TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

THE REVIEW COMPANY. (Incorporated)

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

THE WEEKLY HAS ANSWERED.

Paraphrasing the first two lines of the first editorial column of our neighbor, the Weekly, "overtaking a paper in a misrepresentation will make its editor squirm more than anything else."

It would seem that a few paragraphs, certainly a column of space, would have been sufficient to answer the indictment, but the evidence printed by The Review was so conclusive that the Weekly has employed a whole page and then some to make out a defense.

The Weekly, gentlemen of the jury, in the first column of its editorial page, tries to intimidate the witness who is prosecuting it for untruthfulness by breathing out threats. Hear it, in its discussion of the case: "Hereafter, that man who shall declare it false, not only wrongs Science, but makes us out a liar."

The Review has no special preference about where its "seven-foot-four" shall be, but rather it is more concerned in keeping the Weekly from burying the State's Democratic officials under a mass of untruths and misrepresentations, and even if we felt like our time had come to select our own spot we would proceed to do so and return to the arena to die in a defense of truth and right.

Stripping the defense put up by the Weekly of all the dead matter, and getting down to meat in the coconut, what do we find? The Weekly saying, in column one, paragraph five, "The Review, which has access to the family Bible, assures us that Judge Manning is 51. Must be feeling the weight of his office to make this confession." And again in column two, the first subparagraph, "Hanged if a man don't need to be careful how he writes about politicians' ages in Rockingham county."

Pitiously asking us to answer for him and appealing to us to make his defense for him after we have arraigned him and read the indictment? Who ever heard of such a proposition? Suppose the Weekly had been accused of stealing a sheep and it indicted the party who made the accusation, would it have been satisfied to allow the accused party to ask if it had ever stolen a sheep and then felt like the ends of justice were met, and withdraw the prosecution? This is the unenviable position the Weekly finds itself in. Having accused Judge Manning of being a YOUNG lawyer, it proceeds to ask us if he is not a younger lawyer than Judge Allen.

According to the Weekly, Judge Allen received his license to practice law at 21 years of age. He was born in 1869, thus he has been a lawyer for 29 years. Judge Manning was granted license to practice law in 1881, showing that he also has been a lawyer for 29 years. The Weekly says "Judge Allen was appointed to the Superior court bench in 1899 and served for six months. He has served in this capacity continuously and with marked ability since January, 1902."

So we see that Judge Manning was not only a lawyer in 28 years ago, but he was actually a candidate for Judgeship on the Democratic ticket three years before Judge Allen was appointed to a position on the bench. And the people of the State even 14 years ago felt so confident of his ability and competency to sit on the bench that he received more votes than any other Democrat in the running.

Oh, Tammy, "what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive." The above being the facts and we defy their contradiction. I would seem that the Weekly would not have argued further, but it did, and concludes the whole spasmotic page delverance with this gem of a mental: "We emphatically deny that we have misrepresented Gov. Kitchin for any of his appointees." What do you think of that, gentlemen of the jury, in view of the admissions set forth in the beginning of its page, and the proof of the inaccuracies in his statements as so plainly shown in the State's history, information he had at his fingers' ends, and which he ignored because it suited his case better to ignore?

This is the case for the people in the first indictment only, that of misrepresenting facts to prejudice voters against Judge Manning, the appointee of our Democratic Governor, Kitchin, who has given the State one of the best administrations of the several great Governors who have occupied the Executive office. There can be no compromise verdict, but the jury can recommend mercy, and the sentence will not be severe under this indictment. There are several other indictments pending.

This brief review of the "answer" filed by the defense is not at all necessary, as the Weekly has convicted itself. However, we will take advantage of the opportunity to answer a question which, in its desperation, it has hurled at us. We do endorse subsection "F" heartily and enthusiastically. First, because it is clothed in the language of the State Democratic platform and carries out a promise made to the voters of the State, a promise which caused the voters to swear allegiance to the Democratic party. No other subsection was in the trust plank of the Democratic platform, and therefore we do not at this time consider any measure endorsed or advocated by the editor of the Weekly or any one else who has not submitted his measure to the approval of the party to which we belong.

We much prefer being on record as standing on the platform of the Democratic party than advocating some measure endorsed by the Weekly for the purpose of creating prejudice against Governor Kitchin, especially in view of the fact that the Weekly has so plainly shown its animosity towards the Governor. The Review need not answer the other question propounded by the Weekly, viz: "Does The Review take its stand with the American Tobacco Co. and the corporate interests or does it stand with the farmers?" The Weekly will not charge what it insinuates in its query. The insinuation is about as far from being true as its charge that Judge Manning is a YOUNG lawyer. The Review has steadfastly waged war on the great trusts of the country which are operated for the purpose of bringing hardships upon any class of citizens. An insinuation contained in a question like the above shows the weakness of the case of one who cares more for notoriety than he does for right and facts.

