THE SILVER CASCADE.

Beautiful, beautiful water!
Flowing down in a shimmer of white,
Splashing and whirling and sparkling
And singing a song of delight.
Bright, in the gold of the sunshine,
Dark, beneath the myrtle tree's shade,
Tipping and roaring and rushing,
To keep in the green, mossy glade.

While up, like a dream of the morning,
The spirit of the wind is in the air,
And hangs like a bride's veil of silver,
On the bloom of the laurel tree's air.
The snowy, pure, sweet rhododendron,
That blossoms and smiles o'er the stream,
Some purple and pink in the distance,
Some flushed with the sunset's gleam.

Oh! vision of gladness and glory,
Bright spring in the dim solitude,
Away from the old and its clamor,
Alone, in the depth of the wood,
Where nature can speak to her children,
Afar from the dust and strife,
We come from the glare and glimmer
To drink at this fountain of life.

To bathe in these crystalline waters,
To sing with the birds of the air,
And have by these rocks gray and heavy,
To lay down our burden of care,
To hang on the wall of our memory
This picture of sunlight and shade,
And thus win the aisles of the future,
To the song of the "Silver Cascade."

Minutes of a Meeting of the Bar of Rockingham County.

At a meeting of the bar of Rockingham county held at half past two o'clock on July 27th, 1898, the following proceedings were had in respect of the memory of Colonel Elijah Benton Withers, deceased.

Mr. James T. Morehead, the eldest member of the bar, was unanimously appointed by the bar as chairman of the meeting, and after a short address in which he spoke feelingly of his associations with the lamented brother, took the chair and called the meeting to order.

John D. Pannill was appointed secretary.

Upon a motion made by Mr. P. B. Johnston that a committee be appointed to draw up suitable resolutions expressive of the respect of the Rockingham Bar for the memory of the deceased, their sorrow at losing so good a member, and sympathy for the bereaved family, Messrs. Scott, Glenn and Johnston were appointed as such a committee.

The committee, through Mr. Johnston, their chairman, returned the following resolutions, which after short addresses by Messrs. P. B. Johnston, R. D. Reid, R. B. Glenn, John T. Pannill, H. R. Scott, Thomas S. Reid, Julius Johnston and Charles D. McKinley were unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

A motion was made and unanimously adopted that the State Solicitor be requested upon the opening of the evening session of the court to publicly present in open court these resolutions to His Honor Judge James D. Melver and request that he order them spread upon the minutes of the court.

A motion was made to adjourn and carried at half past three o'clock.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The Bar of the Superior Court of Rockingham county, State of North Carolina, puts aside for the time the burdens and cares of the profession and turns in loving sorrow to contemplate the virtues of a distinguished member who recently responded to that mysterious summons of death, and to record as a perpetual memorial, a well merited tribute of respect to his life, his character and his works which have followed him to his higher sphere, and the influences of which impel his brethren to this duty of love and justice.

Without warning, but none the less prepared, Elijah Benton Withers died at his home in the city of Danville, Va., on April 23d, 1898. He was a native of North Carolina, and was born December 31, 1836. He received his education at the day schools of his home and at the University of this State, from which institution he was graduated in the summer of 1859. He was trained for the bar, and after leaving the University he began the practice of his profession at Yan-ceville, N. C., in 1860; but the rapid and serious political events of that period soon changed the arena of his action from the quiet office to the noisy, and turned his energies from the forum of justice to the field of battle with arms. His dearest duties were done and his proudest moments spent. He enlisted with the troops of his State and served through the Civil war from 1861 to 1865 with marked ability and gallant courage, rising to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel of the Thirteenth North Carolina Regiment, which he commanded on the fateful day of Appomattox.

To his devotion, courage and endurance as a soldier, an army of witnesses have testified for thirty odd years, and the thinned and bare ranks of his old comrades, as they placed the tear flowers on his grave, gave final proof of the strength and integrity of his soldier life. Of his own action in the midst of those days of danger his modesty rarely permitted him to speak, but that most of admiring friends and comrades who watched him, all tell the same story, that no braver soldier wore the sword and in no eye more brightly flashed the fire of battle than in his.

At the close of the war he returned to his home in North Carolina and resumed the practice of his profession, interrupted only by the political demand made upon him by an admiring people. He served them faithfully and fought the enemies of his State in the times of reconstruction with the same vigor and open and bravery that had characterized him as a soldier. As a member of the Constitutional Convention and also of the State Legislature, he did faithful and efficient work for his constituents.

