REIDSVILLE, N. C., MAY 30, 1905

$1.00 PER YEAR

INSURE WITH Francis Womack, THE INSURANCE MAN.

For 20 years this office has been paying out money for FIRES, ACCIDENTS and DEATHS. We have, in that time, rebuilt homes by the hundreds, saved scores of men from financial ruin, and paid widows and orphans in Rockingham and Caswell counties more than all the other Life Insurance Companies combined.

I have learned by my long experience in the Insurance business that THE BEST is not only THE CHEAPEST, but is the only kind worth having, and my customers can depend upon getting THE BEST when they place their insurance with me.

Francis Womack,
The Insurance Man.

Plenty of Cool Clothing for Hot Weather

Usually it is a warm proposition which this store has for you, but the cool spell the past few days remind us that there are still many things which cannot be sold next fall and winter. Consequently we have decided to make Sweeping Reductions on Summer Clothing, Shirts and Underwear.

We have an exceedingly pretty stock of two-piece suits, just what is needed for the warm days. They are easy fitting and shapely. All $12.00 suits now $10.00; $10.00 suits are $8.00; and $9.00 suits for $7.50.

We have plenty of all sizes summer underwear—Lisle thread and gauze. The $1.00 pieces now 49c. The 50c pieces 39c.

A big assortment Neglige shirts, the pure white and all colors and sizes. Regular 75c and $1.00 values at 49c. No fake, but facts.

Three piece summer suits in Fancy Worsteds, Blue Serges, and all the latest weaves. Special inducements to clean up our counters of all summer weights between this and July 1st.

Our shoe business is growing all the time. Queen Quality for the ladies, and Skreemer and Walk-Overs for the men. No better shoes made for the money.

PRICE & CLARK, Scales Street.

With the Advancing Temperature Comes The Rush for Thin Clothing.

Comfort is now the main consideration in dress, but of course looks must not be sacrificed. Our Summer Clothes combine both—they are cool, comfortable, smart looking and fit as if made-to-measure.

If you want a real serviceable suit for business, the mountains, the seashore—any sort of outdoor wear—our thin, airy, tropical-weight wool crash, worsted and serge suits will appeal to you.

ADMIRAL TOGO WINS THE JAPANESE ARE STILL IN PURSUIT

The latest advices confirm the magnitude of the disaster suffered by the Russian fleet, and point to the fact that Russia's hopes, so far as this war is concerned, now lie in whatever may be accomplished by the old Russian army in Manchuria. An official report received from Tokio by the Japanese legation in Washington yesterday evening says that the Russian losses definitely known include two destroyers, a coast defense ship, five cruisers, two special ships and three destroyers sunk and two battleships, two coast defense ships, one destroyer and one special service ship captured; while over 3,000 prisoners have been taken, including Rear Admiral Nebogatoff. The Japanese, it would seem, are still pursuing the Russians, and it may be some time before the final result is known.

There is nothing to clearly indicate the extent of the Japanese losses, and it is suggested from one source that the Tokio government is waiting to hear from Admiral Rojestvensky by way of Vladivostok before announcing to what extent its fleet has suffered.

The news of the disaster has caused deep depression in official Russia, though it is not yet known generally among the Russian people.

Rojestvensky's defeat has given rise to renewed talk of peace. It is pointed out by the Associated Press' St. Petersburg correspondent that Russia in this crisis will turn to France through its foreign minister, M. Delcasse, while from Washington comes information that President Roosevelt, in accordance with his promise announced a long time ago, is taking steps to do all in his power to bring about peace negotiations.

Nothing has been heard from Vice Admiral Rojestvensky. In Tokio there is some belief that he has perished, while another source says he was rescued by a torpedo boat, but that he is wounded.

Reidsville Seminary Commencement.

The closing exercises of the Reidsville Seminary were held at the Opera House on Friday morning and night, and notwithstanding the very inclement weather there was a liberal attendance at both times.

This completed the first year's work in the Seminary under the management of Prof. H. A. Hayes, and it is pleasant to learn that the school has never had a more successful year. A hundred or more scholars have been enrolled, and the work done has been of a high order.