The Review stands with the farmers of the county, but it does not intend to mislead the farmers by a lot of misrepresentation of Democratic officials of the State simply for the purpose of humiliating W. W. Kitchin, who during the twelve years he represented them in the halls of the National Congress cast every vote in their interest, and who has in every contest stood squarely with them in protecting their interests. We are for the farmers, and with the farmers, and we are for fair play and justice.

The Weekly stands convicted of having misrepresented one of the appointees of Governor Kitchin, and it has been proven that it did so for the purpose of creating a prejudice against the farmer's champion and patriot. The verdict has been rendered and the Weekly is guilty of the serious charge.

The Weekly, having convicted itself of the serious charge, should have stated whether it misrepresented Mr. Manning for downright cussedness or simply through ignorance.

The career of Governor Hughes offers some striking suggestions to young men entering politics. It used to be said there is no chance for a young man to win financial success in politics if he is honest. Governor Hughes' career disproves that. He could quit politics now and make $100,000 a year in law practice if he wanted to. Why? Because the people will do anything for a man who will fight the political machines as Hughes has done. They are weary unto death of the give and take trade and swap, scratch my back and I'll scratch yours, of old time machine politics. If a man will simply ignore the machines, set them at defiance, act as the loyal servant of the common people, the voters regard less of party will take care of that man, will see that the assaults of the machines are innocuous, and will give him a reputation assuring him business success when he quits the game.

The Weekly announced the visit of Hon. H. A. Foushee to the county last week and stated that he was the manager of Judge Manning's campaign, and then wonders why we did not see fit to mention the fact that he was here. We courteously introduced the visitor to the editor of the Weekly and thereby laid the ground work for a "scoop" on a piece of local news. The Weekly knows, well enough the motive which prompted Mr. Foushee to make a trip to this county. It was for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the situation in Rockingham relative to the candidacy of Judge Manning and Judge Allen.

The Weekly reasons that Governor Patterson pardoned Cooper, on the same grounds that Kitchin commuted the sentence of Shemwell—that of showing mercy. Patterson pardoned Cooper because he did not believe him guilty. Kitchin commuted Shemwell's sentence because six reputable physicians said five months' prison confinement would jeopardize his life. The Weekly is great when it comes to reasoning matters in a way that will enable it to carry its point. Shemwell was convicted of a misdemeanor and Cooper was convicted of participating in a murder.

Chambers Dupow is quoted as intending to stand in the Senate and face death March 4th next so calmly. The Review fought trusts while the editor of the Weekly was playing hide-and-seek and making mud cakes at Yanceyville. After quite a tramp in from the Pacific suburbs, Edward Payson Weston piked it down Broadway one day this week.

The Dukes Will Spend Millions.

That is interesting news coming from Piedmont Carolina to the effect that the Dukes will build a trolley railway system connecting many cities in North and South Carolina, and also that they will take hold of the Toxaway region of North Carolina and make it even more attractive as a summer resort. It means the expenditure of eight or ten millions of dollars and a development of the consequence which is inconceivable.

Mr. Woods' Heavy Losses. Samuel G. Woods, a well known farmer and merchant of Caswell county, whose large lumber mill, sawmill and manufacturing plant at Purley were destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning, was in the city today and stated that his losses from the conflagration would be between four and five thousand dollars. The fire was first discovered at about 1 o'clock in a building used for the storage of lumber, and its origin is a mystery. The flames spread rapidly and all of the adjacent buildings were soon burned to the ground, causing damage to the extent of about seven thousand dollars.

MILAM Blood Purifier and Tonic.

"Milam is absorbed from the stomach and carried through the Portal Veins and enters through the Liver, the great gateway to the general circulation, when by its alterative properties it stimulates the cells of the liver to eliminate waste and foreign matters from the blood. Thence it goes through the lungs into the general circulation where it penetrates to the minutest cells of the body and lurking places of disease, stimulating the cells and glands to drain away poisonous and foreign matters circulating in the blood or hiding in the system."

The TONIC properties of MILAM come not only from the purifying and enrichment of the blood, but before being absorbed into the system, the action upon the stomach is very beneficial. The contents are sweetened and purified, the flow of the pancreatic juices stimulated, thus aiding digestion, increasing appetite, toning up and strengthening the entire system. Milam is the best.

THE CAUSE OF MANY Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance, the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold in all drug stores in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address: Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

For REGISTER OF DEEDS. Two years ago after my defeat for Register of Deeds I had no complaint to make, but said in a card that I would be with the boys again in two years. I now ask the Democratic party for the nomination—again. While I am no quitter, I am not a hanger on and shall make no fight for the nomination in the primary, but will appreciate it if the party thinks best to tender me the nomination for Register of Deeds again and will make a hard fight for the election. Patriotism. The stomach is a larger factor in life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness than most people are aware. Patriotism is a weakness of the stomach. The confirmed dyspeptic is a danger to his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder. A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness. Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.