In 1876 he removed to the city of Danville, in the State of Virginia, and devoted his time and abilities to the practice of law, but never allowing it at any time to absorb his life and character, as marked by his brethren and noted as most worthy of the commendation earnestly recommended to the younger members of the bar, and indeed to young and old of all callings were the integrity, strong common sense and excellent judgment which gave to his views great weight with all sensible and conservative people, and made him a most valuable counselor and friend, a wise and prudent lawyer and a strong advocate. His honesty was a stern force; his convictions were clear cut and deep; his courage was modest and gentle but sensitive and inflexible; and his integrity was as bright and pure as the sparkling waters of the mountain stream. His dealings were all direct, and to the line of truth he bowed. His friendship was sincere and honest, frank, loyal and warm. He possessed a Catholic charity and deep sympathy. Wrong and oppression he hated and resented with all the energy of his nature. Pomp, circumstance and sham were to him a most interesting, instructive and agreeable companion.

These were the qualities of the man and brother whose memory this bar seeks to perpetuate, and with this recital of his many good qualities it is resolved:

That his memory, especially his widow and children have the tender sympathy of his professional brethren and friends with the confident conviction that they must and will find solace and sure consolation in the contemplation of the good life that was his, and in the reunion assured to them in the bright life beyond the limits of time.

That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting, with these resolutions, be placed in the files of the deceased and the county newspapers.

That the Chairman of this meeting request the Solicitor to present this memorial to the Superior court of Rockingham county at this July term, 1898, and ask that the same be made a part of the records of said court.

Respectfully and affectionately reported,

R. B. GLENN
Committee.

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." Capt. Carter's Discharge.

A Washington dispatch says: Captain O. M. Carter, the army engineer officer, who is alleged to have defrauded the government out of $3,000,000 while in charge of river and harbor improvements at Savannah, Ga., will suffer in punishment more severely than any officer ever tried by court-martial in this country on similar charges. Carter, being found guilty, was sentenced by the court to dismissal from the army, imprisonment in some penitentiary for a period of between 10 and 20 years, to forfeit all pay, and besides all these penalties an additional and unusual one which provides that the 100th article of war shall be applied to his case, and, if it is carried out, the facts in Carter's case will be published broadcast through the country, and at his own home the local papers will be required to print advertisements calling attention to the disgrace he has brought on himself.

Further, any officer speaking to or addressing Carter will be accused and tried for scandalous conduct. It is the intent of this provision to call attention to the most public fashion to an officer's disgrace, and to specifically emphasize the facts before his own people at home. The case is still before the Secretary of War for action and from him will be forwarded to the President.

THE COMING STATESMAN.

What Senator Stewart Thinks of Hon. W. W. Kitchin.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin, who represents this district in Congress, and who has just been unanimously re-nominated, is regarded by Senators and Representatives with whom he has served, as being one of the ablest members of that body. Although Mr. Kitchin has been in Congress but one term he has achieved national fame, and by his independence, says the Durham Sun, force and purity of character, intimate knowledge of public matters, brilliant intellect and genial manner he has won the respect and admiration of his political opponents as well as his own party.

The Silver Knight Watchman, edited by Senator W. M. Stewart, in its issue of July 14th, devoted over two pages to our pure and noble Kitchin, a Christian and high type of manhood. A splendid large size cut, a sketch by Senator Stewart and principal part of a fine speech delivered by Mr. Kitchin on the coinage question, in the House of Representatives, March 24th, 1898, is given. We cannot refrain from laying before our readers a portion of this sketch of one of the best men that ever represented the masses of the Fifth District, as follows:

"Hon. William W. Kitchin, of North Carolina, although a new member of the House of Representatives, and in years one of the youngest members of that body, has achieved national fame as an orator, and is looked upon as one of the coming men of the South. Mr. Kitchin is not only a brilliant and magnetic orator, but a careful and industrious student of public questions. The intimate knowledge he has already displayed upon all matters of public concern, his independence and force of character, coupled with a genial manner, has won him the confidence and esteem of his fellow members."

In the first general introduction of Mr. Kitchin to the public was at the Grand Opera House in Washington, July 4, 1897, when, as one of the orators of the day, he electrified his hearers and won the unqualified applause of the vast audience assembled, among whom were many of the leading statesmen from several of the States. The audience had just listened to the greatest Fourth of July oration ever delivered in the Nation's capital city from the lips of the most eloquent Virginia orator and statesman, Hon. John W. Daniel. Any man who could follow Mr. Daniel on that occasion and win applause need not hesitate at any undertaking of a similar character, that may ever afterward fall to his lot.

"Early in the late session of Congress Mr. Kitchin attracted general attention by his vigorous attack on what he denominated the fraud of the spy fund, which is the fund from which the government of the violations of the revenue law are paid. His speech in opposition to the bond issue and other unnecessary and unjust features of the war revenue bill are unanswerable. His opposition to the government's rule of monopoly. We sincerely trust that all who are opposed to these things will see to it that Mr. Kitchin is continued in Congress that his splendid abilities may contribute to the welfare of his State and nation."