Between two of the parts on the programme, Prof. Hayes took occasion to thank the patrons of the school for the interest they had manifested in the work this past session and to thank them for a liberal co-operation. He also made the very gratifying announcement that the school would be continued under more favorable auspices than ever before, as work would soon begin on a large addition to the building, which has passed into his hands, and that 300 students could be accommodated by the time they were ready to take up the next year's work.

This new order of things will be the result of a sale which the owners of the property recently made to Prof. Hayes of the present school building and the grounds. Work will begin at an early date and the additions will be rushed to completion.

The exercises in the morning were highly interesting, and the following programme was rendered, which gives but a vague idea of the pleasure afforded the spectators. Each of the young people participating in these exercises vied with each other in properly carrying out their respective parts, and right well did they succeed.

Chorus, "Hail Columbia"—School. Duet, Hurry Scurry Gallop, Wad-dington—Misses Jennie Cummings and Pearl Moore.

Heralds of Spring—Ethel Walker, Pearl Glancy, Ida Doggett, Wilma Walker, James Robinson, Henry Satterfield, Robert Lee Hayes.

Trio, Persian Waltz, Streabog—Misses Lillie Rascoe, Mary Walker, Hattie Doggett.

Debate, Resolved, That the horse is a greater benefactor to mankind than the whale is—Misses Clark, McNeely, Grogan, Doggett, Walker, Palmer and Sidney Johnston.

Duet, Bocephale, L. Descaux—Misses Wilkinson and Hitchcock.

Trio, Pasredouble, L. Streabog—Masters Hayes and Jackson.

Red Riding Hood—Red Riding Hood, Louise Johnston; Mother, Janet McNeely; Wolf, Dillard Hall; Fairy Queen,

Ione Grogan; Fairy Attendants, Lily Clark, Mary Walker, Nancy Doggett, Pearl Glancy, Ida Pinnix.

Chorus, Voices of the Woods—A Rubenstein.

Jolly Waiters' Drill—Miss Wagg, Head Waiter; Miss McNeely, German; Miss Satterfield, Irish; Miss Golding, Chinese; Miss Cummings, Negro.

Notwithstanding a heavy downpour of rain Friday night the Opera House was filled when the curtain rose for the first number of the evening's programme, which was a chorus by the school. Misses Satterfield and Wilkinson were liberally applauded for the artistic manner in which they played a duet, "To Arms," and Miss Ruth Clark's recitation, "Brown's Had His Hair Cut," was deftly rendered in an easy style, which showed careful training in elocution. The small boys' "Ball Tossing" pleased many. Miss Bessie Palmer's solo, "Down the Shadowed Lane She Goes," was also liberally applauded. Her voice is being well cultivated under the instruction of Miss Annie McKinney, who has charge of the music department.

The crowning feature of the evening's programme was the pretty operetta "Cinderella in Flowerland." Miss Julia Abbott acted the part of Cinderella with as much grace as one who had been engaged in work of that kind before, and Mr. Willie Penn was quite fine as Prince Sunshine. Miss Mary Mathews was substituted for Miss Lillian Hitchcock, who was sick, to act the part of Tiger Lily and did splendidly, as did also Miss Ruth Allen, who had the part of Hollyhock. The Godmother was Miss Adele Crawford, one of the members of the faculty. The balance of the cast follows:

Bonnie Bee, Thomas Hasteock; Robin Red, Hal Hayes; Fairy, Pauline Palmer; Butterflies, Ida Pinnix and Annie Doggett; Prince Sunshine, William Penn; Guests of the Ball—Poppy, Etta Golding; Butter Cup, Pearl Moore; Pansy, Jennie Cummings; Daffodil, Lily Clark; Violet, Louise Anderson; Sweet Brier, Lottie Satterfield; Mignonette, Mary Wilkinson; Lily Bell, Bronna Garrison; Sweet Pea, Francis Burton; Narcissus, Ruth Clark; Tulip, Mrs. McManus; Forget-me-not, Ione Grogan.

The Review is delighted to speak of the success which the Seminary has attained the past year under the new management and will note its increased prosperity with much gratification. This school is intended to take the place of a high-grade preparatory school and will enable students to equip themselves for entering the second or third classes in any of the larger colleges, thus permitting a careful training and home influence as long as possible before young ladies and young gentlemen depart for their stay in college.

