next term.

The School now has five experienced and successful teachers who are full graduates, and are thoroughly prepared to give instruction in the following branches of study:

English Language and Literature, Latin, Greek, French, German, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Natural History, Moral Philosophy, Political Science, Elocution, Oratory, Calisthenics, Instrumental and Vocal Music, Painting and Drawing, Book-keeping, Penmanship, Shorthand, Telegraph and a Practical Normal Course, arranged by Maj. Finger, State Supt., Public Instruction, for those who wish to prepare themselves to teach.

The Buildings are furnished with the best patent automatic Desks, Maps, Charts, Globe, Piano, Organ and a good Library, containing Chambers' Encyclopedia and other books of reference, for the benefit of the students.

CHARTER.

The School has been chartered by the Legislature, and granted all the rights and privileges of a regular College.

DIPLOMA AND GOLD MEDAL.

A handsome Diploma and a fine Gold Medal are given to all students who complete the course.

TESTIMONIALS

The following are extracts from a few of the testimonials of our parents:

I can cheerfully recommend your School to all having children to educate.
F. J. STONE, Stoneville, N. C.
 I am highly pleased with the discipline and instruction of the Leaksville Practical High School.
A. B. JOHNS, M. D.
 I know of no better School for thorough discipline and teaching.
J. B. KING.
 I think your manner of training pupils first-class.
P. R. MILLNER.
 To those who have sons or daughters to educate I would say, you cannot find a better School in the State.
D. M. MOORE.
 I take great pleasure in recommending the School to all who have boys or girls to educate, as one fully worthy of their patronage.
JOHN H. BURGESS.
 I was highly pleased with the progress of my boys last session. I like your discipline and manner of training pupils.
J. H. LANE.
 I cheerfully recommend to others your thorough discipline and mode of instruction to pupils.
J. M. PRICE.
 I cheerfully recommend it to all who have daughters to educate.
C. S. HAMLIN.
 I take pleasure in recommending the School to those wishing to educate their children.
S. A. TURNER.
 The best recommendation I can give is to say that I will send again next term.
W. S. WILLIAMS.
 I had two boys at the Leaksville Practical High School. They liked it, and I think I shall send to it again, and commend it to all who have children to educate.
R. P. PRICE.

I believe Prof. Ray to be one of the best educators I ever saw, and I expect to patronize the School until all my children are educated, if it remains in his charge.
J. H. LAND.
 The progress of my son has been entirely satisfactory. I shall send him back next session.
A. MOIR.
 I have had a daughter in your School and take pleasure in recommending it to all who have children to educate.
W. P. GROGAN.
 I regard your most excellent School worthy the confidence and patronage of all parents who have children to educate.
J. H. HAMPTON.
 I believe the School to be unsurpassed for good discipline and thoroughness of training, and cheerfully recommend it to all who have children to educate.
W. D. MARTIN.
 I recommend the School to any one who has either boys or girls to educate.
E. N. ANDERSON.
 Having had four daughters under my tuition, I desire to express my satisfaction with the progress made by each of them, and to commend the Leaksville Practical High School to all who may have children to educate.
D. F. KING.
 I have been a patron of the Leaksville Practical High School and am highly pleased with the advancement made by my children.
J. R. STEPHENS.
 I am highly pleased with the rapid progress made by my son in his studies during the short stay of nine months that he was with you; Providence permitting, he will be with you again.
J. P. MILLNER.
 I take pleasure in recommending this School to any one who may have children to educate.
J. P. DILLARD.

Board at moderate rates, and we guarantee tuition as low as can be had at any first-class School in North Carolina or Virginia. A BIG DISCOUNT on tuition when there are more students than one from the same family. It will be greatly to your interest to see us about our School before you make any arrangements to send your children to any other School. For further particulars and catalogue address,
