LOCALETTES.

A special sale for Tuesday is advertised by D. A. Hendrix.

Better qualify today to vote for some young ladies. Any of them will appreciate it, and your vote might decide it.

Mrs. Maggie Hancock, of near Wentworth, is critically sick and her condition is causing her relatives and friends much uneasiness. She was thought to be fast recovering from her recent illness, but Saturday she suffered a setback.

Messrs. Wesley Trotter and Robert Wray complimented Miss Fox, the charming visitor of Miss Crawford, with a moonlight picnic and boat ride at Poplar Lake Tuesday night. Several couples enjoyed the delightful pleasures of the evening.

The farmers are in the midst of a bounteous wheat harvest this week and the weather has been ideal for saving the grain in superb condition. It is the general opinion that the present wheat crop is one of the best harvested in this section in years.

An esteemed subscriber sends THE REVIEW the following: "Notice—A big land sale. By order of the executive committee of Williamsburg township I will sell to the highest bidder for cash all the land of Williamsburg township, as a whole, on or about the 4th of July to see if it will bring anything like what the tax assessors assessed it at."

Mr. T. T. Harrison, of Quick, Caswell county, and Miss Minnie Stanfield, of Lawsonville, were united in marriage in Greensboro Wednesday night by Dr. H. W. Battle, pastor of the Baptist church in that city. There were only a few friends who were present to witness the ceremony. The groom is a prosperous planter and his bride is a young woman of accomplishments.

In Guilford Superior court Tuesday the case of the greatest importance was that of Henry Morehead, a colored man from the Brown Summit section, who had been indicted for criminal assault on a colored girl. He pleaded guilty to the crime in the second degree and the plea was accepted. Judge Justice sentenced him to twelve years in the penitentiary. The maximum penalty is fifteen years and the minimum is five.

Elsewhere the Reidsville Insurance & Realty Co. is calling attention to the several features of their business.

Many a victory has been lost by overconfidence. If all the votes which are now out had been cast for the count last night there would have been some changes in the standing of the candidates. Votes are being held back for the final count. Only one more week until the close.

The closing out sale of the Hitchcock-Galloway-Trotter Company, which was inaugurated Monday, preparatory to moving to Winston, is being liberally patronized by bargain-seekers. The store has been crowded every day this week. The prices are genuine, and are based on the actual cost of the goods, which the firm thinks is preferable to moving them away.

There are only eight more days in which to list property for taxation and less than one half of those required to list have listed. The list takers ask THE REVIEW to urge the people to come up and list right away. They say that there is no use in thinking that a time will come when a person can come in and list without a moment's delay for this time will not come. One can best save time, they say, by coming and awaiting his turn.

A pretty marriage took place at the home of Mr. John Knight yesterday in Greensboro when Miss Sarah Bell Daniel, of that city, and Dr. John E. McCreary, of Beckley, W. Va., assumed the vows. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. C. E. Hodgkin, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. Miss Mary Miller, of Reidsville, acted as maid of honor and Mr. John C. Daniel, of Lynchburg, Va., brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was becomingly attired in white silk. The happy couple left for New York and other places of interest on a wedding trip before going to their future home in Beckley.

Every Man his own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man from necessity must be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles. Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin. One bottle of each of these five preparations cost but $1.25. Sold by Britain,

Shoe Sale of Importance.

Announcement is made in our advertising column that Mr. J. E. Wood, of Charlottesville, Va., who has been a silent partner in the Peebles Shoe Company Co., of Greensboro, has bought the interest of the senior member, Mr. Peebles, who has accepted a position with a new bank recently organized in that city, and that the entire stock will be offered for sale at greatly reduced prices, beginning tomorrow. Mr. Wood has plans for changing and remodeling the business, and has determined to make prices on every pair of shoes in his stock which will clean out the counters. The Peebles Shoe Co. is one of the largest concerns of its kind in the State, and has a mammoth stock of fine and cheap shoes, which are fresh stock. The sale will be continued for a short length of time, when the plans of the concern will be put into effect.

A careful reading of the advertisement will show you some real shoe bargains. Anyone can order any pair advertised, and if they find them unsatisfactory return them and get their money back.

Mr. Harrell Not Guilty.

After being out about three hours Wednesday night the jury in the case of the State against J. R. Harrell, who was charged with setting fire to his store in Greensboro returned a verdict of not guilty. The case was taken up Wednesday morning and went to the jury about seven o'clock in the evening. The attorneys for the defense were Murphy & Wright and F. P. Hobgood, Jr.

The fire, which is alleged to have been caused by Harrell, occurred one night last March, and in addition to burning Harrell's store, destroyed several negro residences. It was alleged that Harrell burned the store to get the insurance on his goods.

A large number of witnesses were examined and speeches were made by the attorneys on both sides. Mr. Harrell formerly lived in Reidsville and bore the reputation of a man with a good character.

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for piles, burns, etc., by W. S. Allen, druggist. 25c.