Death of Mr. Samuel Carver.

Mr. Samuel Carver died at his home near Mount Herman on Saturday morning last, after a lingering illness. He was 80 years old. He moved to Rockingham from Caswell county about 60 years ago. He made a profession of faith 23 years ago and united with the Mount Herman Baptist church, of which he remained a faithful and devout member until his death. He was a kind and loving father, an affectionate husband and a faithful, loyal and devoted friend.

Mr. Carver enlisted in Capt. Dillard's company, 45th Regiment, North Carolina troops, in the spring of 1862, and served as a private until May, 1864, when he lost a limb at the battle of Spottsylvania, and laid upon the battlefield two days without nourishment or help of any kind. This, of course, ended his career as a soldier. After his return, with a spirit of heroism more valiant than the soldier displays upon the battlefield, he went to work, encumbered as he was by the loss of his limb, and by industry and strict economy, he succeeded in accumulating a goodly portion of the world's goods and raising his family.

The remains were buried at Mount Herman on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Stanford, of Spray, conducting the funeral service.

The deceased is survived by a wife and three children.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Raiph F. Fernandez of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at W. S. Allen and L. L. Sapp drug store; price 50c.

While a bilious attack is decidedly unpleasant it is quickly over when Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are used. For sale by Geo. W. Brittain.

MRS. LEASE IS ROBBED BURGLARS HOLD HER UP IN NEW YORK

One Man Held Revolver to Woman's Head While His Pal Packed up the Valuables of the House.

New York, May 28.—Mrs. Ellen Lease, the lecturer and former Populist leader, was the victim of a daring robbery in her home in this city last night. While one robber held a revolver with the muzzle pressing close against her temple and admonished her not to make an outcry, another went through her flat from end to end gathering up valuables of every description and finished by taking a diamond pin which she wore at her throat. A roll of bank notes amounting to $100 which Mrs. Lease had just drawn from the bank was also found by the robbers and carried away with them when they made a successful escape. The total value of the booty they secured is placed at $500.

Mrs. Lease was reading in her sitting room when she heard footsteps in the private hall outside and went to investigate. As she stepped across the threshold a short, stockily built man seized her by the throat, and forcing her against the wall placed the muzzle of a revolver against her temple.

"Not a word," he said, and the order was obeyed.

"I don't want to shed any blood," continued the burglar, "and I won't if you'll be sensible and keep quiet. My 'pal' is going through your flat. That diamond studded breast pin of yours looks pretty good, guess I'll take it."

Mrs. Lease handed it over without even a word of protest. Through the door of her flat she saw the other burglar packing away her silver and such bric-a-brac as he took a fancy to.

"Now you got some money, and you got to show me where it is," said the burglar. "It must be in that bag you had when you came in. Show me where you put it. No funny business now."

With the burglar's revolver at the back of her head, Mrs. Lease led him to her bed-room and pointed out her shopping bag. The burglar opened it, took the roll of bills, and then marched her back to the hall, where he detained her with his revolver until the other robber had finished with the silver and other things in the flat.

When the flat had been plundered to their satisfaction the men rushed out of the building and disappeared down the street and out of sight before a warning was given. Mrs. Lease gave the police a good description of the robbers, but the thieves have not yet been found.

Jail Notes.

A little yarn, but too true to be a joke: I was out in the jail yard one Sunday and in came too little bantam chickens. I made a remark that I was going to keep them and tame them, and a young fellow in jail, who was sent up from Reidsville for stealing a box of tobacco, hollered out that this was a good place to tame and gentle anything.

And I think so myself, for I have tamed 54 mice with a small piece of meat and one little 10-cent trap. So all of this is too true to be a joke.

Well, my dear friends that are in the whiskey business, today I have heard of some of you saying that you did not think that I would have tried to hurt you by my letter that I had put in THE REVIEW. I want to say to you all that it was not my intention, not in the least, for I would not harm one hair of any man's head that I ever saw in the business. Hope the friends will not take my letter that way.

Yours Most Respectfully,
J. M. TAYLOR.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism.

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Geo. W. Brittain.