DEWEY SETTLES IT.

You Cannot Give Up the Philippines Now, Mr. President.

To Admiral Dewey goes the honor of striking the first and the last great blow in the war.

The flag now floats over the Philippine capital not by leave of Spain, but by triumph of American arms, and there it must float forever.

It must mark the end of Spanish rule not alone in Manila, but in the Philippines. It must usher in American supremacy not merely in the capital, but throughout the islands.

The time has now passed for talking nonsense about "a cooling station" and holding "Manila and surrounding country."

A Cry for Help.

Winston Sentinel.

In the western part of the State we have seen and felt some of the results of the deplorable and disgraceful state of affairs brought about by the incompetent and corrupt government under which we are now living but this condition of things is far more impressive to the people of the eastern part of the State, where there are many more of that class of voters that can be used as mere tools and the hands of designing politicians of both races.

The cry for help comes to the white people of the West from the white people of the East. They ask us to aid them in throwing off the shackles that so sorely oppress them. This is one incentive to the white people of western Carolina to vote for white supremacy. But more than this. If the present state of corruption is endorsed at the polls next November the tricksters and demagogues will grow bolder and the humiliating methods now practiced in the East will grow worse there and will spread to this section and an intolerable reign will pervade the Commonwealth.

So that another incentive to the people of the West is self-preservation from the ills that now afflict us and the worse things that the Republican party has to store for us.

A few days ago, we pointed out the sad condition that prevails at Greenville. In the following article from the Wilmington Messenger we find hints of the demoralizing situation at other points in the East, together with a Macedonian call to "come over and help us."

"The white men of populous western Carolina must come up to the help, the relief of the eastern section of a common State. We are all North Carolinians, and the West cannot rightly and humanely and patriotically remain indifferent to the deplorable state of affairs in all the eastern portion. The other day 35 magistrates in Craven county met and 27 were negroes. We have not seen the precise figures but repeat as we recall what was told us. The figures appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer. Think of the condition of a county or community in which three-fourths or one-half or one-fourth of the magistrates are negroes. Such a condition is enough to prompt every white family to move out at once and find civilization. In Halifax county there are eight negro postmasters handling the private mails of the white people. The prosperous town of Scotland Neck, situated in one of the finest and most attractive sections of North Carolina, and a writer has visited 51 counties, is afflicted with a negro postmaster put in by McKinley through the saucy and inflated negro White with the wrong name. Then burly blacks are visitors to white public schools to look after their negroes. It is surprising that they made more than one visit. Wilmington is completely in the hands of the enemy and under negro bossing. Russell, who lives here, is the very worst enemy Wilmington ever had. No carpetbagger, with his grip sack and a box of paper collars, who dominated here for awhile was ever so hateful to the white people of the town or ever such an enemy of its peace and safety and prosperity."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at Allen's and Sapp's drug stores.

Don't expect to move any obstacle without first getting a move on yourself.

Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. C., writes: "For 25 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent benefit. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nervine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own household, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Sapp's and Allen's Drug Stores. Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

EX-SENATOR JARVIS TALKS.

By Hard Work the Party Can Elect Both Branches of the Legislature and the Judges.

Ex-Senator T. J. Jarvis was in Charlotte one day recently. A representative of The Observer called on him at the Buford Hotel, and asked him his opinion of the prospects for Democratic success this fall. He replied that with harmony and united action on the part of the Democrats of North Carolina—and this harmony and unity were everywhere apparent—he thought that the prospects for Democratic success were excellent, and that the party would carry both houses of the Legislature and elect its judges. This could not be done, however, he said, without the hardest kind of work, and every Democrat would have to do his duty at the polls.

"I have been traveling over the State," continued Mr. Jarvis, "I have been recently in the principal eastern counties, as far up the southern border line as Hamlet, as far up the northern border as Rockingham county, and then south through the State to this point. Studying conditions closely, I observe three things: "The Democrats are united, harmonious and determined. "A great many Populists have returned to the Democratic party, and a great many more are debating the matter, and will come back. "The Republican party is disorganized and dispirited. "These conditions existing, we ought to carry the State.

As a general rule Republicanism, Populist fusion will be arranged, with exceptions in certain counties. But fusion between the leaders does not mean that it will carry the Populist vote. Conscientious Populists will not endorse it. "Do you mean to say that the Populist masses are losing confidence in their leaders?" "I do. The masses of the Populist party have come to see that all anybody has got out of the Populist movement is what the leaders have got in the way of offices by trading with the Republicans. A large number of intelligent Populists realize that the only practical outcome of the Populist movements of 1894 and 1896 has been the spread of a new kind of bugle and other vehicles were on the way to the pond, loaded with men to search for the body.
